UNITED IN MARRIAGE
 A Matawatschan Couple Were United at Denbigh.
 Matawatschan, June 21—John Kelly and Miss Alice Carwell, life-long residents of this place, were united in marriage at Denbigh United Church parsonage at 5 o'clock on June 18th, the pastor, Rev. R. A. Scott, officiating. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Love who acted as witnesses to the ceremony, the latter being a sister to the groom. The bride was tastefully robed in a navy gown of satin, with gloves, hat, and so forth to harmonize. Owing to a recent bereavement in the bride's immediate family, the ceremony was of a quiet nature, as no ceremony followed. The well wishes of their host of friends attended the newly-wedded couple to their new home on the Matawatschan-Griffith route, where the groom owns a farm, and where they will reside. J. L. Lloyd of Northbrook and J. McLellan of Peterboro have been several days canvassing this district in the interests of the Excelsior Life

Neuralgia Conquered
 Its Pain Destroyed
 Magical Results Come When You Apply
NERVILINE
 It Acts Quickly
 Mr. W. T. Greenway, formerly connected with the Guide newspaper staff, has written: "For twenty years we have used Nerviline in our home, and not for the world would we be without it. As a remedy for all pain, earache, toothache, cramps and disordered stomach, I know of no preparation so useful and quick to relieve as Nerviline." Remember this, wherever there is pain, rub on Nerviline, and you will get prompt results. 35c. at all dealers.

Township Councils
PITTSBURGH.
 Barrield, June 7.—Court of Revision, township of Pittsburgh, met at 1 p.m.; members all present and took declaration of office. There being no appeals the roll was accepted. The assessor was instructed to give George Muller two dog tags for use in connection with his kennel license.

THE MAGIC OF THE MEDICINE MAN
 In the pioneer days of this country, the Indian Medicine Man knew a remedy in the roots and herbs of the field for the alleviation of almost every ailment of mankind. So potent did it prove, that the relief from suffering seemed like magic. More than 50 years ago Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., compounded her now famous Vegetable Compound from the roots and herbs of the field, and in all these years, nothing has ever been found to equal it in overcoming ailments of women.

Rowsome-Coon.
 Elgin, June 21.—At 3 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, Elgin, Mildred Ann, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie A. Coon, was united in marriage to Dr. Clarence M. Rowsome, youngest son of Mrs. W. H. Rowsome, Athens. The bride, who was given away by her father, was becomingly gowned in poudre blue georgette embroidered in silver, and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and maiden hair fern. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Mr. McConnell, pastor of the United Church, Elgin. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Coon, cousin of the bride. After a dainty luncheon was served, the happy couple left by boat for Montreal, Quebec and eastern points. The bride travelled in senora crepe with sandwood coat and hat to match. On their return Dr. and Mrs. Rowsome will reside at Cobden.
