M June 29.—The farmers in have nearly all finishing. Corn is up in a instances. The hay crop heavy one.

P The public schools will all close this week. The pupils of the S. C. S. have been working hard of late.
Some are through with their studies, and others are in their examinations, until Friday, when the doors will be closed until September, and the pupils will depart for their homes. They will be greatly missed on the street.

Russell Wemp, Commander of the motor ship "Wave Crest," took a large consignment of live stock to Collins Bay on Friday evening. The steamer M. Silken arrived here on Friday evening, with a consignment of hard coal for Neilson Bros. from Fairhaven. It consisted of 260 net tons. The steamer unloaded and cleared on Saturday. Frederick Glenn, well-known local horseman, has purchased a new rubber-tired buggy from S. L. Pringh, local representative for the Canada Garrages Ltd. R. Marks, ship carpenter, Portsmouth, is making some necessary alterations and repairs to Ernest Earle's yacht, at Stella Point. T. J. Tugwell, carpenter contractor, Emerald, has been repairing James Kilpatrick's house, and also laying floors for Richards Bros., Lake View.

Mrs. B. J. Beaubien returned from Buffalo, N.Y., on Friday. She brought with her Mrs. (Capt.) John Fleming who has been ill. Mrs. John Miller has returned home from the city where she has been undergoing treatment. George Bulsh has also been on the sick list. Mr. Smith and mother, Rochester, N.Y., are spending a few weeks' vacation at H. S.

Patterson's. Mr. Smith is very fond of the old sport, angling for bass.
Road Engineer Robert Filson has been doing some work with the grader in this vicinity.

Mrs. M. Allen and Miss Reta Allen, A. P. Allen and C. A. Gibson motored down from Belleville on Saturday evening and spent Sunday with friends. Miss A. McMaster, Kingston, is spending a few days at W.
Montgomery. The Misses Kate and Raechel Drumgoole left on Friday to spend some weeks with friends in New York, Boston and Philadelphia.

H. S. Patterson returned home on Wednesday from an extensive tour of Western Ontario. Rev. W. Craig, Demorestville, occupied the pulpit of St. Paul's Presbyterian church on Sunday. The manse has been undergoing an extensive overhauling and is about ready for habitation. The congregation are making plans for their annual picnic to be held on Dominion Day, July 1st. Ideal weather is forecast for it and also for the dance and social, which will be held in the evening, in Victoria Hall, under the auspices of Burleigh, L.O.L.
No. 482.

A very pleasant evening was spent at Stella on Thursday evening, June 17th, when Mrs. (Capt.) Hugh Glenn opened her spacious home to about seventy-five guests. The house was beautifully decorated with lilies, honeysuckle and plants. The occasion was in honor of Miss Margaret Pentland, who has been organist of St. Paul's Presbyterian church for the past year, also a teacher in No.
5 school here, but who, owing to the ill health of her mother, is leaving to take a school near her home, Dingannon, Ont. Miss Pentland will be greatly missed as she took an active part in all work concerning the church as well as making many warm friends, whose best wishes will go with her. The evening was spent in games, music, etc., after which a sumptuous lunch of Stella-Dale ice cream, cake and fruit was served to which all did ample justice. Before closing, Mrs. Hugh Glenn, Jr., read and presented her with an appropriate address, and Mrs. Nessie Glenn, president of the Ladies' Aid Society, presented her with a handsome hat box, a gift from the congregation.

Miss Pentland made a very suitable reply and after remarks from the elders and others the pleasant event was brought to a close with the singing of "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow," and the National Anthem.

NEW UNION JACK FOR KINGSTON BOY SCOUTS Interesting Ceremonies at Meeting Held on Monday Night.

The First Kingston Troop of Boy Scouts had their regular weekly meeting Monday night in the market building. The boys were surprised to see a new Union Jack on the pole, ready for the ceremony of "breaking the colors." As soon as the ceremony was concluded, and the meeting opened, the troop had a short run to the "swimming hole" (in mimic). For fun, you should have seen the illustrations of the Scout Laws given by the four patrols. The Beavers came out on the lucky end of the game, their "friend to animal" stunt, being voted the best. Did you ever see a Charlot Race?
No? Then you should have seen the one the Scouts had Monday night. It had all the thrills of the real thing, and showed that the Scouts were willing to do almost anything to gain a point for their patrol. The Wolves won the race by one point.
The S. M. gave a talk on the handling and breaking of the flag. The marks for the night were as follows: Beavers, 110; Eagles, 109; Muskrats, 108; Wolves, 108. Rather close, don't you think? We'll see how it comes down next week.

OBITUARY
William Day, Bath Road, one of the best known farmers in this part of the country, passed away on Monday after a lengthy illness. Deceased was born in Jackson's Mills and was a son of the late Henry Day. He was seventy-two years of age. At an early age he moved to Collin's Bay, where he had lived practically all his life.

He is survived by three sons, Hugh at home and Harold and John of Kingston. The funeral will take place on Wednesday from his late residence, Bath Road, to Catawaqui cemetery. The funeral service will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Cooper.

roads. Everyone is glad to hear Robert Whyte is improving and able to be out again.

TEMPERANCE FORCES
IN DOMINION RING

About to Enter the Political Arena in the Federal Ridings.

Toronto, June 29.—That the temperance forces are about to enter the Dominion political arena is shown by a manifesto that is going out as the result of an emergency meeting here on Saturday of representatives of the Prohibition Federation of Canada and the Ontario Prohibition Union. The manifesto says:

A unique necessity is upon us to vindicate temperance laws as the most constructive of all legislation passed during two generations by provincial legislatures and Parliament; and to prove afresh to the people of Canada that the trade in intoxicating liquors has been and is the most corrupting thing in our social and political life. The revelations at Ottawa, which threaten to overthrow the Government, prove that the arch-offender against national decency is the reign of alcohol in certain sections of the community.
Clearly, the nation's political life cannot be stable or progressive until whatever Government is in office is compelled by public opinion to elevate the administration of our social protective laws. This is necessary, whatever party may win the election; for the brazen violation of the laws against smuggling is not chargeable only to the most recent regime. Recovery of patriotic tone in the national services is not possible merely through the rivalries of political parties, whose first interest is office.
The expression of public opinion must be as non-partisan as it is irresistible; and it requires the constructive co-operation of all the decent elements in every community.

We, therefore, urge upon all men and women who care for social progress and national honor to evoke in their own localities insistent demand that the parties which appeal for support in any Dominion election will officially pledge themselves to a rigid administration of all Customs laws; particularly as to intoxicating liquor, and to the passing and unqualified observance of new laws that will make it a criminal offence to facilitate in any way the illegal sale of intoxicating liquor in any province, or of trade in it against the laws of a friendly country.

The spectacle of Canadian governmental authority conniving at wholesale law-breaking, during the period of Canada's advent to international rank, has been particularly disgraceful.
No one political party is entirely responsible for it. The admission that distilleries have contoured to both party funds is painfully apparent. No party, through electioneering on customary lines, can be expected to present this matter to the people with the disinterested moral force the situation needs. That must be done through non-partisan agencies, and this appeal is made to all men and women within and without temperance organizations to become active in the interests of patriotic Canadianism.

For The Prohibition Federation of Canada: W. W. Peck.
For The Ontario Prohibition
Union: A. J. Irwin.

ful S. S. Convention was held at the musical programme was also given.

The delegates were entertained at the home of Wilfrid Cooper.
J. W. Clendenning, Guy Clendenning and Jack Acton, Lansdowne, were Sunday visitors at Wilfrid Cooper's. The entrance pupils started writing their examinations this morning at Batterses. The Sunbury soft ball team played a friendly 12 to 7. Miss Mildred McDonald is ill with quinsy.
