CUNARD ANCHOR-DONALDSON

A Page from the past

On guard at the tower gate stand the yeomen, in all their ancient splendour, a page torn from the time of the Tudors. From every corner, every court of old London, the finger of Romance beckons. A palatial Canadian Pacific "Empress" awaits you—four comfortable days at sea, then London. For particulars, apply to local agents

FARMERS ARE WELL ON WITH THEIR SEEDING

Still Large Crop of Last Year's Hay to Be Shipped From Wolfe Island.

Wolfe Island, May 25.—The farmers are all nearly through seeding now. The cool weather has rushed the work along. There is a large crop of last year's hay to ship from here before the new crop is harvested.

Mr. John Davis has been carrying the mail and passengers in his motor boat since the steamer Wolfe Island entered the dry dock. She is expected out next Saturday. Mr. H. C. Hagan, one of the island's best cheese makers, who has been employed on the American side of late, is moving his family to Bronville, N.Y. The family will be much missed in the village, as they had a large circle of friends. Mr. Frank Brice-land purchased several horses on the island last week, as he is shipping a load to Montreal. Miss Minnie O'Brien is home from New York, after being there for the past four years.

Mr. George McReady and Mrs. Oscar McReady have just returned from Watertown, N.Y. Dr. Hunt is moving his household effects away after spending the last five years here.

Mr. Lloyd Hough and wife have just moved into their new residence in the village. Mr. Daniel Larush, Joseph McAvoy, Oliver Davis and Henry Davis have gone sailing out of Buffalo.

The Island Hotel here is certainly one of the finest in county of Frontenac for appearance and accommodation, and the proprietor spares no pains in the daily menu, which is prepared on all sides. Mrs. M. V. Johnston and little daughter, Gertrude, have just returned from Picton. Jack Yott has purchased a new auto. Mrs. John Beef has returned home much improved in health. Mr. Edward Brice-land has just returned home after spending a week with his son in Kingston. "Bill" Friend is home from Queen's college.

Mr. Henry Duff and wife, Watertown, N.Y., spent the week-end on the island. Jack Brice-land and men are busy these days painting the summer home and boat houses of Francis King, Kingston. It is one of the many beautiful summer homes on the river.

Rev. Father Baker was home from Cornwall for a few days. Mrs. P. J. Ryan has left to visit with her sons in Rochester, N.Y. Mr. Craig Russell has started grading the roads with a new machine. Mr. Alexander Livingston has built a very beautiful and fast motor boat and has it all ready in water. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bush have moved to their summer home on Simcoe Island. Mr. Victor Crawford, the popular school teacher of the village has purchased a new motor boat for pleasure. Mr. Henry Hall, who has been in the poultry business very extensively of late, has Mr. Herbert Leskey engaged building a very large and improved hen-house.

Mr. Oliver Hawkins and wife are spending a week in Watertown, N.Y. Mr. Edward White and wife and two boys were out to Watertown to attend the funeral of Barnie Mackie, a brother of Mrs. White. Mr. Deck Pyke has left for New York to have his shoulder treated by a physician there.

Dr. Sidney Horne and wife, Hamilton, were visiting friends here. Mr. Jack Greay and Dr. Walsh, of Perth, are visiting Mrs. John Kingsley. Sheriff Dawson and his niece, Mrs. Duncan McRae, are visiting relatives in Cape Vincent. Rev. Mr. Russell has moved to Morrisburg. Miss Tandy and her father are moving to their summer cottage here. Rev. Father McKiernan has left for Montreal to be present at the ordination of a nephew. Mr. William Grevell, Kingston, was a visitor at M. J. O'Connell's.
