HE DEFIES CONSTIPATION!

J. H. Nichols of Winnipeg ready to carry ALL-BRAN in his baggage to Britain, if necessary.

When a Canadian going abroad is ready to carry in his baggage a sufficient supply of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN to cover his needs during his journey, he is indeed an enthusiastic booster for that product.

His letter stated that if he had to choose between One Million Dollars and ALL-BRAN he would "much rather do without the million." Mr. Nichols realized that Kellogg's is the original ALL-BRAN—and a necessity in the permanent relief of constipation.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to bring relief in the most chronic case of constipation—permanent relief, if eaten regularly. Only ALL-BRAN can bring such 100 percent results. Eat at least two tablespoonfuls daily; in chronic cases, use it with every meal. If relief does not follow, your money will be refunded.

THE NURSE.

The world grows better, year by year. Because some nurse in her little sphere, puts on her apron and smiles and sings, and keeps on doing the same old things. Taking the temperature, giving the pills. To remedy mankind's numberless ills; Feeding the baby, answering the bells. Being polite with a heart that rebels. Longing for home and all the while wearing the same old professional smile; Blowing the new born babe's first breath, closing the eyes that are still in death. Taking the blame for the doctor's mistakes. Oh dear, what a lot of patience it takes; Going off duty at seven o'clock, tired, discouraged and ready to drop. But called back on special at seven fifteen. With woe in her heart, but it must not be seen; Morning and evening, and noon and night. Just doing it over and hoping it's right. When we lay down our caps and cross the bar, Oh Lord will you give us just one little star. To wear in our crowns with our uniforms sew. In that city above, where the Head Nurse is You. THE PROPHECIC BARD.

Thirty years ago, a newspaper correspondent points out, the following prophetic verses appeared in Chamber's Journal. Pretty good prophecy: O the Twentieth Century Girl! What a wonderful thing she will be! She'll evolve from a mystical whirl A woman unfettered and free. No corsets to crampen her waist. No crimps to encumber her brain; Untraid, bifurcate, unlaced, Like a goddess of old she will reign! She'll wear bloomers, a matter of course; She will vote, not a question of doubt; She will ride like a man on a horse; At the club late at night she'll stay out. If she chances to love, she'll propose; To blush will be quite out of date; She'll discuss politics with her beaux, And outtalk her masculine mate! She'll be up in the science of things; She will smoke cigarettes; she will swear. If the servant a dunning note brings, Or the steak isn't served up with care. No longer she'll powder her nose Or cultivate even a curl, Nor bother with fashion or clothes. This Twentieth Century Girl. Her voice will be heard in the land; She'll debate in matters of state; In council her word will command, And her whisper the laws regulate. She will stand 'neath the banner unfurled, Inscribed with her principles new; But the question is what in the world The New Century Baby will do.

FLIES—AT 81

Mrs. Eunice Howry of Balboa, Cal., celebrated her eighty-first birthday by taking a ride in an airplane. "I wasn't a bit nervous—it was fun," she said afterward.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES HOLD JOINT SESSION

And Hear Excellent Address by Miss Ethel Robson, of Middlesex County.

Mrs. J. L. F. Sproule, president of Westbrook Institute was in the chair at the meeting of the Westbrook, Pittsburgh and Junior Frontenac Women's Institute held on Monday afternoon in the Eastern Dairy School. Mrs. Sproule said she was the first president of the Westbrook branch when it was formed sixteen years ago so the duty of presiding as senior president fell to her, Mrs. James Hanna, president of the Pittsburgh branch, and Miss Ada Wittsie, president of the Frontenac Juniors, with Mrs. G. W. McNaughton, Sydenham, the secretary-treasurer of the Frontenac District, and Mrs. A. W. Sirett were also present.

Mrs. MacNaughton made several announcements, among them that a prize of $50 and other prizes would be given by the Department of Agriculture through Mr. G. A. Putnam, superintendent of Institutes, for a play written by an Institute member bringing in the contrast between farm life of today and of twenty-five years ago. Further particulars may be had from Mrs. McNaughton. Mrs. Sproule introduced Miss Ethel Robson, who spoke at length on various phases of the work of the Institutes. She felt that more might be done for the rural schools, especially the secondary schools, and urged all women to use their franchise towards appointing suitable trustees. It doesn't do to say "What was good enough for me is good enough for my children." Probably it is not, Miss Robson, who is president of the Institute at Denfield, Middlesex County, is something of a poetess and read a number of her verses bearing upon Institute work. One referred to the modern girl who, in spite of her silken hose, her bobbed head and her powder puff, has the makings of a real woman in her and was exceedingly bright and pretty. The main subject of her address was how a woman may be efficient and useful after forty.

She stressed the point that to be wanted a woman must make herself so. Women must earn their children's love and respect. Women at forty were more experienced and surely had a contribution to bring to the community that was well worth while. A well strong body, an upright carriage and supple limbs were possible even when older than forty and Miss Robson counselled exercises that will keep women in health. She felt there was much to be said for the girls of today and that in spite of their wanted independence, they were influenced by older women who took them in the right way.

A vote of thanks was moved to the speaker by Mrs. James Hanna, seconded by Mrs. G. W. Macnaughton. Miss Ada Wittsie sang "When There's Love at Home." Miss Beryl Arthur recited "The Inventor's Wife," and Miss Flora Sproule sang "Danny Boy," all numbers being most enjoyable. Tea was served at tables centred with narcissi and wild flowers. Mrs. James Hanna pouring tea and Miss Florence Sproule cutting the ices, assisted by the members of the Junior Farmers' Women's Institute.

The Editor Hears

That the Anglican women are as much interested in the election of a bishop for the diocese of Ontario as the men. They have no direct voice in the matter, the election being made by the clergy and lay delegates who are all men. The general feeling seems to be that the man chosen to fill the office of chief pastor of the diocese should be one who would maintain the traditions of the diocese and be a strong churchman as well as a strong man.

That in spite of the warm summer weather of Sunday and the lure of the open road, the congregations in many of the city churches was large. Grant Hall was filled to capacity for the great Unionist service and St. George's Cathedral had a large congregation at matins when the P.W.O.R. held its annual church parade to the century old garrison church.

That Fort Henry Cove, where many Kingstonians spend the summer, is a place of beauty at all times, but now, with the pale green of the fresh spring foliage showing against the darker green of the cedar, the juniper bushes tipped with baby shoots, the pink of the great granite rocks garruled with the delicate sprays of Virginia creeper and elderberries, wild plum and bilberry making drifts of white against the varied tones of green, it is indeed a beauty spot, touched by the gentle fingers of the Goddess of Spring.

That the ladies of the W.M.S. of the United Church who left by motor bus for Trenton to-day will have a busy time. This is the first large meeting after the organization meeting in Gananoque in April, and much important business will be transacted.

That already we are hearing of citizens having plants stolen from their lawns and steps. These losses should be at once reported to the police who will soon round-up the guilty parties. We want a more beautiful Kingston, but we will not get it by such vandalism as the theft of plants and flowers.

Hamilton, Ont. - "I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and would not be without it now. I had a female trouble so badly I could hardly walk and I was all run down and could hardly get around to do my housework. I would be in bed three or four days at a time. I was told by a friend to try your Vegetable Compound. I did, and by the time I took two bottles I was beginning to get around again. I took ten bottles in all, and now I am all right again and doing my own work. I have plenty to do. I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, and I think it is good. But I owe my health to the Vegetable Compound, and I think if more of it was used women would be better off. I would not be without it if it cost much more." - Mrs. NELLIE HORN, 28 St. Matthews Avenue, Hamilton, Ontario. Do you feel broken down, nervous and weak sometimes? Lydia E.
