

NEWS AND VIEWS FOR WOMEN READERS

LIFE'S SOCIAL SIDE

Woman's Page Editor Phone 2613. Private Phone 857w.

Miss Nora Connell, Arch street, is a tea hostess this afternoon.

Miss Flo Cunningham, Earl street, is entertaining at tea this afternoon.

Miss McNulty and Miss B. McNulty, Renfrew, were recent visitors at the Y.W.C.A.

Miss Myrtle Chown, Ottawa, is here to attend the summer school at Queen's University.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brash, Guelph, are in Kingston, to spend a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Bristol, who is on her way to California, is with Mrs. Herbert Saunders, Alice street.

Col. English, Montreal, spent a few days in town with Mrs. James Miller, Albert street.

Mrs. Hawley, Sydenham, is spending a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor, Philip street.

Miss Helen Walters, Sault Ste Marie, was a visitor in town this week and was at the Y.W.C.A.

Sir George Foster is sailing to-day on the Empress of France to join Lady Foster, who is in Europe.

Mrs. McCarey, Rome, N.Y., and her daughter, Mrs. J. P. McCulchett, spent the week-end at the Y.W.C.A.

Mrs. John Macgillivray, Albert street, will leave on Thursday for Halifax to visit Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Macgillivray.

Mrs. Crowley and her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Casey, with Mr. I. Crowley spent the week-end motoring in the Adirondacks.

Mrs. Thomas Purvis, John street, left on Monday for Montreal to visit her daughter, Mrs. Howard McGillis and Mr. McGillis.

Mrs. Harvey Coumbs and her daughter Marjorie, Pembroke, are in Kingston, to spend two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Walte.

Prof. and Mrs. R. O. Jolliffe, Frontenac street, have returned from a two weeks motor trip to Owen Sound, London and Toronto.

Mrs. Philip Du Moulin, Sydenham street, gave a pleasant musical evening on Tuesday for the Dean of Ontario, Mrs. W. W. Craig and the Misses Craig.

Mr. George Mahood and his daughter, Mildred, University avenue, visiting Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Mahood, Ottawa, have returned to Kingston.

The Misses Stothers, Ottawa, motored to Kingston to-day. Miss Minerva Stothers, Windsor, will take special classes at the summer school at Queen's.

Mr. and Mrs. Featherstonehaugh, Winnipeg, are with Mrs. E. F. Torrance, Kensington avenue. Mrs. Merrill Dea Brysay, Toronto, will also be with Mrs. Torrance this week.

Mr. Alonso E. Orr, New Dublin, and his daughter, Miss Geraldine, are in Kingston. Miss Orr will be a guest at Ban Righ, while attending Queen's University summer school.

Mr. James B. Cochrane, Frontenac street, spent Sunday visiting old friends in Middleville and Watson's Corners where his father, the late Rev. William Cochrane, was Presbyterian minister.

Miss Gwen Hargrave and Miss Evelyn Parkinson who spent the week-end the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Webster, George street, have returned to their home in Cornwall.

Mrs. A. Willeford Jackson has taken room at 27 Wellington street, and will remain in town until the first of August when she will leave for Melita, Que., to join her brother, Bishop Bidwell.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schofield, Chicago, Ill., and their daughter, Miss Caroline Schofield, who are on a motor trip, will arrive in Kingston this week and will be with Mr. Walter Fleming, Sydenham street.

Mrs. D. Nesbitt, Kingston, accompanied by her granddaughter, little Miss Vivian Farley, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. N. A. Nesbitt, Lindsay, and will leave for the latter's summer home at Kushog Lake, Halliburton.

Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, D.C. L., has returned to Toronto, from Vancouver, where she attended the annual meeting of the National Council of Women of Canada. En route she also visited Calgary, Nelson and Brandon.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. McCammon, 60 Nelson street, announce the engagement of their third daughter, Lyla, to William A. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Anderson, Peterboro, the wedding to take place the latter part of July.

Miss Laura Shibley arrived in town on Monday and is with her sister, Mrs. W. B. Carey, Albert street. Miss Shibley, who is living in New York, has been staying in Montreal and in the Adirondack Mountains.

Miss Isabel Currie, who is on her way home from New York to New Brunswick, spent the week-end in Ottawa, with her sister, Mrs. John W. Woodside. Miss Currie is now in Kingston, where she has joined her other two sisters, Mrs. W. T. Hughes and Miss Jean Currie, and from here will motor home.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Bruce, Bager street, who have been abroad for some months visiting Spain, Africa, Italy and France, have arrived in Kingston to-day. Miss Edna Chown, "Sunnyside," who accompanied them on their travels, will spend a few

COMING EVENTS

Hear Miss McHarris, missionary from Central India, Sydenham Street church hall, Thursday, July 15, 8 p.m.

ADVT. RATES, WOMAN'S PAGE: Coming events, not intended to raise money, 2c a word; minimum 50c. If held to raise money, 4c a word; minimum $1.

Receptions, engagements, marriage announcements, personal notices, 25 words or less, $1.00 per insertion.

Entertainments, concerts, meetings, etc. 15c per line for readers; 25c per line for display advts. Minimum charge $1.00.

days in New York before returning home.

The Whig will be glad to have the names of visitors in town and accounts of various social events for publication in the social column.

Such communications should be signed and the address of the sender given. Write or telephone to the Editor of the Woman's Page, Telephone No. 2613.

Mrs. Henry Joseph and Miss Ethel Olive Joseph, Montreal, were among the guests at a reception held by the Countess of Clarendon at Pitt House, Hampstead, on June 17th, to meet Dominion representatives and visitors from overseas.

Mrs. Joseph and her daughter are expected home from England at the end of this week, arriving by the Melita.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Havelock Price, Sydenham street, entertained at the tea hour in honor of Mrs. W. W. Craig and Miss Ruth Craig who received with her in the drawing room where pink peonies and tall blue iris were a charming decoration.

At the tea table, centred with a bowl of roses, Mrs. R. J. Gardiner poured tea, assisted by Mrs. Cecil Boyd, Mrs. A. N. Lee and Miss Ethelwyn Loucks.

This morning a party of Kingston lady golfers left for Gananoque and crossed on the motor ferry to Clayton and from there went on to Waterbury, N.Y., to play the Waterbury team.

The Kingston ladies were Miss Caroline Mitchell, Mrs. C. E. Taylor, Mrs. W. H. Coverdale, Mrs. H. C. Welch, Mrs. E. C. D. McCallum, Mrs. James Miller, Miss Grace Moores. They were accompanied by Mrs. W. Bartlett Dalton.

That during the summer we have many visitors in Kingston. Let us make them welcome. We meet them in the shops where they buy articles from our Kingston merchants; we meet them on the streets where they are asking their way to our many historical points of interest, the very things they have travelled miles to see.

Let us tell them about the city, its beginning and its story. Show them our universities, our old towers and forts, our splendid Royal Military College and the Tete de Pont Barracks built on the site of old Fort Frontenac. And then send them to the Martello Tower in Macdonald Park which has been turned into a museum by the Kingston Historical Society and has many things of interest for our visitors.

And if you meet the travellers socially either at your friends' houses or public gatherings, talk to them and get them to talk to you. It will please them to tell you of their travels and unless you are very self-centred you will enjoy hearing their impressions. But don't talk all the time to the people you meet every day who are perhaps easier to have a conversation with because you have so many things in common. We have all seen visitors who looked distinctly bored because no one bothered about them, so absorbed were their hostesses and their friends in the little things they spoke of every day.

That the women's meetings are over but the garden parties and picnics to make money for the work to be taken up in the autumn are in full swing. Many of them are advertised on the Woman's Page of The Whig either in the "Coming Events" column or at the end of the social column. This week Victory Chapter, L.O.D.E., is giving a garden party and bridge and next week the annual garden party will be given by the organizations of St. George's Cathedral. There is no admission fee charged to the cathedral festivity and everyone in the city will be welcomed. They will, however, be sure to find a way to spend money before they leave. Both these events are advertised on the Woman's Page.

That with the warmer weather comes the question of swimming. What about the children. Can they swim? If not, why not? Some boys and girls have been brought up so far in inland places, but they will want to go out in boats and canoes with the boys and girls who can swim and are in constant danger. The Y.M.C.A. has swimming classes and there is always a competent teacher at the Richardson bathing house in Macdonald Park during the summer.

Spencer-McTeay. St. George's Church, Trenton, was the scene of a very charming wedding at one o'clock on Monday, July 5th, when Margaret Bromley, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. L. McTeay, became the bride of Reginald Clarke Spencer, Camden East. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by the father of the groom, the service being read from a white ivory covered prayer book, the gift of the bride from the choir, of which she was a member.

The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of summer flowers, arranged by the girl friends of the bride. Preceded by the choir, the bride entered the church on the arm of her cousin, Mr. Howard McTeay. She was a picture of girlish loveliness in a gown of ivory kitten's ear crepe, trimmed with real lace, her bridal veil arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses, lily-of-the-valley and baby's breath. Her only ornament was the gift of the groom, a rope of pearls.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lucia McTeay, as maid of honor, who wore a powder blue and silver shot taffeta frock, with large picture hat, and carried a bouquet of sunset roses. The bridesmaids were the Misses Marlon and Claire McTeay, who wore frocked alike in pink and silver shot taffeta, with mohair picture hats, in pink, and carried pink roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Hugh Valley of Windsor. The ushers were Mr. Jack Creagan of Deseronto and Mr. W. J. Judson of Napanee.

All through the service, soft music was rendered by the organist, Mrs. E. Bates, and during the signing of the register the choir sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden."

Following the ceremony a reception was held at "The Vicarage." Mrs. A. H. McTeay, the bride's mother, was gowned in black French crepe with touches of gold, a large black hat and corsage bouquet of roses and lily-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Spencer, mother of the groom, was attired in beige flat crepe, mohair hat to match, and wore a corsage bouquet of roses and lily-of-the-valley.

After a buffet luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Spencer left on a motor trip to Quebec, the bride travelling in a smart golden brown satin coat trimmed with fur, a dress of blonde georgette with touches of gold and blue, and small lace hat to match. On their return they will reside in Syracuse, N.Y.

Among the out-of-town guests were Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Spencer, Miss Martin, Camden East; Miss Katharine McTeay, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. E. W. McTeay, Mr. Howard McTeay, Miss Erna McTeay, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newlands, Mrs. Gordon Sheppard, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. James Haydon, Miss FitzHugh, Kingston; Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Kirkpatrick, Carrying Place; Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Byers, Stirling; Rev. and Mrs. John Lyons, Picton; Mrs. Fred

Hamm, Bath; Mr. Henry Tyner, Montreal; Mr. Jack Creagan, Deseronto; Mr. W. J. Judson, Napanee. A unique feature of the wedding was the presence of the six sisters of the bride and the fact that the bride's bouquet was caught by the maid-of-honor, Miss Lucia McTeay.

Wells-Western. The Anglican church, Cobourg, was on Tuesday, June 29th, at high noon the scene of a pretty wedding, when Miss Seybil Isobel, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Western, Cobourg, was united in marriage to Mr. Russell B. Wells, of Detroit, Mich., younger son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Wells, of Bloomfield, Rev. Dr. Boyle officiated, and Miss Warner presided at the organ. The bride was becomingly attired in French grey georgette and silver lace over powder blue satin, with hat and shoes to match, and carried a bouquet of opheelia roses. The bride's travelling dress was black and green pannelled georgette. Mrs. Harry Elliott, of Buffalo, N.Y., her attendant, wore French grey georgette and carried pink carnations. The groom was assisted by Mr. Harry Elliott, of Buffalo, N.Y. A buffet lunch was served at the home of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Wells left on the C.N.R. International train for Detroit, where they will reside. The bride's mother wore black flat crepe. Mrs. Wells, the mother of the groom wore black and white crepe. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Wells, Miss Olive Wells, Bloomfield, Mr. and Mrs. Morley Simpson, Brighton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elliott, Buffalo, N.Y.

That the Y.W.C.A. is a busy place just now. Many tourists have found that they can get comfortable rooms and board there and parties of ladies stay the night or the week-end. Lately many of the visitors have come from the United States for it would seem that a number of adventurous American women go off on motor trips without their men kind and feel sure that the "Y" will provide for their comfort. Then too the summer school students are back at Queen's and the "Y" has a good share of the girl students. On Tuesday, with some of the regular boarders away on holidays, dinner was served to twenty-two guests. The wide verandah overlooking the shaded tennis court is an ideal place to sit and is open to the visitors who rest here before going on their way.

That all the church choirs are reduced in numbers during the summer and the congregations are also much smaller. This is the time for familiar hymns and short sermons. It is quite true that no congregation enjoys the variety of hymns that may be found in their hymnal, but let us wait for the full choir that the autumn brings and the renewed energy caused by the cool autumn days to learn new words and music.

That during the summer we have many visitors in Kingston. Let us make them welcome. We meet them in the shops where they buy articles from our Kingston merchants; we meet them on the streets where they are asking their way to our many historical points of interest, the very things they have travelled miles to see.

Let us tell them about the city, its beginning and its story. Show them our universities, our old towers and forts, our splendid Royal Military College and the Tete de Pont Barracks built on the site of old Fort Frontenac. And then send them to the Martello Tower in Macdonald Park which has been turned into a museum by the Kingston Historical Society and has many things of interest for our visitors.

And if you meet the travellers socially either at your friends' houses or public gatherings, talk to them and get them to talk to you. It will please them to tell you of their travels and unless you are very self-centred you will enjoy hearing their impressions. But don't talk all the time to the people you meet every day who are perhaps easier to have a conversation with because you have so many things in common. We have all seen visitors who looked distinctly bored because no one bothered about them, so absorbed were their hostesses and their friends in the little things they spoke of every day.

That the women's meetings are over but the garden parties and picnics to make money for the work to be taken up in the autumn are in full swing. Many of them are advertised on the Woman's Page of The Whig either in the "Coming Events" column or at the end of the social column. This week Victory Chapter, L.O.D.E., is giving a garden party and bridge and next week the annual garden party will be given by the organizations of St. George's Cathedral. There is no admission fee charged to the cathedral festivity and everyone in the city will be welcomed. They will, however, be sure to find a way to spend money before they leave. Both these events are advertised on the Woman's Page.

That with the warmer weather comes the question of swimming. What about the children. Can they swim? If not, why not? Some boys and girls have been brought up so far in inland places, but they will want to go out in boats and canoes with the boys and girls who can swim and are in constant danger. The Y.M.C.A. has swimming classes and there is always a competent teacher at the Richardson bathing house in Macdonald Park during the summer.

Spencer-McTeay. St. George's Church, Trenton, was the scene of a very charming wedding at one o'clock on Monday, July 5th, when Margaret Bromley, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. L. McTeay, became the bride of Reginald Clarke Spencer, Camden East. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by the father of the groom, the service being read from a white ivory covered prayer book, the gift of the bride from the choir, of which she was a member.

The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of summer flowers, arranged by the girl friends of the bride. Preceded by the choir, the bride entered the church on the arm of her cousin, Mr. Howard McTeay. She was a picture of girlish loveliness in a gown of ivory kitten's ear crepe, trimmed with real lace, her bridal veil arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses, lily-of-the-valley and baby's breath. Her only ornament was the gift of the groom, a rope of pearls.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lucia McTeay, as maid of honor, who wore a powder blue and silver shot taffeta frock, with large picture hat, and carried a bouquet of sunset roses. The bridesmaids were the Misses Marlon and Claire McTeay, who wore frocked alike in pink and silver shot taffeta, with mohair picture hats, in pink, and carried pink roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Hugh Valley of Windsor. The ushers were Mr. Jack Creagan of Deseronto and Mr. W. J. Judson of Napanee.

All through the service, soft music was rendered by the organist, Mrs. E. Bates, and during the signing of the register the choir sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden."

Following the ceremony a reception was held at "The Vicarage." Mrs. A. H. McTeay, the bride's mother, was gowned in black French crepe with touches of gold, a large black hat and corsage bouquet of roses and lily-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Spencer, mother of the groom, was attired in beige flat crepe, mohair hat to match, and wore a corsage bouquet of roses and lily-of-the-valley.

After a buffet luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Spencer left on a motor trip to Quebec, the bride travelling in a smart golden brown satin coat trimmed with fur, a dress of blonde georgette with touches of gold and blue, and small lace hat to match. On their return they will reside in Syracuse, N.Y.

Among the out-of-town guests were Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Spencer, Miss Martin, Camden East; Miss Katharine McTeay, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. E. W. McTeay, Mr. Howard McTeay, Miss Erna McTeay, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newlands, Mrs. Gordon Sheppard, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. James Haydon, Miss FitzHugh, Kingston; Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Kirkpatrick, Carrying Place; Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Byers, Stirling; Rev. and Mrs. John Lyons, Picton; Mrs. Fred

Free Sample of KOTEX

To Introduce the New Scientific Sanitary Pad

ONLY 3 DAYS MORE

Now! a new KOTEX Get free sample here

Wherever this blue banner is displayed in the window

Your Opportunity, Madam—to learn of this new way in woman's personal hygiene which doctors and nurses recommend. Go today to any of the drug or department stores which display this banner. Help yourself to a sample—no questions, no conversation. Only one sample to a person.

Offer limited to this week only

The Editor Hears

That the Y.W.C.A. is a busy place just now. Many tourists have found that they can get comfortable rooms and board there and parties of ladies stay the night or the week-end. Lately many of the visitors have come from the United States for it would seem that a number of adventurous American women go off on motor trips without their men kind and feel sure that the "Y" will provide for their comfort. Then too the summer school students are back at Queen's and the "Y" has a good share of the girl students. On Tuesday, with some of the regular boarders away on holidays, dinner was served to twenty-two guests. The wide verandah overlooking the shaded tennis court is an ideal place to sit and is open to the visitors who rest here before going on their way.

That all the church choirs are reduced in numbers during the summer and the congregations are also much smaller. This is the time for familiar hymns and short sermons. It is quite true that no congregation enjoys the variety of hymns that may be found in their hymnal, but let us wait for the full choir that the autumn brings and the renewed energy caused by the cool autumn days to learn new words and music.

That during the summer we have many visitors in Kingston. Let us make them welcome. We meet them in the shops where they buy articles from our Kingston merchants; we meet them on the streets where they are asking their way to our many historical points of interest, the very things they have travelled miles to see.

Let us tell them about the city, its beginning and its story. Show them our universities, our old towers and forts, our splendid Royal Military College and the Tete de Pont Barracks built on the site of old Fort Frontenac. And then send them to the Martello Tower in Macdonald Park which has been turned into a museum by the Kingston Historical Society and has many things of interest for our visitors.

And if you meet the travellers socially either at your friends' houses or public gatherings, talk to them and get them to talk to you. It will please them to tell you of their travels and unless you are very self-centred you will enjoy hearing their impressions. But don't talk all the time to the people you meet every day who are perhaps easier to have a conversation with because you have so many things in common. We have all seen visitors who looked distinctly bored because no one bothered about them, so absorbed were their hostesses and their friends in the little things they spoke of every day.

That the women's meetings are over but the garden parties and picnics to make money for the work to be taken up in the autumn are in full swing. Many of them are advertised on the Woman's Page of The Whig either in the "Coming Events" column or at the end of the social column. This week Victory Chapter, L.O.D.E., is giving a garden party and bridge and next week the annual garden party will be given by the organizations of St. George's Cathedral. There is no admission fee charged to the cathedral festivity and everyone in the city will be welcomed. They will, however, be sure to find a way to spend money before they leave. Both these events are advertised on the Woman's Page.

That with the warmer weather comes the question of swimming. What about the children. Can they swim? If not, why not? Some boys and girls have been brought up so far in inland places, but they will want to go out in boats and canoes with the boys and girls who can swim and are in constant danger. The Y.M.C.A. has swimming classes and there is always a competent teacher at the Richardson bathing house in Macdonald Park during the summer.

Spencer-McTeay. St. George's Church, Trenton, was the scene of a very charming wedding at one o'clock on Monday, July 5th, when Margaret Bromley, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. L. McTeay, became the bride of Reginald Clarke Spencer, Camden East. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by the father of the groom, the service being read from a white ivory covered prayer book, the gift of the bride from the choir, of which she was a member.

The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of summer flowers, arranged by the girl friends of the bride. Preceded by the choir, the bride entered the church on the arm of her cousin, Mr. Howard McTeay. She was a picture of girlish loveliness in a gown of ivory kitten's ear crepe, trimmed with real lace, her bridal veil arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses, lily-of-the-valley and baby's breath. Her only ornament was the gift of the groom, a rope of pearls.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lucia McTeay, as maid of honor, who wore a powder blue and silver shot taffeta frock, with large picture hat, and carried a bouquet of sunset roses. The bridesmaids were the Misses Marlon and Claire McTeay, who wore frocked alike in pink and silver shot taffeta, with mohair picture hats, in pink, and carried pink roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Hugh Valley of Windsor. The ushers were Mr. Jack Creagan of Deseronto and Mr. W. J. Judson of Napanee.

All through the service, soft music was rendered by the organist, Mrs. E. Bates, and during the signing of the register the choir sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden."

Following the ceremony a reception was held at "The Vicarage." Mrs. A. H. McTeay, the bride's mother, was gowned in black French crepe with touches of gold, a large black hat and corsage bouquet of roses and lily-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Spencer, mother of the groom, was attired in beige flat crepe, mohair hat to match, and wore a corsage bouquet of roses and lily-of-the-valley.

After a buffet luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Spencer left on a motor trip to Quebec, the bride travelling in a smart golden brown satin coat trimmed with fur, a dress of blonde georgette with touches of gold and blue, and small lace hat to match. On their return they will reside in Syracuse, N.Y.

Among the out-of-town guests were Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Spencer, Miss Martin, Camden East; Miss Katharine McTeay, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. E. W. McTeay, Mr. Howard McTeay, Miss Erna McTeay, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newlands, Mrs. Gordon Sheppard, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. James Haydon, Miss FitzHugh, Kingston; Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Kirkpatrick, Carrying Place; Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Byers, Stirling; Rev. and Mrs. John Lyons, Picton; Mrs. Fred

AUNT HET

"When I hear a woman say she can buy readymade things cheaper than she can make 'em, I know she ain't swept under the beds in two months."

In per capita wealth Canada stands next to the United States and Great Britain.

BOVRIL Makes Delicious Sandwiches Very Nourishing Too

KINGSTON'S LEADING BEAUTY PARLOR

MARCEL WAVING WATER WAVING SHAMPOOING HAIR BOBBING. FRANK ROBBS, 155 WELLS ST. Phone 578-J.

WILSON'S FLY PADS

Will kill many times more flies for the money than any other fly killer. Each pad will kill flies all day, every day, for three weeks. At all Grocers, Drugists and General Stores—10c and 25c per package.

GALLAGHER'S TAXI SERVICE 960 25c ANYWHERE IN CITY DAY OR NIGHT ALL 7 PASSENGER SEDANS

PRETTY FROCKS FOR Summer Wear at Special Prices Women's Voile Dresses in a big variety of styles and patterns. All sizes at $1.95, $2.95, $3.95. Women's Broadcloths in plain and fancy styles at $1.95, $2.95, $3.95. Novelty Crepe and Silk Fugi Dresses—very special at $7.95, $9.00 and $10.00. Children's Dresses at $1.50, $1.95 and $2.95. All sizes. W. N. Linton & Co. THE IRISH LINEN STORE

COLLIN'S BAY DANCING PAVILION EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY DANCING FROM 8 TO 12 (STANDARD TIME) SID FOX ORCHESTRA IN ATTENDANCE. H. V. CLARK, Manager.

THE LINDSAY STYLE "L" UPRIGHT PIANO $395 Unexcelled for Quality and Value Sold on easy terms. $25 cash and $10 monthly.

LINDSAY'S 121 PRINCESS STREET KINGSTON

THREE IN SUTTON FAMILY RESTORED TO HEALTH

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Rather a Remarkable Record

Others Also Benefited

Campbellford, Ontario.—"I was feeling very run-down, always tired, no ambition for anything. I suppose I should not have been at work, but I could not afford to stay at home, only now and then. Last spring my mother was very sick and a friend told her to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was feeling better after the first bottle and she wanted me to take it, too. So my sister, mother and I took it until we were all well. My sister and I work in the woolen mill, and we tell every one who says she is not feeling well about the Vegetable Compound. We cannot praise it enough for it has done us so much good. You may use this letter if you like, for I would like every woman and girl to get the benefit that we got."—GRACE SUTTON, Campbellford, Ontario.

South Vancouver, B.C.—"I was always skeptical of all so-called patent medicines and have heretofore hesitated to use any of them. For over eight years I was troubled with irregularities, feeling very sick. I had terrible cramps, fainting spells, and dragging-down pains, was in bed two or three days every month, with conditions growing worse gradually. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was very highly recommended to me; in fact, I was urged time and again to try it, and I feel very thankful that at last I took the step that has helped me so much. At first I could hardly credit the results, as I came almost to the hour, every month. I can truthfully say that for the last four months I have suffered no inconvenience nor pain in that respect. I tell every one of the good results obtained, and I shall be pleased to answer questions as to the wonderful benefits derived from the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. G. E. Lewis, 288 47th Ave., South Vancouver, B.C.

The injurious effects of hard or heavy work on a young girl cannot be overestimated. She cannot afford to stay at home, yet she is often unable to lift heavy articles or to stand on her feet for long hours. What can she do? Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for girls and women. Let it relieve you of that feeling of nervous strain which comes at certain times.

The experience of Mrs. Lewis should help other women. She tells you how she used to feel and the wonderful results she has obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale by druggists everywhere.

The Robertson China Shop China—Crockery—Glassware 65 BROCK STREET. Emma I. Gwatkin, Prop. PHONE 694.