A Visitor In The City.

Mr. W. J. Dockrill, a travelling passenger of the C.P.R., was in the city to-day. His genial presence is a real inspiration for he is a man of wonderful energy and zeal and eminently congenial and companionable.

Injured Doing Well.

The patients at the General Hospital, who suffered injuries in the several accidents over the week-end are all making very favorable progress. It is not anticipated that any serious consequences will result.

A Gift to the Church.

Rev. R. W. Spencer, Anglican Church, Camden East, is having new lights installed, which will be very brilliant; and he is also pleased with the generosity of Mrs. Lillie Perry, giving a cheque for $100 towards a new furnace for the church.

Removing to Plainfield, N.J.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stevenson and family left Napanee, Tuesday, for Plainfield, N.J., where they will in future reside. Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson resided in Napanee for a number of years, Mr. Stevenson being foreman at the Napanee Iron Works.

A New Mail Box.

For the convenience of the delegates attending the Bay of Quinte conference, at Sydenham street church, the post office authorities have placed a mail box on William street, close by the church. Arrangements have been made for three collections each day.

Degrees in Medicine.

William K. Burwell, Renfrew, won the final year prize in medicine at McGill, and is a graduate. Other graduates are: J. C. Gomeroy, Winchester; T. E. W. Harding, Brockville; W. E. Johnson, Almonte; C. W. McCormock, Renfrew; A. D. Redmond, Iroquois; J. C. Rothwell, Lennox.

Married at Toronto.

In Toronto, on May 24th, 1926, at St. Patrick's rectory, by the Rev. Father P. J. Gallery, C.S.S.R., the marriage took place of Arthur Joseph Gaudreau to May Cameron, both of Toronto and formerly of Kingston. The groom is a printer and was for years in The Whig office previous to going to Toronto.

Building Permits Issued.

Building permits have been issued at the office of the city engineer as follows:

Former Kingstonian Missing.

Postmaster James Stewart has received a communication from New York, asking him to try and locate one John McCullen. Mr. McCullen is a native of Kingston, but took up his residence in New York and has been missing for some time. He has a brother, Charles, and a sister, Mary, and it was thought that some person in Kingston might have trace of the missing man.

Motored From Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hazelwood, Mrs. Jessie Hazelwood and son Reginald, Georgetown, motored to Bath and spent the week-end with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Calver, Sr., and other relatives. Miss Edythe M. Osborne, Wolfe Island, spent the week-end with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Osborne, Robert Calver motored to Napanee and spent the 24th with his daughter, Mrs. Ronald Stevenson.

Not Enough Lights—$10.

There must be two headlights and one rear light on every automobile driving through the streets of Smith's Falls after dark. This was very forcibly brought home to Daniel Kennedy, Phillipsville, when he appeared before Magistrate Sparham, Smith's Falls. He pleaded guilty to a charge of driving with only one lighted lamp on his automobile and paid a fine of $5 with costs of $5. He was relieved of $10 just because he neglected to keep his three lamps lighted. He now knows that the Highway Traffic Act is deadly serious.

Funeral of Mrs. Joseph Hamby.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Joseph Hamby took place at her late residence at Hay Bay, on May 20th. After a short service the remains were laid to rest in the Sand Hill cemetery. Mrs. Joseph Hamby was born and lived all her life in the Hay Bay district, and died at the ripe old age of eighty-seven years, ten months and twenty-four days, and was a woman of great energy and Christian piety, being a staunch supporter of the church. She is survived by three sisters and one son. Her sisters are Mrs. Henry Degroff, Bloomfield, aged eighty-three years; Mrs. John L. Ferguson, Deseronto, aged ninety-one years, and Mrs. Jacob Windover, Detroit, Mich., aged ninety-two years. Her only surviving son, John, lives on the homestead at Hay Bay.
