PLAN A PILGRIMAGE

Historical Society Outing Or July 31-Will Explore Old Fort.

On July 31st the Jefferson County Historical Society, Watertown, N.Y., ployee of the Municipal Railways, visits Cape Vincent and Carleton Isamed by the French, Isle de Chevriaux, and later Anglicized into again and named in honor of an English General Carleton, the party will explore the old Fort Haldimand,

Cape Vincent as well as Carleton Island is a spot of no little historic interest and romantic color. It was at Cape Vincent that the Cup and sucer house was built as a home for Napoleon, a dream for the emperor which was never realized. The Cup and Saucer house is no longer standing but the site of what might have been Napoleon's home, is interesting for visitors. Cape Vincent was named for Vincent LeRay, son of M. Le-Ray who did so much to develop Jefrson county in the early French gime of the north wilderness, and it was here that he built the Stone louso for his son. Count Real who had been prefet of police under Na-poleon took up his residence at Cape Vincent where he waited in vain for his loved emperor.

Germany is parturbed by Chamberlin's statement that its position on disarmament is not satisfactory.
