SUITS FOR SUMMER MEN

Easy Suits

- TO WEAR.
- TO LOOK AT.
- TO BUY.

$25, $27.50, $30

They are the sort of clothes in which the well-dressed man feels at home and looks at ease — loungy, comfortable, swagger and smart. They are the sort of clothes that you can wear carelessly and still look well groomed—that is the test of good dressing—natural and natty without restraint at any time. The price is easy, too.

Appointed Bailiff.
George Burke has been appointed bailiff of the First Division Court of the county of Lanark to succeed R. M. Imeson, who has resigned.

Attended Liberal Executive.
Mr. William Harty, Jr., and Mr. Rupert Davies, of Kingston, attended the Ontario Liberal Association executive meeting in Toronto on Friday.

Progressing Favorably.
The friends of Mr. C. A. Wiseman, Napanee, who underwent a successful operation in Kingston General Hospital, on Tuesday, will be pleased to learn that he is progressing favorably.

Tulip Season Closing.
The tulip season is nearing a close and already the petals are beginning to fall off the flowers. Tulips appeared very late this season, but their growth was fast after they broke through the ground.

In Juvenile Court.
In the Juvenile Court on Saturday morning, the case of a lad, charged with stealing a bicycle, was disposed of. The youngster admitted stealing the wheel, and was allowed to go with a warning.

Many Outside Cars.
Many cars from outside cities are in Kingston, including a number belonging to delegates of the Bay of Quinte Conference. Large numbers of American cars are seen also, and the number passing through the city is increasing daily.

Dance At Portsmouth.
A very enjoyable and successful dance was held by the Catholic Women's League of Portsmouth in the Parish Hall Friday evening, about sixty couples enjoying dancing from nine till eleven o'clock. The music was supplied by Shea's orchestra.

Unionists Hold Service.
The Unionists will hold the service at St. John's Church, Pittsburgh, on Sunday morning, according to programme. There was no special arrangement made for service tomorrow. The only time any arrangement was made was for last Sunday.

Good Work of Scouts.
Mr. Frank C. Irwin, assistant provincial commissioner of Boy Scouts, was at St. John's Church, Portsmouth, on Friday evening, and witnessed the parade and work of the First Portsmouth Scouts, and he complimented them on their splendid showing.

Eganville Ordination.
Rev. Kenneth McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McDonald, Ottawa, and formerly of Arnprior, will be raised to the dignity of the priesthood at St. James' church, Eganville, by Bishop Ryan, Pembroke, on Saturday morning. On Sunday morning Rev. Father McDonald will celebrate his first solemn high mass in the church of St. John Chrysostom at Arnprior.

Kiwanis Activities.
Monday's meeting of the Kiwanis Club will be held at six o'clock in the evening at the Frontenac Hotel and the speaker on this occasion will be Arthur Lismer Esq., of the Ontario College of Art, Toronto. His subject will be, "The History and Development of Canadian Art." Mr. Lismer will illustrate his address with lantern slides. The booster will be Jack McCallum of the McCallum Granite Co.

A Happy Gathering.
The "Gander Home," so picturesquely situated above the river at Newburgh, and beautiful with spring flowers and pale green foliage, was the scene of a happy gathering of friends on Saturday afternoon, when the Misses Gandler served tea to a large number of friends. Mrs. Thomson, Napanee, and Miss Mitchell assisted in the dining-room. Hosts of loving and grateful friends regret their leaving Newburgh, where they have lived for a number of years.

Visiting at Odessa.
Mrs. J. W. Rooks, Elva, Man., passed through Napanee, en route to Odessa, where she will spend the next two weeks with her mother and sister, before going on to Oswego, N.Y., to visit her brother, Henry, whom she has not seen for twenty-nine years. She intends returning to Odessa in about two months. Mrs. Rooks spent a few days in Toronto with her niece, Mrs. Stanley Chusely, on her way down. She reports everything looking fine in the west.

Enjoy a Sail.
Come and enjoy a sail to Cape Vincent, N.Y., Saturday and Sunday and Monday (May 31st, Decoration Day). Leaving Kingston 7 a.m. and 1.15 p.m. standard time. Passengers taking 7 a.m. boat and returning on evening boat will have an opportunity to spend three hours in Watertown. The Sunday 1.15 p.m. boat makes a trip through the Islands and to Cape Vincent. Fare round trip to Cape Vincent returning same day 75c. Phone 2195.

271 Million Eggs Distributed.
The Cape Vincent fishery has sent out millions of fish this spring for distribution in lakes and streams in the state, according to a statement from J. P. Snyder, superintendent of the hatchery. Altogether, 271,824,000 fish and eggs were sent out from the station and its subsidiaries. The output at Cape Vincent was somewhat less this year, says Mr. Snyder, partly because of the severe storm during the spawning period of whitefish and lake trout and partly because the station was not allowed to collect eggs in the Bay of Quinte.

"D" Company Inspected.
"D" Company of the Princess of Wales Own Regiment, in command of Major Ludlow, was inspected by Major-General Elmsley at Barrieffield Friday evening and was awarded the Battalion Shield, emblematic of the most proficient company of the regiment. The company inspections were held during the week and the companies awarded points by the inspecting officer, according to their proficiency. "D" Company carried out their drills very neatly and scored the highest percentage.

Y.M.C.A. LADIES' AUXILIARY.
The Annual Meeting Held And Officers Elected.

Another year of progress and achievement along many lines was recorded at the annual meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. held on Friday afternoon. During the year the Auxiliary has renovated the men's reading room making it cosy and inviting, provided suppers for the Y's Men's Club and other organizations connected with the Association, put on many social events and given substantial financial help to the Board for the furnace fund. The next immediate objective is the furnishing of the dining room as temporary quarters for transients this summer. Six more beds are being added immediately.
