ATTEMPTED HOLD-UP OF ATHENS RESIDENT

St. Dennis Church Robbed—Church Social And Picnic—Summer Services.

Athens, July 14.—A. Palmer, Elgin street blacksmith, received a bad scare a few evenings ago, when a few yards from his door, he was struck on the head by a man who had been concealed behind a tree, at the side of the street. The blow did not stun the victim, and in the tussle that ensued his coat and shirt were torn, but otherwise he made a successful escape from what seemed to be a hold-up, with intent to rob, as Mr. Palmer had on his person a considerable amount of cash, and was just returning from a grocery where this fact might have been observed through the glass windows.

It is said that St. Dennis church was entered recently and robbed of a small amount.

Herbert Warren, Church street, on Monday last, began work in the local branch of the Bank of Montreal as junior clerk.

David Thompson, Wellington street, has been improving the appearance of his cozy home by adding a fine new verandah.

Two new flags have been presented to Christ church by the Ladies' Guild.

and a pleasant time was spent in games, races, boating, swimming, etc., the greatest event, perhaps, being the picnic dinner.

Several Athenians attended the social held at the United church, Frankville, and by the Anglican church, Addison, recently.

Owing to unfavorable weather, the Smith's Falls band did not play for the social held by the United church here, on the 9th inst., the supper being served in the basement of the church, and Mrs. Tisdale, Toronto, a soloist of rare accomplishments, contributing several selections instead. Her repertoire is varied, and delighted all. Several resident and visiting clergymen contributed short addresses on that occasion.

The annual social of the Anglican church is announced for the evening of Thursday, the 15th inst.

Summer Services.

Miss Adda Hunt, Victoria street, president of the Township Sunday School Association, has again succeeded in establishing a Sunday school at Charleston Lake, at least for the summer months. W. W. Eyre, Oak Leaf, is superintendent, and Mr. and Mrs. William Crozier have kindly opened their home for holding the sessions.

For three summers now, Rev. G. G. Upham, B.Th. pastor of the Baptist church of this place, has held a service at the Plum Hollow cemetery, where so many of the former members of his Plum Hollow congregation are buried. For years, this was a neglected spot, but, through his initiative, the grounds have been made attractive, so that now, each season, a service is conducted there, a collection being taken to maintain the cemetery in proper condition. This service was held at the place on the 4th inst., and was attended by many whose friends lie buried near at hand.

Local boys, who have been enjoying the Tuxis Boys' and Trail Rangers' camp at Hudson's Point, St. Lawrence river, have returned, much pleased with their experiences. Some sixty boys participated in the outing.

A number of local Orangemen went to Gananoque for "The Glorious Twelfth," and took part in the celebration. Others, too, were in attendance to meet old friends and enjoy the diversion, which such events provide.

The Misses Nellie and Ethel Brown, teachers at Port William, have arrived for holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brown, Wiltsie street.
