AMUSEMENTS

What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

AT THE CAPITOL.

"The Barrier" Has Been Dramatically Filmed.

Replete with thrills, beautiful photography and splendid acting by a notable cast of principals, "The Barrier," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer photoplay of Rex Beach's novel, opened yesterday at the Capitol theatre.

Beach's stirring novel of the Alaskan frontier, where the veneer of civilization dropped from men through their lust for gold, has been transferred to the screen with praiseworthy fidelity by Director George Hill. The work of the director is ably seconded by such popular screen stars as Norman Kerry, Lionel Barrymore, Henry B. Walthall, Marceline Day, Pat Harmon, Bert Woodruff and others. So well do these players acquit themselves that they ably deserve the title of the season's best cast.

Norman Kerry and Marceline Day are the focus of romantic interest in the picture. As Lieutenant Meade Burrell, the haughty scion of a proud Virginia family, Kerry is sent to an Alaskan army post, where he meets and loves Necta, played by Marceline Day, a half-breed girl, whom he believes white, as does the girl herself, having been raised as the daughter of Galt, the kindly old trader, portrayed convincingly by Henry B. Walthall.

Complications arise when Burrell learns the girl is not white. He is willing to overlook the barrier, but the feelings of his aristocratic family must be considered. His decision is made when the girl falls into the clutches of Stark Bennett, the brutal skipper of a whaling ship.

The picture is packed with high-power dramatic thrills. The rescue of the girl from the whaling ship jammed in the ice floes, the wreck of the ship in the ice, the furious battle between the young lieutenant and Bennett in the ship's cabin, the struggle between the first mate, as played by Pat Harmon and Burrell's orderly, Sergeant Murphy, combine to keep the spectator on the edge of his seat throughout the film.

The picture contains none of the monotonous heroics commonly associated with the stories of the frontier and a well defined vein of comedy, interpreted by George Cooper and Bert Woodruff, permeates throughout.

"The Barrier" is a picture that should not be missed.

THE QUEEN'S RE-UNION FROM NOV. 6 TO 13

Assurances That 1,500 Graduates and Former Students Will be Here.

Plans for the Queen's "Re-Union" which is to be held in connection with the Queen's Endowment Campaign have been altered so that the big event will take place from November 6th to 13th. This has been done so that the many graduates who will wish to spend Thanksgiving Day at the re-union may be able to do so.

Already the Re-union Committee has received assurances from fifteen hundred graduates and former students that they will be on hand. All the details of the entertainment for the re-union have not been worked out yet, but the committee is bending every energy toward providing a novel programme and when all the "old boys" and "young girls" get back to Queen's for a few days they will doubtless stage some impromptu features that will fill in what is not taken care of in the twenty-four hours of each day.

DANDELIONS GROWING THROUGH PAVEMENT

A Sight to Behold at the Entrance to the Fair Grounds.

While dandelions are known to be very hardy weeds, it is difficult to credit the assertion that they will grow up through the pavement, yet this is what is actually taking place at the main entrance to the Fair Grounds.

Evidently part of the asphalt pavement was laid over dandelion roots, and these plants have pushed up the pavement in several places and the flowers have come right through and are in plain sight. If this phenomena continues till fall some enterprising showman at fair time can put a tent over the spot and charge admission to see "The Gr-r-reatest Wonder-r of the Twentieth Centur-r-y."

BOB MORTON CIRCUS.

Coming to Kingston for Three Days, July 22nd-24th.

Circus day will soon be here. The Bob Morton Circus is coming to Kingston to play a three-day engagement, beginning Thursday, July 22nd, under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club who are staging the show to raise funds for their Welfare Fund. The big show, by special permission from the city officials, will pitch its big tents on the Cricket Field opposite the Court House.

The Bob Morton Circus is without a doubt the largest traveling circus that plays exclusively for fraternal and civic organizations in all Canada and has been making quite an extensive tour in the provinces with great success. The show is coming here direct from its engagement in London where it has been playing under the auspices of the Community Welfare Fund.

The show consists of over 50 stars of the sawdust and tinzel world and comes to Kingston highly recommended by the various organizations under which it has played in Canada. There are some real features acts on the programme—among them being the Famous Luckey Sisters, Three Dainty Queens of the Air, presenting one of the greatest demonstrations of Iron Jaw work that has ever been seen here with any circus. The girls work high in the lofty dome of the big tent hanging by their teeth and performing some wonderful feats in the air; another famous act is the Flying Franklins, whose act defies death at every turn and they will send cold chills up and down the spinal column of any red blooded man or woman; Madame Tyanna, the Lady Hercules, the world's strongest woman is another big sensational feature that will be seen on the programme. To enumerate each and every act on the programme would require columns of space so at this time just a few will be mentioned. No circus is complete without its contingent of clowns and Funny Fellows on the Bob Morton Circus will make you bust a button laughing at their funny antics. The tickets have been placed on sale now among the various members of the Kiwanis Club.

Cadet Supervision

An unfortunate accident occurred at the Sea Cadets Camp during the week. While piling up logs for a camp-fire, the cadets attempted to throw a log up to the top of the pile but the log slipped and struck Mr. Arthur Raven, the supervisor, who was standing nearby. The side of Mr. Raven's face and leg was badly scraped and bruised. He was confined to his tent for a day, but is now able to get around the camp on crutches. The unfortunate occurrence was purely accidental, and the work of the boys in attending to Mr. Raven after his injury is to be highly commended.

STOP MOTOR LAW IS TO COME INTO EFFECT

Defeated in Council Here Once—Has Now Become Provincial Law.

The attention of motorists of Kingston is drawn to section 36 part (1a) of the Ontario Motor Vehicle Act, which says as follows:

"The operator of every motor vehicle shall immediately before entering or crossing a through highway, bring the vehicle to a stop."

(a) "Through highway shall mean any highway designated as such by the Minister or by by-law of any municipality approved of by the Department and every such highway shall be marked to department."

The reason that attention to the above is drawn is that what is known as the stop law is expected to come into effect here very shortly. This law will require that every motor vehicle, before entering the highway shall stop first and then go on. In this way it is hoped to do away with many accidents that occur through cars going into the highway without stopping.

This matter has long occupied the attention of the local police and it was vigorously taken up at one time by the police department but when it came to the council, the by-law to enforce this was defeated. However, it is a provincial law now, and local motorists will feel the effect of it shortly.
