Crop Report.

The Bank of Montreal crop report has the following:
In the Prairie Provinces extreme heat has prevailed for several days with very little rain, and crops, particularly on light land, have suffered. All crops are maturing rapidly. Cutting of winter wheat and rye has commenced in some localities. There has been practically no further damage from hail. In Quebec there is plenty of moisture and continued favourable weather has been helpful to all crops. In Ontario warm weather has prevailed during the past week with occasional showers and all growing crops have improved except in the southwestern section of the province where rain is badly needed. In the Maritime Provinces excellent growing conditions continue and all crops are doing well. In British Columbia all crops are in need of rain.

Alexandria Bay, fire in the house of Captain John M. Comstock, caused nearly $2,000 damage. The blaze is believed to have started when an oil water heater in the cellar exploded.

Tweddell star value sale ends tomorrow night. Takes advantage of it. A blaze in the laundry of the Thousand Island House, Alexandria Bay, N.Y., created alarm but it was speedily subdued.

BUILDING IS GOING AHEAD VERY RAPIDLY

Steel Workers to Start on Randolph Hotel—School Work Well Ahead.

Building in the city is progressing rapidly. All the larger jobs are expected to be finished before September. The new Randolph Hotel, being built on Bagot street, is coming along at a fine speed. The excavation is nearly completed, and the steel workers are here ready to begin their work. It is expected that they will start during next week. The work on the new Rideau and Louise schools is expected to be finished for the opening of school in September. The front wall of Louise school has been torn out and new large windows are being built in. The interior of the building is being greatly changed to accommodate the commercial department of the college. The new Rideau school is rapidly nearing completion, and will be entirely fitted up for the opening. The roof on the extension being built onto the Hotel Dieu hospital is finished and interior work is being completed.

DR. MICHAEL CLARK FORMER M.P. PASSES

Was Alberta Pioneer and Noted Orator and Low-Tariff Advocate.

Calgary, Alta., July 30.—The death of Dr. Michael Clark, former member of parliament, pioneer of Central Alberta, and prominent in the councils of the Liberal party, occurred at eight o'clock yesterday morning at the family residence near Oids, Alberta.

His death followed that of his wife, who died several weeks ago in a hospital in Calgary. Dr. Clark had been in failing health for a week. The funeral probably will be held Saturday.

Dr. Clark was a native of Northumberland, England, his father being an Englishman, his mother a Scotswoman. He was in his sixty-fifth year at the time of his death. He was educated at Elmfield college, York, and Edinburgh university where he graduated in medicine with the degree of M.D.C.M. Until he came out to Canada, in 1901, the doctor practised his profession in the north of England.

In 1882 he married Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late George Smith, Hamilton, Ontario. He started farming and ranching in Alberta about 1914. He was elected to the House of Commons in 1908 for the new electoral division of Red Deer as a Liberal. He was re-elected in 1911 and in 1917. In the 1917 election, at which conscription was the issue, Dr. Clark ran as a Liberal-Unionist. He was considered one of the leading orators of the House of Commons during the time he was a member. He was an ardent advocate of tariff reduction.

HAD RUBBING ALCOHOL IN HIS POSSESSION

Young Man Had Two Fines in the Police Court—Constable Stopped a Fight.

"Rubbing alcohol" is not "drinking alcohol," but some very thirsty people who are hard up for a drink, take a chance on it.

A young man who was placed under arrest on Thursday night, for being intoxicated, had a bottle of "rubbing alcohol" in his possession, and in addition to the usual fine of $10 and costs given to drunks, he was called on to pay a $50 fine for "having liquor in a place other than a private dwelling." A month in jail was the option in each case.

Walking along his beat in Clarence street Wednesday night, Constable McWilliams was just in time to spot a lively fight, taking place between two men. Fists were flying, and at the same time tongues were wagging. The fight was stopped, but the tongues continued to wag, and there was a good deal more talk when the case came before Magistrate Farrell on Friday morning, when the one alleged to have started the fight was fined $10 and costs.

The man fined claimed that the other man had been too intimate with his wife.

Another adjournment for a day, was made in the case of a young man, who was up for not paying his board bill. All he had to offer to the court was $2. This will be handed over to the boarding house keeper but the court will see that the bill is cleared off.

SPLENDID PROGRAMME AT A LAWN SOCIAL

Event Under Auspices of Sunshine Club of First Baptist Church.

A lawn social, under the auspices of the Sunshine Club of the First Baptist Church, was held Thursday evening, on the grounds of Mr. James Marshall, Albert street. The programme was a fine one, and was appreciated by all present. The Sunday School orchestra gave several good selections. The chairman of the event was Rev. M. C. Johnston. A fine recitation was given by James Marshall, and was well received. Solos by James Marshall, Miss Ivy Ostermole, Miss Hilda Calvin, and Norman Frost, were excellent. A novel whistling solo by Miss Hilda Friendship, could not have been better.

The candy and fancy-work tables realized a goodly sum for the funds. Refreshments were served by the ladies. The club was very thankful to Mr. and Mrs. James Marshall, for allowing them the use of their grounds for the social.

Joseph M. Hamilton, well-known resident of Alice township, died suddenly on Wednesday, at his residence, following a brief illness, aged sixty-three years.

There are probably from 30,000 to 40,000 earthquakes every year, but only 8,000 are recorded.

THORNTON DIVORCE CASE.

The Judge Who Signed Decree Gives Conclusions.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 30.—The divorce of Lady Thornton from Sir Henry Worth Thornton, President of the Canadian National Railways slipped through the Court of Common Pleas here with only a few friends knowing anything about it.

Lady Thornton, the former Virginia Dike Blair, of Newcastle, Pa., returned to her native state some two years ago and took up residence with friends in an apartment in Philadelphia. People at that time said her object in so doing was to qualify for taking divorce proceedings, but friends of the Thorntons always sought to discount such rumors.

But the divorce came and Sir Henry Thornton did not contest it.

The records of the proceedings are impounded by the court so that little is known concerning the evidence tendered by Lady Thornton and her daughter, Anna, aged twenty-two, who were the only two witnesses.

Lady Thornton was granted a divorce on grounds known in the Pennsylvania courts as "indignities to the person," explained Judge Frank Smith, who signed the decree. He added that the court was convinced that Sir Henry had grown tired of his wife, and had made it manifest.

Lady Smith explained that, under the statutes of Pennsylvania, "indignities to the person" included anything that would tend to the humiliation of a person and that would make life burdensome; something that would break the spirit.

"The evidence given by Lady Thornton and corroborated by her daughter, was that Sir Henry Thornton paid absolutely no attention to his wife," said Judge Smith. "He would stay away from home and never leave word where he was. He went away as often as he liked and where he liked, and Lady Thornton would never be told where her husband went."

"Sir Henry Thornton," continued the judge, "chose his own friends and ignored Lady Thornton and her friends. It was a case of a man who had grown tired of his wife and made it manifest."
