CELEBRATE CANADA'S SIXTIETH BIRTHDAY
Proposal That There Should Be Great National Demonstration in 1927.
(Orrilla Peck)
At the monthly luncheon of the Kiwanis Club on Monday, Mr. O. H. Hale laid before the members present a suggestion that a movement should be set on foot to mark the sixtieth anniversary of confederation, which occurs next year, by a great national demonstration extending over three days, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 1st, 2nd and 3rd, 1927. He suggested that a uniform programme should be arranged for the three days, the various features of which could be carried out in every city, town, village and hamlet from the Atlantic to the Pacific, when possible simultaneously, the culminating feature being a great national religious service of consecration and dedication on Sunday, July 3rd. The proposal set a sympathetic reception from the audience, which included besides the members of the Kiwanis Club, the Executive and Past Presidents of the Orrilla Canadian Club, and half a dozen visiting Kiwanians from Midland. A committee composed of Mayor Sinclair, Mr. George Guy, President of the Board of Trade, Mr. O. Garnet Smith, President of the Canadian Club, and Mr. S. H. Starr, Vice-President of the Kiwanis Club, was appointed to go further into the matter, and report as to what steps they would consider most advisable for giving effect to Mr. Hale's suggestion.

Female Help Wanted
MILWAUKEE-Near Kingston; miniature Muskoka, 100 acres, private harbor, camping spaces, good bathing, liberal table. Moderate terms. Midmer, Bath, and the simultaneous church services throughout the Dominion, for which all the church bells in Canada could begin to ring at the same instant. Mr. Hale urged that if the demonstration was to be carried out on an adequate scale there was no time to lose in getting preparations under way, and suggested that a local committee might be formed to bring the proposal before the public men and bodies which would have influence in carrying it into effect.
