Provost Seager of Trinity College, Toronto, Elected Bishop of Ontario

SELECTION OF BISHOP IS MADE BY SYNOD ON SECOND BALLOT

Rev. Dr. Seager Led on First Ballot Also—Dean Carlisle of Montreal, Dean Liwyd of Halifax, Archdeacon Beamish and Canon Fitzgerald the Other Chief Contenders.

Rev. Charles A. Seager, M.A., D.D., Provost of Trinity College, Toronto, was elected Bishop of the Diocese of Ontario on the second ballot at a special meeting of the Synod called by the authority of the Archbishop of Algoma and presided over by the Bishop of Huron.

Immediately after it was announced that Dr. Seager had been elected on both the lay and clerical ballots, the Synod adjourned to enable His Lordship the Bishop of Huron to get in touch with Dr. Seager and to find out if he would accept the office.

His Lordship the Bishop of Huron said his advice to Synod would be to adjourn again until noon on Thursday but if the final answer of Dr. Seager was no, he would not advise that more votes be taken but that Synod should adjourn for at least a month.

The result of the first ballot was as follows: Clerical—Rev. Dr. Seager, 22; Dean Carlisle, of Montreal, 9; Archdeacon Beamish, of Belleville, 9; Dean Liwyd, of Halifax, 5; Canon Fitzgerald, of Kingston, 4; Rev. J. H. H. Coleman, of Napanee, 3; Dr. Stannage Boyle, of Cobourg, 3; Bishop Bidwell, 3; Dr. Blagrove, of Peterboro, 1; Dr. Cosgrave, of Toronto, 1; Rev. A. F. C. Whalley, of Brockville, 1; Bishop Doull, of Kootenay, 1; Total 61. It was necessary to get 31 votes to be elected on this ballot.

The Bishop of Huron thanked a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the Bishop of Huron for his courtesy in acting as presiding officer. By a vote of the Synod the See House Committee was authorized and given full power to put the See House in first-class condition for the occupancy of the new bishop.

The Bishop, clergy and laity of the Synod of Qu Appelle which is in session sent greetings to the Synod of Ontario. The Synod of Ontario reciprocated.

Canon Woodcock raised the question whether a skeleton Synod, such as that meeting, should deal with so important a matter. The motion regarding the salary was put to the house and carried unanimously.

The Bishop-Elect

Rev. Dr. Charles Allen Seager, the bishop-elect of Ontario diocese, is a native of Goderich, Ont., and son of the crown attorney of Huron. He took his B.A. degree at Trinity College, Toronto, in 1895 and his M.A. in 1897; was made D.D. (honorary causa) in 1914; LL.D. (honorary causa) in 1922. Dr. Seager was ordained deacon and priest in 1896; became canon of Toronto in 1920; was appointed provost in Trinity College, Toronto, in 1922.

THE OUTLOOK IS GOOD FOR THE CHURCH

Rev. A. J. MacGillivray, Guelph, Elected Presbyterian Moderator.

FROM CHAOS TO ORDER

Is How Retiring Moderator Describes Presbyterian Church as Having Come.

Montreal, June 3.—Rev. A. J. MacGillivray, of Knox Church, Guelph, Ont., was last evening elected moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, at the first sederunt of the General Assembly held at Knox Crescent church here. Only two were voted on, the other being Rev. Banks Nelson, of Knox Church, Hamilton. Following the first vote the election was made unanimous. Rev. Principal Daniel J. Fraser, of the Presbyterian Church, Montreal, was supported for moderator, but he pleaded that his college duties were too heavy to allow him to give the needed time to the moderatorship. He in turn named Dr. MacGillivray.

RAINY RIVER MEMBER ATTACKS SENATOR

Declares Conservative Labor Minister Failed to Use "Horse Sense."

Ottawa, June 3.—Echoes of the Winnipeg strike of 1919 again rang through the House of Commons last night. Peter Heenan, Liberal, of Kenora-Rainy River, brought it up on a motion to go into supply. Mr. Heenan declared that had Senator Robertson, at the time Minister of Labor, used a little "horse sense," the strike would have been settled without any bloodshed.

MILLION DOLLAR FIRE AT RIVIERE-DU-LOUP

Ten Stores and Forty-two Houses Were Destroyed on Wednesday.

Quebec, June 3.—A million dollar fire, which destroyed five warehouses, ten stores and forty-two houses, swept through the commercial district of Riviere-du-Loup, one hundred and twenty miles east of this city yesterday afternoon. About three-quarters of the losses are understood to be covered by insurance, but coming at the time of the year when the tourist season just opened, the indirect loss is heavy. However, the summer resort sections, St. Patrick and La Pointe, have not been affected.

Egyptian Situation "Distinctly Grave"

London, June 3.—"Distinctly grave" is the characterization applied in British official circles to the Egyptian situation, which has become much aggravated, from the British standpoint, by the recent sweeping victory of the Zagloul Pasha party in the elections. Officials feel it is impossible to forecast what the present situation may lead to. The British Government has already made clear that it would not favor the return of Zagloul Pasha to power as premier. As a precautionary measure, it has been decided to send a warship from Malta to Alexandria to safeguard British and foreign interests.

THE COMMONS IN AN UPROAR FOR A TIME

Premier King Declared Donald Sutherland's Statement Untrue

OVER LABOR BARGAIN

Mr. Sutherland Withdrew His Statement and Calm Was Restored.

Ottawa, June 3.—With appeals to the chair, shouts of order and protests from both sides, there was an uproar in the House yesterday afternoon. Robert Forke, Progressive leader, said later that he had not seen anything like it in twenty-five years of a municipal council.

Premier King had declared untrue a statement made by Donald Sutherland, Conservative of South Oxford, that legislation before the House was the result of a bargain between Liberals and Progressives. Conservatives demanded that the word "untrue" be withdrawn, but Chairman Duff held that, under the circumstances, use of the word was not unparliamentary.

TARIFF BILL READY FOR THIRD READING

British Preference on Men's and Boys' Felt Hats Remains the Same.

Ottawa, June 3.—The bill to give effect to the tariff changes in the budget was reported from committee last night and now stands in the House for third reading. Hon. George Boivin, Minister of Customs, moved an amendment to strike out from the tariff changes an item affecting men's and boys' felt hats in rough for manufacturing purposes. The tariff announced in the budget was 15 per cent. British preference, 30 per cent. intermediate and 25 per cent. general tariff. The effect of the amendment is to allow the tariff on these articles to remain as it was, namely, 25 per cent. British preference, 30 per cent. intermediate and 25 per cent. general tariff.
