THE MOWAT PATIENTS ENJOY EXCURSION

By the Steamer Brockville as Guests of Mr. J. M. Campbell.

On Wednesday afternoon at 1.00 o'clock, the Mowat Sanatorium patients and friends, to the number of 200, started the enjoyment of their annual boat trip on the steamer Brockville, made possible each year thorugh the kindness of Mr. J. M. Campbell, in giving the free use of his steamer for the day. Mr. Campbell was present to wish his guests a pleasant voyage as the steamer proceeded on its way down to Beaurivage Island, which was reached at 3 o'clock. On board, things were livened by the presence of Shea's orchestra which struck up lively music as the guests made the best of all the available floor space.

Refreshments were served on the island, to which end the Red Cross Society and the National Bakery had made special donations of ice cream and cakes. After about three hours on the island the Brockville once more set out and made a tour of the islands. A slight squall and downpour of rain occurred during the outing, but as it was soon over, the enjoyment was not marred in any way.

The party arrived back in Kingston about 9 o'clock with everyone thoroughly satisfied with their day, and the expressions were unanimous in praise of Mr. Campbell's generosity. The transportation down to the boat was furnished by the Kiwanians.
