

SUDDEN PASSING OF AGED ATHENS LADY

The Late Mrs. Amos Robinson—Pleasant Time Spent at Hard Island Home.

Athens, May 27.—In the sudden passing on the 26th inst. of Mrs. Mary Victoria Robinson, relict of the late Amos Robinson, Brockville, Athens loses one of its saintly women, one whose life and influence were a benediction. Residing with her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Cornell, she identified herself with the interests of the town, particularly the church, and was in her pew, when health and weather permitted. She kept her intellect alert, and, although she had passed the age of eighty-six, was keenly interested in the issues of the day. She kept herself physically fit by moderate exercise, and was a familiar figure on her street as she took her daily walk. Dear to her heart was the work of the W.C.T.U., and on the afternoon of her death she attended (and greatly enjoyed) the meeting held by that organization at the home of Mrs. Herbert Stephenson, Hard Island. The W.M.S. found in her a staunch friend, and she was a life-member of the Brockville auxiliary. Beside Mrs. Cornell, she has another daughter, Mrs. D. M. Spaldal, Brouxville, N.Y., and three sons, Ezra, Vancouver, B.C.; Horace, Edmonton, Alta., and Leonard, C.E., Campbellton, N.B.

One of those events which linger in the memory as the aroma of fragrant flowers pervades a room was the session of the W.C.T.U. held at the Hard Island home of Mrs. Stephenson on the afternoon of Thursday, May 20th, when local ladies availed themselves of the opportunity of enjoying an auto drive along the road flanked on either side with the beauties of the spring-time, and participating in an interesting programme in this hospitable home, where the affable hostess always accompanied such a cordial welcome to her guests. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Town are a much-loved pair, and several events have been held in their honor, and several presentations have been made ere their departure from our midst. The former has disposed of his furniture and undertaking business to G. E. Judson and Son, of this place, who have now been in charge for several weeks.

In the local churches on Sabbath last (26th inst.), appropriate references were made to the close proximity of Victoria Day, and patriotic principles were inculcated and encouraged. On Sabbath evening, in the Baptist church, Rev. G. G. Upham, B.Th., conducted a helpful "song service," his address being interspersed with hymns, known and loved. The choir rendered excellent service, solo work being taken by Miss Breeze, Messrs. Bates and Young.

The First Picnic.
Epworth Leaguers opened the picnic season on Monday by holding their annual outing at Butternut Bay, St. Lawrence river, where the pastor, Rev. H. E. Warren, M.A., B.D., has his summer home. Sports and pastimes constitute a pleasant day.

A Victoria Day dance was held in the town hall on Monday evening, the Island City orchestra being in attendance. Mrs. Mervyn Brown, who has a class in violin here, is a member of the orchestra.

To few of us comes the opportunity of going abroad and seeing the peoples of other lands, but to hear one who has actually had such an interesting experience tell of her travels is perhaps a good substitute, and when the narrator is Miss Edith Giles, of the staff of the Brockville Collegiate Institute, it goes without saying that a very vivid description is received. Miss Giles is an experienced traveller, a fluent linguist with an attractive personality, and the story of her experiences in Great Britain, Belgium and France as told in her inimitable manner in the high school assembly hall on the evening of May 25th will be long remembered.

"Lest we forget," a memorial tablet was placed in our former high school in memory of our students who enlisted in the Great War, to fight for God, and home, and native land. Along with many other treasures, this tablet was destroyed in the disastrous fire which demolished our far-famed educational institution. To replace the former, a new tablet is being unveiled to-day in the high school community hall at 2 p.m., in the presence of all who care to attend. An ex-student, Rev. Arthur Hagan, (resident here during the pastoral of his father, some years ago), chaplain of the 156th Battalion—to which our local men belonged—is expected to give an address.

Consummation of Dream.
The consummation of Reeve M. B. Holmes' dream takes place this afternoon at four, when Lieut.-Col. R. J. Gill, Brockville, unveils the soldiers' memorial tablet in the council chamber of the town hall. The tablet is a beautiful piece of penmanship executed in Toronto, and, when draped with the flags of the allies, will be most effective. The "key" to the memorial tree-planting system adopted some time ago, will also be included and explained.

Russell Pierce, whose eye was injured while playing ball about the middle of the month has been able to return from the General Hospital, Brockville, where he has been under treatment. It is expected that the sight will not be permanently impaired, as was at first feared.

Mrs. Almeron Robinson and daughter, Miss Carrie Robinson, L.L.C.M., were called to Westport by the illness and death of the former's brother, Mr. Taggart, almost a nonagenarian, but remarkably well preserved, and apparently a much younger man. He is kindly remembered here by those who met him while visiting his sister.

Mrs. G. F. Blackwell, Lindsay, has arrived to spend some time with her mother, Mrs. Irwin Wiltsie, who has been in ill-health for some time. Another daughter, Mrs. W. W. Kennedy, Winnipeg, who has spent the winter here, has returned to the west, and her youngest daughter, Mrs. Lorne Derbyshire, who has spent the past month with her parents, has returned to her home in Toronto.

All are pleased to know that Mrs. A. R. Brown is steadily improving. The son, Hilliard, has returned to his position in Rochester, N.Y. Max Ain has returned from Montreal to resume the management of his Main street store. Mrs. Ain accompanied her husband and will take up residence here. Our local artist, C. C. Slack, has contributed a fine new sign for Memorial Park.

Personal Notes.

Miss Myrtle Taber, student at Victoria University, Toronto, has arrived for a holiday at her Elgin street home. Miss Kate Brown, Caledonia, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Lloyd Earl, Sarah street. George Smith, Brantford, has been here on a visit to his brother, Walter Smith. Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson, Smith's Falls, have been spending a few days with the latter's aunt, Mrs. George Stevens, Elgin street.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Spaldal, Brouxville, N.Y., have been spending a few days with the latter's sister, Mrs. H. E. Cornell. Mr. and Mrs. William H. Morris, Ottawa, were holiday guests at the home of Waldron Sheffield. Mr. Morris was for some time editor of the "Athens Reporter."
