Twelve People Can't Work

With Him, But 3,000,000

Liberals Can.

London, June 23.—I desire to say quite firmly that I will not allow my self to be driven out of the Liberal party," said Right Hon. David Lloyd

George, parliamentary leader of the Liberal party, in an address at the National Liberal club luncheon in his honor to-day. Mr. Lloyd George who had a recent controversy with the Earl of Oxford and Asquith, the party chieftains, said: "There are twelve people who can't work with me and there are three millions of Liberals who can. I don't seek leadership, but I do want service."

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of our dearly beloved daughter, Mrs. John Snider, who died

June 22nd, 1926.

Just three years ago to-day,

A light from our home is gone.

A voice we loved is stilled.

A place is vacant in our hearts,

Which never can be filled.

Gone is the face we loved so dear,

Silent is the voice we loved to hear,

'Tis sad, but true, we wonder why,

The best are always the first to die.

No one knows how sad the parting,

No one knows the bitter pain.

No one knows the bitter pain.

We have suffered since you have left us,

Life will never be the same.

We little thought when leaving home,

That she would never return.

And she so soon in death would sleep.

And leave us here to mourn.

We do not know the pain she bore,

We did not see her die.

And could not say good-bye.

No human eye can trace

The silent grief that's in our soul.

No human eye can trace

The silent grief that's in our soul.

For many a broken heart lies hid

Beneath a smiling face since three

Years ago to-day.

Gradly missed by father and mother,

Brothers and sisters, husband and Children.
