Will Try And Attend.
Premier G. H. Ferguson, Minister of Education, intimates that he will, if at all possible, attend the opening of the new Rideau school during the first week in September. In any case he will be represented at the event.

Making Extensions.
The Bell Telephone Company is making application to the city to place poles, anchors and cables on certain streets in the city, in order to add to their system. The matter will come before the council.

Odd Fellows' League.
At a meeting of Odd Fellows on Tuesday evening, it was decided to form a softball league with the four city lodges: Cataragui, Kingston, Granite and the Encampment. The games will start next week and will be played at the athletic grounds.

Returned from Montreal.
Mr. Stuart Callaghan, Kingston, and Mr. Gene Pearson, Toronto, of "The Originals," have returned by motor from Montreal, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Anderson. Mr. Pearson and Mr. Melville George are visiting Mr. Callaghan.

Removed To Reformatory.
Provincial Bailiff John Ryan, Toronto, removed from Brockville jail three prisoners to the Ontario Reformatory. They were Burton Halfday and Clifford Gooderidge, Delta, sentenced for placing obstructions on the C. N. E. tracks in Eastard and Burgess south, and Francis Chant, convicted of a serious offence.

Awarded Ph.D. Degree.
Mr. Harvard B. Vincent, son of W. B. Vincent, Bethel, has been awarded the degree of Ph. D. at Michigan College, Ann Arbor, Mich. Before entering the Michigan College he obtained the Degree of B. A. and M. A., with honors at Queen's University. In passing a four years' course in two years Harvard is to be congratulated. He is a graduate of Picton Collegiate Institute.

Some Heavy Hitters.
The Belleville Intelligencer telling of recent golf games there said: Dr. Etherington, of Kingston, drives tremendously long balls from the tee, and plays very nearly par and a very dangerous all round game. Prof. Day and Dr. Brown also shoot very fine golf and there are many others of the Cataragui team who are dangerous at all times.

To Be a State Park.
Grass Point, about a mile and a half from Fisher's Island towards Alexandria Bay, and below Wintergreen Island, has been sold to New York State, the price being $5,000. It is expected that $3,500 more will be expended in the near future in improvements. Grass Point is ideally situated for a state park. It has an exceptionally good bathing beach and an attractive grove.

Learning to Swim.
The Y.M.C.A. is still a busy place, and will be as long as the swimming campaign lasts. The regular fellows are spreading the good news and additional would-be-swimmers are coming in every day. The boys are losing their fear of the water, and getting right down to the real work. Mr. Phil Brockel, the instructor, expects to turn out several good swimmers by the end of the week.

Visiting Here After Years.
Mrs. James Higgins, Youngstown, Ohio, made a motoring trip to Toronto to visit her sister, Mrs. George Marshall, and also to Kingston to visit her brother, John Donoghue, and family. She will spend a few days and then motor back at the end of the week. Her relatives and friends were glad to see her after being absent for many years. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Donoghue, will accompany her to Toronto.

Should Be Careful.
The discarded topcoat of a banana is very often the cause of a downfall. A rather stout lady, on Princess street to-day, stepped on one that the garbage man missed and of course lost her equilibrium and her dignity as well. If the person who is used to throwing banana skins away, regardless of where it lands, was to slip on one himself sometime, he might be more careful in the future.

Take High Standing.
Master Charles Jones, son of Capt. and Mrs. William Jones, Ottawa, passed third in his class at the Glebe Collegiate and also obtained first class honors. Master George Jones, who attends public school in Ottawa, also passed from grade 6 into grade 7 and obtained the bronze medal for four years good conduct and perfect attendance. They are the grandsons of Mr. Charles Wolfe and the late Mrs. Charles Wolfe, formerly of 60 Colborne street, Kingston.

A GOOD PROGRAMME FOR DOMINION DAY

Local People Will Find Plenty of Amusement Over the Holiday.

On Dominion Day, there will be plenty of amusement here. For those who follow baseball, there will be the junior baseball game in the morning at the Cricket Field at 10:15 between the Circle Six and the Victorias. Up at the Kingston Tennis Club, there will be a junior tournament and at the Regiopolis Club there will be a tournament under way. The first boats start to leave for the Oddfellows' picnic at Brophy's Point in the morning.

In the afternoon there will be boats leaving for the picnic grounds at short intervals. The formal opening of the Kingston Tennis Club will take place with exhibition games at 3:30 until 5, followed by tea. There will be general tennis from five o'clock till nine o'clock, followed by a dance till midnight. There will be special Dominion Day golf games at the Cataragui Golf and Country Club during the day, and these sports, in addition to private parties and excursions, should round out a very enjoyable day for Kingston people.

"Corner Loafer" in Tolls For Annoying Women Passing

On Tuesday night, the police received a complaint about a man who was at the corner of Barrie and Earl streets, and who it is alleged, was causing much annoyance to women as they passed along the street. The man was taken into custody, and after spending some time at the police station, was allowed to go with a warning.
