

SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL HELD AT PITTSBURG

Strawberry Social and Concert by Kingston People Drew Large Crowds.

Successful socials have been held in the surrounding district, at various times but none surpassed the one on Thursday night at St. James' church, Pittsburgh, where a strawberry social and concert was held.

At the supper hour, the social was well under way and so large were the crowds, that extra supplies had to be rushed in.

Following the supper, a concert, in which a number of artists from Kingston took part was held and was evidently greatly enjoyed.

The Highland band, under Pipe Major J. M. Fraser contributed several numbers, while R. G. Betts in violin numbers and comic songs greatly pleased.

Little Miss Murray in Scotch dances proved to be one of the favorite entertainers and drew rounds of applause.

The social and concert was held under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of St. James' church, and much credit is due to them for the excellent work they performed.

Rev. N. R. Burke, who is the incumbent at St. James', Pittsburgh, stated that he was well pleased with the result of the efforts put forth and expressed his gratitude to all those who in any way had contributed towards its success.

JOHN DEARE, VERONA, ACTIVE AT 84 YEARS

Shovels Feldspar From Freight Car—Walks Four Miles Home at Times.

Many men when they reach the four-score mark realize that their days of labor are at an end, but not so with John Deare, Verona.

Mr. Deare was for many years a farmer, but his son took over the work on the farm and he went to live in Verona. He claims that he is feeling in the best of health, and is able to do six days work each week.

OBITUARY

In the death of Sister M. Imelda, who died at the Mother House, Wednesday evening, July 7th, at 8.30 o'clock, the Sisters of Charity, Kingston, have lost one of their devoted young members.

Sister M. Imelda was the daughter of the late Thomas Murphy of Napanee. Of the large family of ten children, six survive, one sister, Sister M. Perpetua was in attendance at her death.

The deceased was educated in the schools of her native town. In the year 1911, having completed her high school course and feeling an attraction for the religious life, she sought for and obtained admission into the Novitiate of the Order and after spending the usual time of probation and preparation, pronounced her religious vows, January 15th, 1914.

The funeral will be held on Saturday morning, His Grace, (Most Reverend M. J. Spratt, will officiate at a Solemn Requiem Mass at 8 o'clock for the eternal repose of her soul, after which he remains will be confined to their last resting place in St. Mary's cemetery.

I wish I might follow that soul so white, As it passes the spires and mountain heights, Pushes the fleecy clouds away, And enters the whiteness of Heaven to-day.

The period of tenure of command of the Queen's University Cont. C. O. T. C. is further extended for Lt.-Col. and Bvt. Col. A. Macphail, D.S.O., until March 14th, 1927.

Dr. John Pringle Has An Unexpected Plunge

Kamloops, B.C., July 9.—Rev. Dr. John Pringle, familiarly known as "Yukon Pringle," had an unpleasant experience while riding on the ferry at Blackpool, B.C., according to reports received here today.

Dr. Pringle, who was returning from conducting a service in the district, lost control of his car and as he was moving off the ferry, the vehicle plunged into the stream, but the missionary scrambled to shore without injury. At the point of the accident, the river was only four feet deep. Dr. Pringle, who is 75 years old, for many years has served as a missionary in the northland of British Columbia.

GET RID OF SENATE SAYS MISS MACPHER

She Warns Canadians Against Sustaining Decision of Lord Byng.

Orangeville, July 8.—The fifth annual picnic of Dufferin County U.F.O. was held yesterday afternoon and evening in Frank Turner's grove, Camilla, six miles north of here. Over 1,000 cars from all parts of Ontario were parked on the grounds, the attendance estimated at close to 5,000.

"Though small in numbers, we found ourselves with the balance of power," said Miss Agnes Macphail, U.F.O. ex-M.P. for Southeast Grey. "Overtures had been made by both parties. As the Liberal offer was the most to our liking, we accepted their proposal, made on a strictly legislative basis. It was a co-operative plan. The 117 Conservatives voted together solidly, as did the Liberals. The Progressives were the only ones to differ in their voting. They thought honestly and voted as they liked. No matter which way we voted, we were always wrong. If we voted with one side, we were wrong, according to the other side. If we split in our vote, every one said we were wrong."

"The Customs report proved to be a snag. Montreal is no worse than any other place. Bisillon is the worst rascal in Canada to-day. Several bills had been passed by the House, only to be sent under by the Senate. We've got to get rid of the Senate. Don't appoint men any more, and let the present ones die off, as they die off quickly. I uphold Mackenzie King's resignation, but think he made an unwise move to go to the country on the Customs probe."

"Mr. Meighen formed a shadow government by having seven men in his Cabinet. Think of it. Some of these men are holding five different offices. When the vote of supply came up, we didn't dare vote your money into their hands until we were sure it was a legal government. Mr. Meighen never made an intelligent effort to ascertain if he had the confidence of the House."

"If you sustain the decision of Governor-General Byng, then we in Canada say we like being a Crown colony. I've come to the place where I care very little about the thing. It is time a new system of government was formed, so the business of the country could be carried on in a businesslike manner. Ottawa took a holiday to come to Ottawa. I don't like to see any industry go on the rocks. But they will not run Canada."

PASTOR-MAYOR

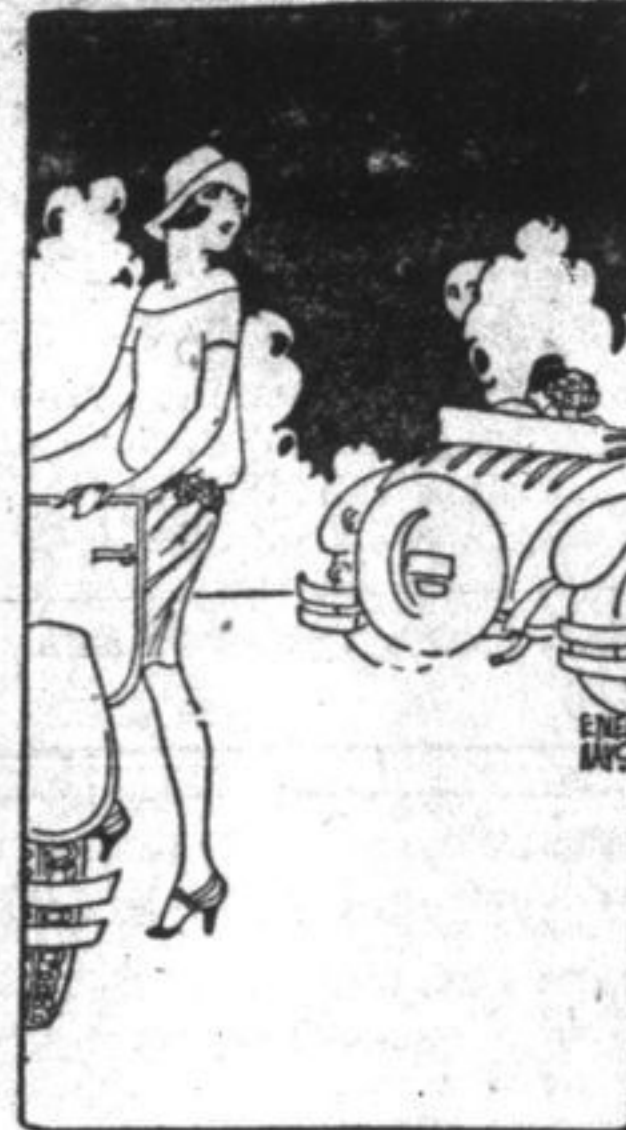

Father Frank A. Seifert, pastor of St. Frederick's Catholic Church in Daggett, Mich., has been elected mayor of the town—the first clergyman in the state to hold such an office. There were only three dissenting votes. He has been a chaplain in Michigan prisons, and served as a captain, overseas, with the American army in 1918.

A STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL

Was a Fine Success at Findley Station.

Findley Station, July 8.—On Thursday afternoon the members of the Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Russell Bennett's. Mrs. George Millous and Mrs. William Campbell assisted the hostess in serving lunch. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bedore, Syracuse, N.Y., spent a short time at James Muden's. Miss Hazel Tolles, Elginburg, spent a couple of days at W. W. Kiehl's, Delbert Fuller and John Macintyre are in the General Hospital.

The strawberry social held on the church grounds, on Tuesday night, was a success. Over ninety dollars were taken in. The programme was given in the church by Kingston talent. Mrs. Carpenter and children, Kingston, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Carey. Quarterly service will be held in Woodburn church on Sunday night. John Ried and family and Chauncey Simpkins and family, Elginburg, spent a day at H. L. Kiehl's.
