What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

AT THE CAPITOL.

Richard Dix and Lois Wilson in a Rollicking Comedy.

Advance reports tell us that Richard Dix's latest Paramount picture, "Let's Get Married," which arrives at the Capitol Theatre to-day, is good. They say it is a gay comedy that starts at sixty miles an hour and gets faster every foot.

We are asked to imagine rollicking Richard as a wild young man whose lovely fiancée threatens him with the gate if he gets into any more scrapes. Innocently, he is caught in a raid on a cabaret and sent to jail for thirty days. He tries, by means of letters, to convince her that he is selling hymn books to South Sea cannibals, and his tale almost works until—but then, you'd better see "Let's Get Married." In addition to this rollicking comedy, Sid Fox and his Serenaders will dispense the latest musical numbers.

AT PRINCESS STREET CHURCH

Special Programme of Music Was Rendered On Sunday Evening.

A programme of special music was given in the Princess Street United church on Sunday, as a mark of respect to Rev. J. A. Wadell, a former pastor of the church, who conducted the service.

The choir was under the direction of Mr. E. Madrand and the Junior Choir, under the direction of Mrs. L. M. Loney, assisted. In the morning the choir sang Fluogier's anthem, "How Long Will Thou Forget Me?" and Mrs. A. Archibald rendered very beautifully as a vocal solo "The Plains of Peace." A mixed quartet composed of Mrs. A. Archibald, Mrs. F. Rutherford, H. B. Wiskin and L. M. Loney gave a selection.

In the evening the anthem was Turner's "A Even Ere the Sun Was Set." Mr. A. E. Hunt gave Handel's "Largo" as a saxophone solo, and Mr. H. B. Wiskin sang "O Heart of Mine."

Blood-poisoning, following extraction of four teeth, caused the death at Windsor of William Jackson, aged twenty-seven.

PREACHED FAREWELL ST. GEORGE'S SUNDAY

Rev. W. E. Kidd Ministered for the Last Time at the Cathedral.

St. George's Cathedral held the largest summer congregations of the season on Sunday, when Rev. W. E. Kidd, M.A., M.C., ministered for the last time, as one of the cathedral clergy. At the 8 o'clock celebration of the Holy Communion, many of the younger members of the parish who had been prepared for confirmation by him were present. At the 11 o'clock service and at evensong, the congregations were large. At matins, Mr. Kidd preached from the text: "I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase." "Among the many things St. Paul has given us is the Catholic idea of the church of God, the church for all time stretching back to the beginning and reaching forward to the future. It is in the progression of time that tradition is formed."

Mr. Kidd referred more especially to the parish of St. George's, formed in the early days of Kingston, one hundred and forty-two years ago. The church was unique in its history, which was interwoven with the history of the town and the country. He was proud to have been enrolled as one of its clergy, men of vision, men of service they had been. The late Dean Buxton B. Smith had a great vision when he had re-built the cathedral. He felt that when it was at last consecrated, free from debt, the men and women who had served it so well and had maintained its traditions, rejoiced in paradise. It is not alone by the ministry of the clergy that tradition is made, it is by the service and devotion of the members of the parish. The speaker referred to the splendid co-operation of all the societies of the cathedral parish. He spoke also of the services of the cathedral, always devotional and when occasion demanded it, brilliant. "No better testimony to the large part the musical services of this cathedral church have had in the hearts of the worshippers could be had than in the letters we received from all parts of the empire during the centenary campaign which invariably referred to the beauty and appeal of the cathedral services."

In closing, Mr. Kidd thanked the congregation for their many expressions of affection to him and his family, and bespoke the same loyalty for his successors. He prayed that God's blessing would rest on the church and the congregation.

Rev. Mr. Kidd referred to the two tragic deaths in the parish within the last few weeks. Mr. W. H. Smith had recently become identified with the cathedral congregation, and had shown great interest in the church. The late Mr. W. J. B. White and his family were among the most active workers. Mr. White had been a lay member of the Synod of Ontario for an outside parish. The sympathy and the prayers of the congregation went out to the bereaved families in their sad loss. During the offertory, Mr. R. F. Harvey played "Blest are the Departed" (Sphor), and at the conclusion of the service the people remained standing, while Beethoven's funeral march was played on the organ.

Chalmers Church Services.

Chalmers church had big audiences on Sunday to hear Rev. G. A. Sisco, Rensfrew, a Queen's graduate, and a speaker of undoubted ability, of keen apprehension and logical investigation. He has a fine address, a wide vocabulary and an absorbing personality. Kingstonians are always delighted with his modern conceptions, his analytical mind and his manner of presenting truths. Miss Catherine Wright was the soloist and her selections and manner of interpretation won favor.

KINGSTON WON AT PETERBORO

Good Base Running and Timely Hitting Gave Locals the Verdict.

(Special to The British Whig.)

Peterboro, Aug. 9.—Making every hit count, Kingston Pioneers defeated Peterboro here Saturday 7-4, although out-hit 13 to 10. The losers had twelve men left on the bases, and this was the immediate cause of their defeat, as the winners bunched their hits and had only four men left on. Six of the ten Kingston hits were crammed into the sixth inning, when every man batted, and the score was changed from a deficit of 4-1 to a favorable balance of 6-4. Another run in the seventh made it 7-4, and there it was held despite the efforts of the Petes to tie the score.

Cairns and Heckman were the opposing pitchers. The Kingston hurler seemed invincible with men on bases, although touched for at least one hit in eight of the nine innings. Heckman kept the Pioneers off the paths altogether in five innings, but when they did get on more hits were forthcoming to send them right around to score.

Thompson pulled the feature play of the game when he took Jim Hall's long drive while running with his back towards the plate. "A fine stop" by Holson of Teopoll's drive was another fielding feature. Every man on the Peterboro team had at least one hit. Heckman leading with three, Cherry, with the same number, led the Kingston batters, while Purvis and Britton were the only ones to go hitless. Manager Daley, of the visitors, was chased in the ninth for kicking too strenuously about a called ball.

PRIZES PRESENTED TO THE SUPREMES

Pleasing Event Was Held at A.O.H. Hall on Sunday Afternoon.

A very pleasing event took place in the A.O.H. hall on Sunday afternoon when the prizes, won at the A.O.H. picnic, on Civic Holiday by the Supremes, were presented to the members of the team by Dr. Edward Ryan, who also gave a short but comprehensive talk on the growth of softball and its popularity among the girls now.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. John Scanlon and there was a very large attendance of members of the A.O.H., the members of the Supremes and their friends and representatives of the Mercantile League. The young ladies who received the prizes were Misses Doris Allen, Helen Pappas, Eva Truesdell, Florence Sinclair, May Powell, Peggy Campbell, Maud Sinclair, Dora Pappas, Edith Davies and Betty Stein. Miss Helen Pappas was also presented with the prize for the tug of war at the A.O.H. picnic.

In making his address to the girls, Dr. Ryan said: "I have always wondered why baseball should have been for so long confined to the boys," said Dr. Ryan in his brief but comprehensive address. "I am glad that the game has been opened to the girls. The sport itself will be improved now that the young women have entered it, and participation in it will benefit you physically, morally and intellectually. You cannot help but benefit from a proper amount of it. You have done well this year, and I assure it is only a beginning for you. One of the big things in the sport is to play the game, play it for the sport's sake, play to win, but play fairly, and you cannot help but be the better for it in every way."

Dr. Ryan paid a high tribute to the important part sports of all kinds had in forming the character of the individual and added many words of encouragement and congratulation to the young ladies as he handed them the trophies.

Mr. Harry Watts, manager of the Supremes, thanked the A.O.H. on behalf of the team, for the handsome trophies, and for the thoughtfulness and kindness of the members toward the players and for the arrangements made for the competitions at the picnic.

Mrs. Wilson, president of the Ladies' Softball League, added a few words of appreciation for the beautiful trophies and of congratulation to the girls for their work during the season.

Mrs. Walker, a member of the executive of the Supremes, also spoke briefly in appreciation of the good work done by the team throughout the season and of the beautiful trophies.

Smith came from third place three strokes behind the leaders at the fifty-fourth hole to three strokes in front of his nearest rival at the end. The victory was a very popular one. Farrell dropped eleven strokes to the new champion on the final eighteen holes, while Gene Sarazen, who was setting the pace with Farrell, at the three-quarter mark, dropped six.

Women to Compete.

London, Aug. 9.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Graphic says that women will compete in the Olympic Games for the first time at the 1928 games. This, according to the correspondent, was decided upon by the International Amateur Athletic Federation Congress, meeting at Amsterdam.

Enterprise Girls Playing Good Ball

Enterprise, Aug. 9.—The Enterprise girls finished up a very lively week on Saturday, and it was a successful one too. On Tuesday evening they played against the Tanworth girls and won the game and on Wednesday evening, they were beaten by the Kingston Treasures by 17-12.

The Treasures were lost in this game for the last seven innings. Being determined to hold their own, they tried to pull plays on the base umpire but he was right on his job. The Treasures learned very quickly that their tricks couldn't be worked. This of course caused some harsh criticism from some of the players, who were told plainly by the base umpire that if anything of that sort was heard again he would send the girl giving the offence to the bench. The base umpire was also criticized by a good many Kingstonians for not pulling his players out of the game and leaving the "Lost Treasures" to play by themselves. But these things seem to all go with the game and as the last seven innings looked as though Enterprise had the superior team the fans felt quite pleased. Enterprise girls also played on the following Thursday evening against the Camden East soft ball team the game being called at the sixth innings on account of darkness the score being 31-3 in favor of Enterprise.

The score by innings:

Enterprise . . . . . 5 2 6 6 9—31

Camden East . . . . . 0 2 0 1 1—8

PAYS WARM TRIBUTE TO LATE MR. BOIVIN

Mr. King Says He Placed His Life as Sacrifice on Altar of Country.

Saskatoon, Aug. 7.—"I have only this to say of Hon. Mr. Boivin, that he died as he lived, placing his life as a sacrifice on the altar of his country," said Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King here Saturday night, in the course of his campaign meeting. Liberal leader dealt with charges which had been made against the late Minister of Customs during the last session of parliament, referring to them as "one of the most vicious attacks ever brought against the character of a public man." Mr. King quoted the words of Mr. Boivin's defense in the house in June, and suggested the people of Canada of their debt to men in public life.

The completion of the Hudson Bay railway and construction of terminal facilities, "in order to give the road a fair chance," were part of the Liberal party policy, said Hon. Mr. King. For the good of the National Railways, Department of Railways and Canals should be under the direction of Hon. Charles Dunning, who was as able an administrator as had ever controlled this department of government, he added. Mr. King spoke of the day as being "sort of birthday," as it was seven years since he entered with great humility upon leadership of the Liberal party. "I feel at no time," he continued, "in the history of Canada, has the Liberal party been more united from the Atlantic to the Pacific." The unity of the country itself has been demonstrated at the last session of parliament by the working together of the Liberals from Saskatchewan, with those of Quebec.

Steamer Lost; Five of Crew Were Drowned

Hull, Aug. 7.—Various messages, giving conflicting details of the disaster received here last night, told of the loss of the Norwegian steamer Ringhorn, with five members of the crew, off Scatarie Island, Cape Breton, Saturday night. Vessel struck during severe storm, which was accompanied by fog, while nearing the entrance of Louisbourg harbor. She sailed from Portland, Maine, on July 21st.

AGED MAN GALLANT RESCUE

Toronto, Aug. 7.—Diving fully clothed into a narrow space of water between the boat and the wharf, Capt. G. McCormick, master of the ferry boat, "Luella," despite his seventy-three years, saved a woman from drowning after she had slipped from a gang plank while leaving the ferry boat. He held her head above water until others threw a rope to him, and pulled her over and rescued out of the water.
