GAVE VERY FINE TALK UPON LEADERSHIP

The Dean of Ontario Spoke to Kiwanians at Meeting on Monday.

The speaker at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club meeting on Monday evening at the Frontenac Hotel was the Very Rev. W. W. Craig, Dean of Ontario who, in a very stirring address on "Leadership," brought home to his audience the grave importance in the life of a country of sound leadership, and showed to what a great extent a country is liable to suffer from lack of it.

At the outset of his remarks, Dean Craig declared that there was great interest not only in the leadership of one's own country but in that of any country, in which one was to have dealings. He declared that the real need of a nation was leadership. The sound life of society was independent of the individual that went to make it up, but there must be leadership for the success of society. He pointed out the necessity of leadership in a group, giving illustrations of his meaning, and he declared that what was true of the group was also true with regard to a nation.

Dean Craig stated that "we have lost the power to develop leadership in our national life, and at the present time nearly all over the world there is a lack of leadership which is needed for democracy. The need of the time is great, a heroic, fearless, trustful leadership."

The speaker stated that it was apparent that democracy had failed to bring about leadership in Italy and had placed the leadership of that country in the hands of one man.

"Somehow we are being betrayed by our leaders. We see today in seven or eight democracies the people turning aside that form of government, and setting up dictators, but we ought not to despair for democracy has produced great leaders in the past and will continue to do so in the future."

Dean Craig referred to several great leaders in democracies of years past, including John Hampton and Abraham Lincoln. "After all," he said "the entire matter depends on the people who place the leaders in the positions they hold, and I appeal to you to put all your influence, strength, sympathy and manhood behind the work of the universities, the schools, and the churches. The church is the school of moral uplift in the community; there is none other to compare with it."

"Let me refer to the promise in which I lived for seven years before coming here. The premier there is known as 'Honest John Oliver,' and he stated that if the clergy are appointed because the province is not dry, it is because they have failed to uplift the country. But he never gave one atom of help to the church, merely standing aside and criticizing."

Dean Craig stated that we ought to be consistent in regard to our principles, and it is because the church has failed to live up to its principles that some men laugh at it. "Nevertheless we should believe," said Dean Craig, "that right must conquer in the end, no matter what happens."

The address by Dean Craig was much enjoyed by the members and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the speaker by Kiwanian L. J. Austin.

HON. CHARLES M'CREA TO SPEAK IN PICTON

Places of Business Closed on Wednesday Afternoons Throughout the Summer.

Picton, June 8.—It is expected that Hon. Charles M'Creary, Minister of Mines for Ontario, will be the speaker at the Prince Edward County Board of Trade annual banquet on Friday evening next.

T. W. Kinney left this morning on a business trip to Montreal and Quebec in the interests of his canning company.

Miss Nellie Martin of the Deaconess' Training School, Toronto, has finished her course and is at home with her father, F. W. Martin, Main street east.

Mrs. Velma Dawson has returned to Picton after a month spent in Oshawa.

The Ontario Produce Company is Picton's latest merchandising concern, operating at the old stand of the Picton Produce Company on Bridge street. The new concern is under the management of Milton Carter and G. F. Hepburn.

CANADIAN UNIVERSITY CLUB IN PITTSBURGH, PA.

One is Being Formed—Two Queen's Graduates on the Committee.

Col. F. P. Day, commander of the 25th Canadian Battalion during the great war, and now Dean of Freshmen at the Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pa., and Dr. David Lang of the Pittsburgh Shady Avenue Presbyterian Church, also a native Canadian, were the speakers at a dinner held last week by about fifty Canadian university graduates residing in Pittsburgh.

The assemblage included representatives from all the universities of Canada, from British Columbia to Prince Edward Island, and representing classes from 1898 to 1924.

After the speeches, the chairman, Mr. E. B. Shand, of McGill, '15, opened a discussion on the possibility of forming a Pittsburgh Canadian University Graduates' Club. Enthusiastic support of this project was forthcoming from all sides. A committee was selected to consider and complete the details of organization. The following form the committee: E. B. Shand, McGill '15 (chairman); S. C. Watson, Manitoba '23; J. F. Pedder, Toronto '24; G. O. Brownell; W. M. Prudham, McGill '25; J. C. Campbell, British Columbia '24; M. B. Wyman, U.N.B. '24; J. G. Inglis, Toronto '23; J. V. Dobson, Queen's '14; W. G. Logue.

MARINE

The motor launch, Ultra Cherie, owned by Mr. Henry Richardson of the Kingston Yacht Club, which was ashore at Pine Tree Point, near Iroquoia, was released by the tug Mary P. Hall of the Donnelly Wrecking Company Monday afternoon. The launch was taken to Morrisburg, where the stern was lifted out of water by a derrick and repairs made to the propeller and rudder, which suffered the only damage. After receiving repairs the boat will proceed to Kingston.

The tug Mary P. Hall of the Donnelly Wrecking Company left Morrisburg this morning to assist the motor steamship No. 162, which was anchored some distance below Morrisburg. It was not known what the trouble was with the motor steamship.

The steamer Easton arrived here from Port Colborne with grain for the Richardson Elevator this morning at 9:30 o'clock.

The steamer Niagara unloaded damaged grain at the Richardson elevator, yesterday afternoon and cleared west for Buffalo.

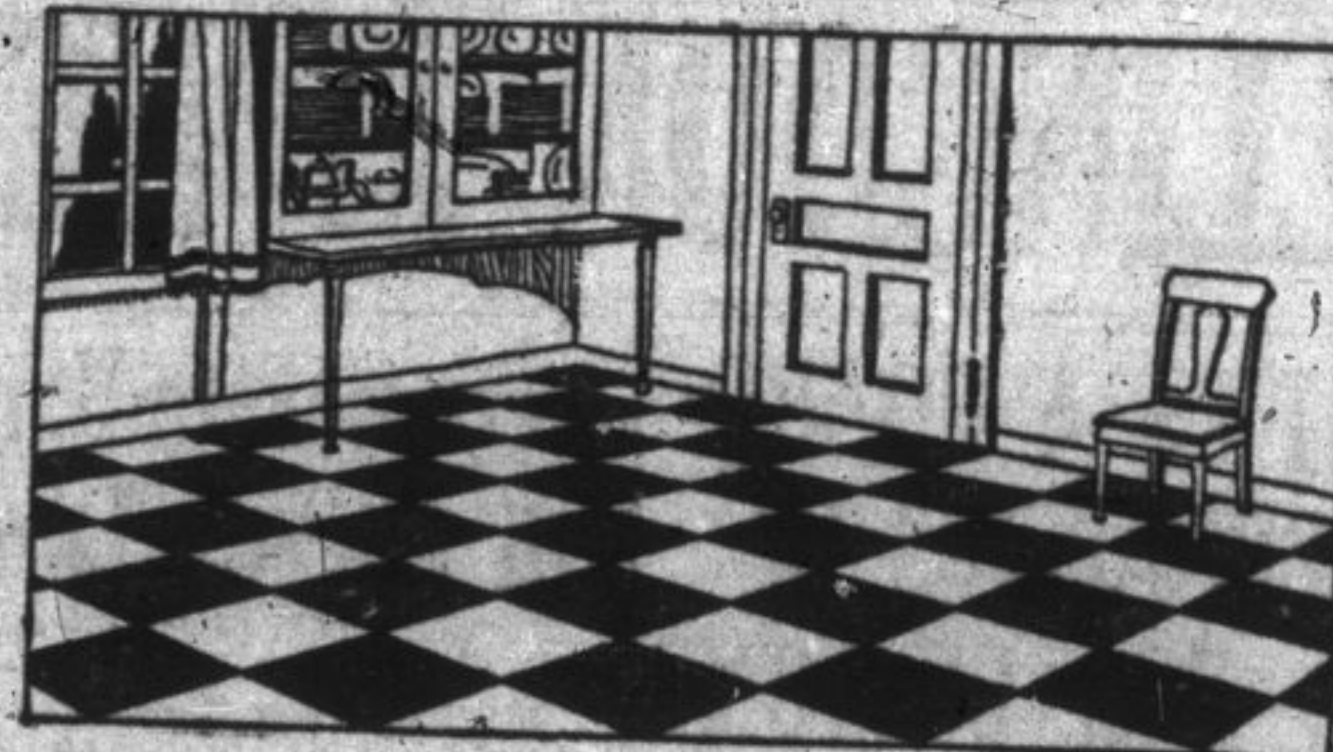

The steamer Locolite arrived here this morning from Montreal to unload oil at the Imperial Oil Company.

Pilot records show following steamers passing: Monday, Glenella, up at 12:15 p.m.; Tuesday, Clempat, up at 4:30 a.m.

The disposition to do is too small to produce results in not a few in this old world.

AN INQUEST OPENED INTO THE TRAGEDY

Whereby Three Young People Were Drowned at Belleville—Inquest Adjourned.

Belleville, June 8.—A jury composed of Stanley Vandervoort, foreman; Edward George, W. J. Johnson, Robert Gilpin, R. H. Ketcheson, F. J. Brower, J. Waddell, H. McGinnis, and C. Walters, met yesterday at Tickle's undertaking parlors to inquire into the deaths of the three young people, Keith and Bernice Ostrander, South Bay, and Geraldine Dulmage, Long Point, who so tragically met their death by drowning in the early hours of yesterday morning. The coroner, Dr. W. W. Boyce, presided, and B. C. Donnan, crown attorney, conducted the inquest. After hearing a part of the evidence the inquest was adjourned to meet again on Thursday evening.

Roy Dulmage, who was saved, stated that he was in the back seat. He looked out and said to the driver, Keith Ostrander: "This does not look like the Bay Bridge road to me." Keith said, "We will go a little further and if we don't see the bridge we will turn around and find the right one." At this point the end of the wharf loomed in sight and before the brakes could be applied the car had struck the end of the wharf with a fearful crash and all was oblivion.

"I managed somehow to open the door and the suction must have driven me clear of the car, for I was swimming around on the top. Just then a tow line was thrown to me and I was hauled to safety."

Question of the lighting of the road leading to the Government wharf has been made. There are not any lamps whatsoever on the wharf to warn people of impending danger. It was very dark at the time of the accident and it would be impossible for the driver to see water ahead of him.

It is presumed that the party were not familiar with the city and that they thought they were on the right road home. There is some semblance between the road leading to the bay bridge and the road leading to the wharf and probably the young people did not notice the difference. As for seeing of boats that would not be strange for there was a dredge over at the bay bridge all last summer.

PLAN OF ROTARY CLASSES

A Kingston Trustee Visited Windsor and Detroit.

T. G. Bishop had a fine time in Windsor with the special committee on educational costs, appointed by the Urban School Trustees' Association, to Detroit and the Border Cities, Prince Edward Public School, Windsor, the board is handling, by means of the rotary system inaugurated by Inspector Benson, 1,550 pupils, compared with only 900 pupils, under ordinary conditions. This represents a very considerable advantage in view of the big capital expenditure on school buildings which are standing idle in most centres more than half the time, and the conmitted as a whole was keenly interested in the scheme.

The visit to Detroit was confined largely to the administrative offices, where much valuable information was secured from Superintendent Cody. The committee visited one of the city high schools.

The committee revised its list of questions relative to school costs which will now be sent out to the different boards which are members of the association in the form of an official questionnaire. Following the replies, the information secured is to be tabulated by a government statistician, and following this, some time next fall, a meeting of the committee will be called to formulate a report upon this information and that secured on visits to different Ontario centres, in time for the association's next annual meeting.

Box Held Chicken Bones.

Montreal, June 8.—After investigation here by medical experts into the contents of a box, unopened by excavators yesterday, which gave rise to the rumor that the Montreal police were searching for the remains of Ambrose Small, Toronto, theatrical magnate, who disappeared mysteriously six years ago, it was announced that the box contained nothing but chicken and other animal bones.
