IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of James Geddes who died on June 11th, 1926.

There is one who misses you sadly,

And finds the time long since you went,

There is some one who thinks of you always,

And tries to be brave and content.

But this is the day of sad remembrance,

And bitter to recall.

When the one we loved was taken

By a short and sudden call.

Our purpose here we cannot see,

But all is well that's done by thee.

We are thinking of you to-day, dear father,

Thinking of the past,

Remembering you in memory,

Just as we saw you last.

You left behind some aching hearts,

But love you most sincere,

That never did, nor never will

Forget you, Father dear.

The world may change from year to year,

And friends from day to day,

But never will the one we love

From memory pass away.

Three sad years have passed us by,

But still the love that binds us here,

Reminds the love, the voice, the smile,

Of one who once sat there and had a tear.

Time cannot sever love so good and true,

For this day brings to us our grief anew.

Sadly missed by wife and daughter.

FINISHED THEIR SEEDING

Recent rains Great Help to Crops Around Oconto.

Oconto, June 10—The farmers have nearly all finished seeding and planting. The rain this last few days has been a great help to the gardens, also the pastures.

The chicken-pox is prevalent around here, and the attendance at school is very small. Dr. P. A. Scott made a few calls through this vicinity lately.

The wire gang have moved in, and are busy straightening up the fences along the C.P.R.

The picnic held at Oconto on June 3rd, by the Ladies' Aid, was a great success, the proceeds amounting to over $100.

Three very important items of the afternoon were the three ball games which were as follows:

1st. Sharbot Lake school boys and George's Lake school boys, in favor of Sharbot Lake; 2nd. Sharbot Lake girls and Tichborne girls, in favor of Sharbot Lake and last of all, Arden and Sharbot Lake young men played, the score being 3 to 2 in favor of the Arden team. After the ball games were over, a number of prizes were given for different races, big and small. Supper was served at 4 o'clock, and it kept everyone busy sitting on tables. There was a very large crowd of people, considering the weather.

Some from around here attended the dance at Sharbot Lake, the same evening, and all report a good time. Wedding bells will soon be ringing in this vicinity. Milk wagons are once more seen on the road. Fred Vinkle lost a valuable cow lately. Mrs. M. E. McGinnis is spending a few days at R. McGinnis, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McGinnis, Westport called in friends and relatives recently. Visitors over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. C. Phillips and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Phillips and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson, also G. Bridgen, R. Kennedy, Ed. Pinchcombe (barber), C. Hall and Miss Edna McGinnis at R. McGinnis Sunday.

Miss Edna McGinnis, Kingston, spent the week-end at her home here. A. McGinnis and family, at J. Barry's; R. McGinnis, G. McGinnis, Percy McGinnis and Mr. Barr, spent Sunday at W. Cornwall Wagerville. Mr. C. Hall, R. Kennedy, F. McGinnis, also the Misses Edna McGinnis, Myrtle Cornwall made a flying trip to Kingston on Sunday afternoon. Miss M. Cornwall, at A. McGinnis; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ducharme, at Charles Gowdy's, Sunday; a bunch of grapes camped here over night. C. Hall, R. McGinnis and F. McGinnis made a business trip to Wm. Kennedy's, Tichborne, on Tuesday evening.
