SPORTING NOTES AND COMMENT

Local hockey fans will learn with interest that Alex. Conneil, goaler for the Ottawa Hockey Club, has been signed up for the next five years. Connell has become one of the highest rated goal-tenders in the professional game. He was a former Kingston goal-tender under "Senator" Jack Powell with the Kingston juniors in 1918 and 1919.

Shortstop Everett Scott has been purchased by the Cincinnati Reds from the Chicago White Sox.

A card has been received from "Dollar Bill," well-known Queen's football "employee." Bill is down in Keywest, Florida, and says he is having a real time and is as far from "the apex of the pinnacle" as is possible for him to be. Those who know "Dollar Bill" know what he means. He sends regards to his Kingston friends, especially the officials at the university, with whom he is a great favorite.

The links at the Cataraqui Golf and Country Club are expected to be crowded for the next few weeks while some of the boys who made the trip to Brockville last Saturday put on a little steam and get down to brass tacks. The local golfers sure had an off day in the River Town and they won't get over that 37-9 trimming administered to them for a few days yet. Some of the members of the team have gone so far as to start to learn the game all over again, it is whispered,

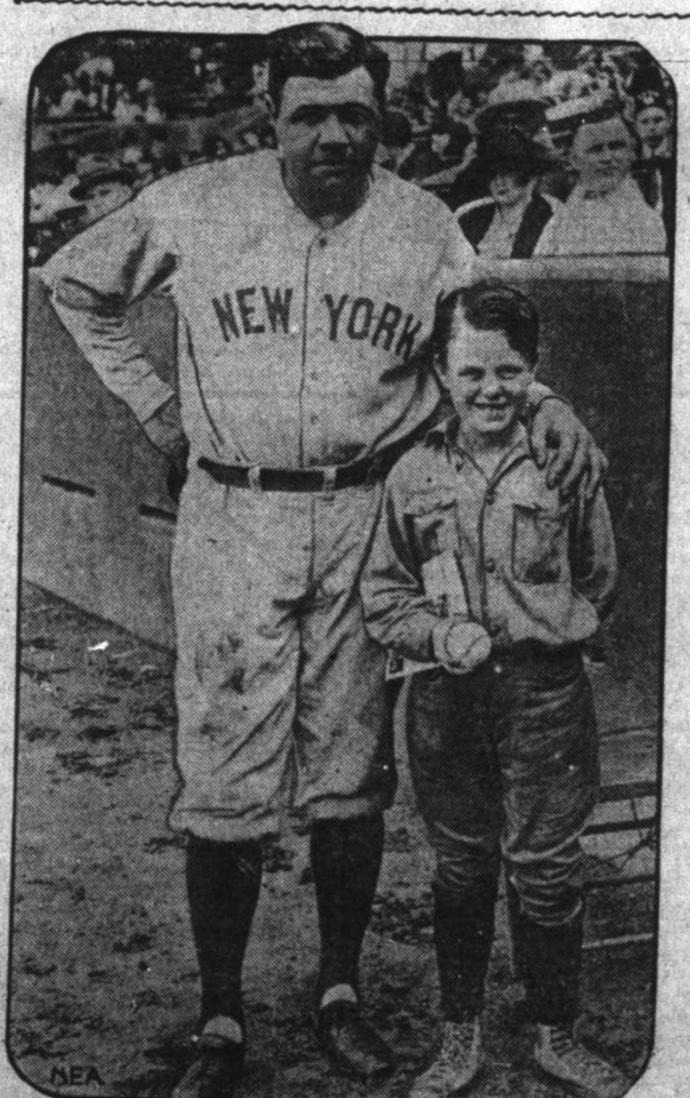

The entries for the tournament at the Kingston Tennis Club have not been coming in as well as expected by the tournament committee and the lists are being left open for a few days longer to allow the members a little more time to get signed up for the various groups of the tournaat the rate they have been in the time to stay out in front if Heckman ment. Great enthusiasm is being shown by those already entered and last couple of games, it is hard to and Swanston work as they have there is every indication that the games, in all branches will be keenly contested.
