CITY AND DISTRICT

Purchased a Residence. Dr. T. A. Renton has purchased and taken up residence in a fine new house on the corner of Alice and Albert streets.

To Be the D. D. G. M. It is understood that Mr. Alfred Carscallen, Enterprise, will be the D. D. G. M. elect for Kingston district, A.F. & A.M., for 1926-7.

Erect Frame Dwelling. T. J. Kenney has secured a permit at the office of the city engineer, for the erection of a frame dwelling on Elm street, between Chatham and Division street.

The Voters' List of 1925. It is not likely the lists of 1926 will be used in the coming election, the assessor not having them in shape until October. The lists of 1925 will be the ones used.

Visiting in Kingston. Rev. Harold C. Bradshaw, pastor at Fernwood, N.Y., president of the student body of the School of Theology, at Thousand Island Park is in Kingston, and will spend a week in visiting relatives.

Shad Flies Here. The shad flies made their annual raid on Kingston during Wednesday night, and as a result all the downtown buildings were decorated with the flies on Thursday morning.

Take New Position. Reginald G. Geen, son of Rev. A. L. Geen, Belleville, who for years has been organist of St. George's Anglican Church, Owen Sound, has accepted a similar position for St. George's Church, Guelph.

Had Quiet Day. Thursday was a quiet day in police court circles, as there were no cases to come before the magistrate. The police are issuing warnings to shopkeepers who have not taken out their license for the sale of cigarettes and tobacco.

Recovering From Operation. The many friends of Miss Vera Gorman, of Belleville, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Hotel Dieu, will be pleased to learn that she is making satisfactory progress towards recovery, and will likely be able to return to her home next week.

To Preach in Pittsburgh. Canon W. F. Fitzgerald of St. Paul's church is to preach in St. James', Pittsburgh, on Sunday evening, Kingston having daylight saving and Pittsburgh standard time, Canon Fitzgerald will be able to officiate at two services the same evening.

James Richardson and Sons. Adding to their long line of branches in the various cities in Canada, James Richardson and Sons, Ltd., have acquired the business of W. L. Craig Grain Company, of Vancouver, the transfer to take place on August 1st. Mr. Craig will be manager of the Vancouver branch.

On Motor Trip. Mr. F. H. Richardson, of Winnipeg, formerly steward at the R.C. H.A., a position he held for many years, was in the city today, renewing old acquaintances. He was accompanied by his wife and daughter, on a motor trip through to Montreal. They will visit New York and Philadelphia before returning home.

Holiday Visitors. Wesley Trousdale and wife, of Webster, N.Y., were the guests of his brother, Mr. William Trousdale, of Sydenham, for a week, and while there visited Mrs. Victor Mearl at Verona, and also enjoyed a fishing trip to Fourteen Island Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Trousdale left for home accompanied by Thomas Trousdale and Miss F. Vanrooster.

Is Growing Better. Friday last was Rev. Dr. D. R. Drummond's birthday. One of his visitors in the Montreal General Hospital that day was Rev. R. MacCrimmon, Almonte, an old friend of the Hamilton clergyman. He found Dr. Drummond improving and there is every expectation that he will make a complete recovery. Dr. Drummond is a native of Almonte and Ramsay, and a Queen's graduate.

Will Issue a Statement. It is understood, when the proper time arrives, that a statement will be issued by the Kingston Health Association in regard to the closing of the institution and its transferring, for cash payments, to the Ontario Government. It is also expected that the original contributors will have their subscriptions safeguarded. The association will be disbanded, but will help in philanthropic work as it has been doing for years.

Have Gone Up the Rideau. A distinguished party of United States magazine editors passed through here on Wednesday bound down the Rideau river. They were R. H. Davis, editor-in-chief of the Munsey Magazine; William T. Dewart, Jr., Thomas W. Dewart and Wallace French, writers. They are out for a fish. When at "Keoway-die," Alexandria Bay, they are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Dewart. Next week Mr. and Mrs. Dewart expect Irvin S. Cobb to join the party.

First Community Dance. The Market Square was crowded to the limit on Wednesday night for the first community dance of the season. The band of the P.W.O.R. elevated on large tables near the Island Market pealed forth merry dance music and the large crowd present enjoyed the evening immensely. There was a large number of interested spectators throughout the evening. The extra lighting for the occasion was supplied by the Utilities Commission.

Death of Mrs. George McLean. Tuesday evening the death occurred of a respected resident of Brockville, Mrs. George McLean. She had been ill for some months. Before her marriage the late Mrs. McLean was Miss Adella Wright, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wright. She was born at Lyn in 1847, and was, therefore seventy-nine years of age. One daughter survives. She belonged to the United Church.

Died in Ottawa. Mr. James Drake received a telegram on Thursday morning, announcing the death at Ottawa, on Wednesday, of his mother, Mrs. Catherine Drake. Deceased was eighty-four years of age, and was one of the oldest residents of the Capital, having lived there when it was known as By Town. The late Mrs. Drake is survived by two sons, James, of Kingston; William, of Ottawa; and one daughter, Mrs. Morgan, of Ottawa. The funeral will take place at Ottawa on Friday.

Mrs. William A. Cameron Dies. The death occurred in an Ottawa hospital on Tuesday of Catherine E. Dickson, wife of William A. Cameron, Renfrew. She had been ailing for some months, and had lately undergone an operation. With her husband there is left one daughter, Miss Dorion Cameron. Mrs. J. K. Meredith, Ottawa, and Mrs. Alexander Morris, Pembroke, are sisters, and the brothers are Ernest, Halifax, and Horace in the Canadian West. Mrs. Cameron was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Dickson, Castletford.

The Islander Is Sold. Captain Harold Bowman, Alexandria Bay, N.Y., has sold the charter boat, Islander, to A. G. Degarmo, Levonia, N.Y. The Islander was considered one of the finest touring boats at the Bay. The boat was formerly operated by Captain Claud Van Dresser and was purchased by Capt. Bowman this spring. The boat was put in a cradle and transported by auto truck to its destination. The Islander is the largest boat ever transported by truck thereabouts. The boat is forty-five feet long and eight foot beam and was loaded fully equipped with chairs and life preservers. The Islander is built of cedar with mahogany decks and mahogany permanent top. The engine is a 60 h. p. J. V. B. motor which drives her 20 miles per hour. Mr. Degarmo is going to put the boat in commission at Livonia for touring the lakes.
