

NO CHANGE LIKELY IN CATTLE TARIFF

Washington Legislation Not Possible Until Next Congress—Unwelcome Issue.

Washington, June 2.—Talk here in reference to the cattle tariff and especially on that subject as it relates to admission of feeders from Canada or any mutual concessions relative to cattle rates growing out of Hon. W. R. Motherwell's statement to the House of Commons at Ottawa, is that there is no likelihood of any change in the present situation in the near future. It is pointed out no legislation is possible before the seventeenth congress, which will be elected next November but will not meet in regular session for a year and a half.

So far as the flexible tariff is concerned officials of the tariff commission point out there is nothing formal before them on cattle rates. While there has been agitation by some live stock interests on this side to let down the bars as to feeder cattle, other live stock interests are fighting the proposition with a congressional campaign on and with the agricultural situation in the middle-west, northwest and south unsatisfactory, there is little or no prospect. It is felt here, for opening up the cattle tariff question.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S RALLY.

Excellent Programme Given—Banner Won By Queen Street Society. The excellent programme prepared by Rev. J. K. Curtis, pastor of Princess street United Church and Mr. Gordon Cummins, president of the Kingston Presbytery Association, was much appreciated by the large number of young people from the different United Churches of Kingston who were present on Monday evening in Sydenham street church hall.

The subject was "Resolved that wealth is a greater source of unhappiness than poverty." The affirmative side was upheld by two members from Princess street United Church, namely Mr. Harry Murphy and Mr. John Quirt; the negative side by two members from Cooke's United Church, namely Miss Jessie MacIver and Mr. Hazlett Lemmon. The latter were considered the winners according to the judges' decision, but both sides are to be congratulated on the points they brought out. The judges were Mr. D. A. Shaw, Mr. Frank Newman and Professor J. F. McFadyen of Queen's University; timekeeper, Mr. Kenneth McQueen.

A short talk was given by Mr. Roy Rickard, the newly-appointed president of the Religious Educational Council of the Bay of Quinte Conference, on "The use of the Young People's Societies to the Church." His talk was an inspiration to greater effort along this line. A short sing-song was led by Mr. E. E. Parkhouse with Mr. Harry Hill as accompanist at the piano.

A banner was given by the Kingston Presbytery Association to the Society who had the largest percentage of attendance present. It was won by Queen street Young People's Society having 88 per cent, and was presented by Mr. Roy Rickard, in the absence of the president of the Bay of Quinte Conference, Rev. G. A. Brown. Mr. Stewart Lovell received it in the absence of the president of his society. The meeting closed by Professor
