Calvary Church Picnic

WAS VERY SUCCESSFUL

Programme of Games and Races Enjoyed at Lake Ontario Park.

The annual picnic of Calvary United Church, was held Thursday afternoon, at Lake Ontario Park. The transportation for the children to the park was very kindly provided by H. C. Nickle, on the street cars. As soon as the picnicers arrived at the park the kiddies took to the swings and slides, and the older ones immediately headed for the lake to swim. The races, ran off under the sports committee of S. E. Beckman, Miss L. Sanders, Neal Gow and D. Sanders, were enjoyed by all, young and old. Following the races tea was served to all present. Later the picnic supper was served and everybody did ample justice to it. Softball and other games were played after supper, and all returned to the city voting the outing one of the best held by this church yet. A great deal of the credit for its success is due to Rev. Frank Sanders.
