ST. MARY'S SCHOOL CADETS INSPECTED

By Capt. Heron, District Officer, on Their Grounds Tuesday Morning.

The cadets of St. Mary's Separate school, in command of Lieut. Coffin, were inspected on the school grounds Tuesday morning by Capt. V. W. S. Heron, district cadet officer. The small boys made a very good showing and carried out the military manoeuvres with marked neatness, which drew forth many favorable comments.

Following the inspection, Capt. Heron spoke a few words to the cadets, complimenting them on their inspection and mentioning the wonderful improvement since last year. He stated that cadet training in the schools was not to make soldiers out of the boys, but to make them loyal citizens of the Dominion of Canada, so that their country, their church, and their school would be proud of them.

Principal J. J. Carty, Lieut. Coffin, Dr. J. T. Davis and Capt. W. G. Bailey, members of the school board, also spoke a few words, adding their praises of the inspection, and remarking on the bright outlook.

The platoon commanders were W. Ackley, E. Briceland, V. Corrigan, and W. Donoghue. Following the inspection, three hearty cheers were given for The King, Principal J. J. Carty, Capt. Heron, Lieut. Coffin, and Capt. Bailey. The latter assisted greatly in the training. The school was then dismissed for the morning on the request of the inspecting officer.

COMPLAINT OF MOTORISTS. About Condition of Road on This Side of Gananoque.

Motorists complained to The Whig to-day of the condition of the roadway on this side of Gananoque. A piece of the highway for the distance of about a mile is being rebuilt and there is no proper detour. Automobiles have a difficult time getting through as they have to pass over large stones, and there are not sufficient turnout places for vehicles to wait until others from the opposite direction pass. Motorists claim that the contractor has not sufficient plant engaged to handle such a long piece of repair at one time, as only three teams were engaged on Monday afternoon. They think that better arrangements should be made for the convenience of the travelling public.
