SPECIAL ANNIVERSARY GIFT

Anderson Bros. Ltd. KINGSTON

Many Tourists Here.

There was an unusually large number of tourists in Kingston today. The downtown streets were filled with automobiles from distant places.

Sydenham Girl Passes.

At Toronto Conservatory of Music Miss Dorothy Young, Sydenham, was successful in passing the examinations in Elementary Theory and second honors.

Some Light Showers.

Several light showers fell on Monday night. The crops have certainly benefited by timely rainfalls during the past fortnight and the yield should be abundant.

New Service Started.

The Canadian National Railways has instituted a new motor car service between Westport and Ottawa, the car being operated on Sunday as well as on other days of the week.

Was Operated On.

Miss Vera Gorman, of the Belleville Ontario business office staff, was rushed to the Hotel Dieu hospital on Sunday evening by Dr. J. J. Robertson and immediately operated upon for appendicitis.

Off On Vacation.

Miss Mae James, manager of the local Laura Secord candy store, left today for Rochester, N. Y., to spend her vacation with her brother, at 161 Kenwood Avenue, Rochester. She is accompanied by her aunt, Miss Kathleen Lawless.

Passing Singing Examination.

Miss Lorraine Grimshaw, the clever young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Grimshaw, has passed the intermediate singing examination in connection with the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

Pays Brockville a Visit.

Lieut.-Col. W. J. Morgan went to Brockville today to attend the big re-union. Years ago he acted as manager of the Brockville Bell Telephone exchange for a time, and is therefore on Brockville's books as one of the old boys of that town.

Five Cows Killed.

Dr. William Nicholls, who was called to Parham yesterday found that five fine cows had been killed on the farm of Ernest Bertram by lightning last Saturday night. They were lying under a large tree, which had been shattered by the bolt.

A Wonderful Feat.

Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, of Lattimer, have returned from a motor trip to Detroit and other Michigan points. Mr. Taylor drove his car himself, though he has only one hand. He covered over 2,000 miles, which really is a wonderful feat for a one-handed driver.

Has Taken An Appeal.

J. D. Spease, convicted at Victoria Harbor, of robbery and shop breaking, was sentenced to penitentiary for eight and a half years, but to run concurrently and will end in five years, has filed notice of appeal to a Divisional Court on the grounds that the sentences were excessive.

Pastor Taken Very Ill.

Rev. N. S. McKechnie, pastor of the Belleville, Baptist Church was taken seriously ill Friday evening and was removed to the hospital where his condition is growing satisfactory. He was in Toronto to see specialists but his case presented difficulties. It is hoped a speedy recovery will result.

Helping the Farmers.

Mr. J. B. Smith, of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, is assisting Mr. A. W. Strett, agricultural representative for the county, in culling poultry for the farmers of the district. Mr. Smith and Mr. Strett will hold a poultry demonstration at Zealand on Wednesday afternoon.

Held Fine Trip.

A very successful moonlight excursion was held on Monday evening to Clayton under the auspices of the Catholic Women's League. There was a large crowd on board and the sail down the river and back was much enjoyed. The excursionists ran into a short rain but it did not mar the outing any.

A Serious Charge.

Peter Gauthier, a young man who lives in Gananoque was arrested in that town on Tuesday morning by Provincial Constable Clubbe, on a serious charge. Gauthier appeared before Magistrate Bradshaw, in County Police Court Tuesday morning, and was committed for trial. Crown Attorney Rigney was present and Mr. I. Revelle acted for the accused.

Born in Kingston.

Mr. C. J. Brown, late city clerk of Winnipeg, who died last week, was born in the city of Kingston, seventy-one years ago. The same city where Sir Hugh John Macdonald, the city of Winnipeg's revered police commissioner, first saw the light of day, and these two have been close friends during their almost half century residence in Winnipeg. Mr. Brown was born in April, 1855; Sir Hugh John five years earlier.

Defeated The Cup.

The little Richardson cup, a trophy, which each year goes to the champion Class B yacht in the inter-club races between the Crescent Yacht club, Watertown, N.Y., and the Kingston Yacht club of Kingston, Ont., will this year go to the Crescent club by reason of the defaulting of the Canadian organization, which is to send over no boat to compete. The reason given is that the Kingston club has no new R craft able to compete with the snappy fleet of R's in the C. Y. C.

Decorated Family Graves.

Mrs. James Dunlop, Kingston, a former Brockvillian, in the cemeteries there on Sunday placed handsome wreaths and sprays on the graves of seven of her deceased relatives, namely Mr. and Mrs. James Higgins, her parents; Mr. and Mrs. James Higgins, Jr., brother and sister-in-law; William Higgins, brother; Mrs. Elizabeth Rowledge, sister; Mrs. John Rathwell, aunt. While there for the Reunion Mrs. Dunlop is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James George.

Dr. Edwards and Quebec.

George G. H. Ray, Ottawa, writing in the Toronto Globe, says: "Questions are being asked why Dr. J. W. Edwards, Grand Master of the Orange Order, is not in the new Cabinet. He was in the former Meighen Government, and enjoys greater prestige with the Order today than ever. There must be some strong reason for overlooking Dr. Edwards, and I am informed that the real reason is that Mr. Patenaude declined to enter if Mr. Edwards was given rank. Quebec had to be coax- ed, and the great body of Orange Tories in Ontario are expected to swallow the dose and vote as of yore. How flattering!"

Visited Kingston.

Two grandchildren of the late James Morton, and Augustus Thibeau- deau paid Kingston, their old home, a short visit yesterday. They went to their homes yesterday after looking over some of the scenes of their childhood. They think Kingston is a beautiful city, and they intend to come here next summer and spend a few weeks. One is Miss M. Thibeau- deau, of Toronto, and the other her sister, Mrs. Philip Henrica of Chicago. They are children of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Thibeau- deau. Mr. Thibeau- deau practiced law here many years ago, and later in Winnipeg. Miss McCormick, 102 Centre street, is a cousin, and there are other relatives here. Mrs. Thibeau- deau, before her marriage was Miss Margaret Morton, well known to older Kingstontians.

Circus Stages Charleston. Contest. The contest will be held Friday night, July 23rd, in the big circus tent as an added attraction to the main circus performances. Charleston contests have been held by the Bob Morton Circus Co. in Hamilton, Brantford, St. Thomas and London and have created keen interest, as the public are the judges. This contest is open for twelve dances only. So all participants are required to leave their name and address as soon as possible at the circus headquarters, 208 Princess street. The loving cup to be presented by Mr. Leslie Smith of Smith Bros. jewelry store, is on display at the Kiwanis circus office. The Victor Graham Concert Band will furnish the music and to the tune of "Diana" the local exponents of the popular dance will be given an opportunity of "strutting their stuff."

Alleged Liquor Found In Raid On Hotel

As the result of a quantity of liquor being seized in a raid made on Woodruff's hotel, at Sydenham, by License Inspector William McCammon and his force, the proprietors of this hotel will appear in County Police Court before Magistrate J. W. Bradshaw on Wednesday morning to answer to charges laid under the O. T. A.
