C. BROWN, NAPANEE, NINETY-ONE YEARS OLD

A Gathering Held in His Honor—Reader of The Whig Many Years.

A very enjoyable time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Brown, Donald street, Napanee, on the ninth of June, in being the anniversary of Mr. Brown's ninety-first birthday. The home was tastefully decorated and was thronged by a host of well wishing relatives and friends. Some thirty guests partook of a sumptuous dinner. Among those present were: Mrs. Sarah Mullett, Manitoba; Mrs. E. J. Yanness and grandson, Earl Yanness, Peterboro; Mr. and Mrs. John Love and daughter, Annie; Yarker; Mr. and Mrs. Milford Love, Wilton; Mr. and Mrs. German Wagar, Mrs. R. H. Wagar, Mr. Clayton Brown, Mrs. Maude Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Yanness and daughter, Betty, Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. Elmore Raymond, Waterprise; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wales and daughter, Doris, Newburgh; Mr. Annie Laundry, Pointe One; Mr. and Mrs. Allan Brown, Murray; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Peters, Camden East.

After congratulations a number of Mr. Brown's favorite songs were sung which were heartily enjoyed by everyone. It is of special interest to know that although Mr. Brown has reached the grand old age of ninety-one he has a lovely garden which he put in and it is now being carefully looked after by himself. He also has been a subscriber of the Daily British Whig for a great many years and is even now able to read without the aid of glasses.

The fire brigade were quickly on the scene but were unable to save the building, which was totally destroyed. Mr. Lott also lost his Ford runabout which he had just recently purchased.

Mr. Robert Foster and little daughter, Frances of Renfrew, are spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Robert Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. Silla, of Belleville spent Sunday in Napanee the guests of Mrs. C. A. Graham.

Notes from Conseccon.
 C. A. Fox Among the Arrivals at Pike's Peak.
 Conseccon, June 18.—The League of the United Church intend holding a social on the church lawn on Friday evening. Members of the League have been working on the long Downy bed, which was started last fall. They have now put in some annuals for the summer flowers. One row of tulips had twenty or more blossoms, and was quite an attraction.

Miss C. Fox has received "The Pike's Peak Daily News" from her brother, in Colorado, with C. A. Fox, North Hill, N.Y., among the names of the forenoon arrivals. It is not the privilege of many in Eastern Canada to climb to this monument of the continent, "Pike's Peak," which is 14,109 feet above the sea. There is a cog railway from Manitou, Colorado to the summit of the mountain. The locomotives on this railway are very peculiar, as they are built to stand level on an average grade and have six separate cog wheels worked from a main drum near the centre of the engine. The cogs of the wheels fit into the teeth of the track rails and in this way they climb down inclines with comparative ease and safety. The coaches set low on the track and will seat about fifty, and the passengers are in a level position most of the time. The windows are high and wide, so as to take in the magnificent scenery. The summit house is a commodious hotel, with good lunch room and curio store, and the highest telegraph office on the globe. There is also an observatory and powerful telescope to aid the traveller's view.

Most spiders have poison fangs but few are dangerous to human beings.

Warens taynacks is the name of a queer disease that afflicts children. The patient dies with all the symptoms of extreme old age. Originally the Olympic games formed part of the old ureclian festival of Zeus.

WEDDINGS.

Donnelly—Stetham
 One of the prettiest of the June weddings was solemnized at 8.30 a. m. Tuesday, June 15, at the home of the bride's parents, "Banksome Hall," when Isaac, eldest daughter of Mr. George Stetham, Cardinal, was married to Mr. Miller Beggs, son of Mr. George Stetham, Cardinal, and Mrs. J. H. Donnelly of Kingston. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Canon French of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Cardinal, and took place under an arch of white lilacs and evergreens. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, entered the room to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Miss Edie Ross, looking very beautiful in an ivory white satin gown with trimmings of pearls, and hat to match. She wore the groom's gift, a dinner ring of platinum set with diamonds and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lily of the valley. Miss Georgina Stetham, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore a very pretty orchid crepe gown and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of roses and lily of the valley. Ferns, the wee flower girl, and niece of the bride, was dressed in pale blue and carried a basket of sweet peas and bridal roses. Mr. Sidney Donnelly, brother of the groom, acted as best man. During the signing of the register, Miss Catherine Kavanagh of Cardinal, sang. At the residence of the bride's father a buffet breakfast was served. The young couple left later for a honeymoon trip down the St. Lawrence and up the Saguenay.
