AN ATHENS BOY WHO HAS MADE GOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Campo and Son, Howard, Are Visiting Father's Old Home.

Athens, Aug. 11.—Touring leisurely from New York in their comfortable sedan, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Campo, and their son, Howard, and their brother-in-law, J. H. H. Jr., Brooklyn, arrived here a few days ago, on a visit to Mr. Campo's brother, Richard, the genial proprietor of "Dick's Bazaar." It is some thirty years ago that, as a boy, Ollie Campo left the town, to make his fortune in the great world outside, and though he has met with keen competition, yet he has made good, and acquired a competency which speaks volumes for his energy and enterprise. He found scope for his activities in the fish business, and at present, is interested in one of the largest concerns in Fulton market. Some idea of the extent of the business transacted in that market may be imagined, when it is stated that from five hundred to one thousand barrels of fish, daily, are handled there, each barrel containing two hundred pounds. Canada is contributing her quota toward feeding the millions of that great city, various species of the fishy tribe being supplied.

The party selected a circuitous route for their motor-trip, covering a distance of about a thousand miles, and finding the country through which they passed, to be in a very prosperous condition, with indications of an abundant harvest. En route home, they purpose visiting Toronto, Niagara Falls, and other points of interest. Miss Alma Wait, Addison, is substituting in the local telephone exchange, while the operator, Miss Marion Hollingsworth, is holidaying for a month at Camp Restalote, Charleston Lake, with Mrs. Peterson and Miss Beatrice. On Wednesday last, Camp Vega team, Charleston Lake, came up for a baseball match on the athletic grounds here, the visitors carrying off the honors of the day, winning by a score of 4 to 3. On Thursday last, a sale of live stock took place at the farm of Mrs. A. Bostel.

At the August meeting of the W. M. S., last Thursday, Miss Berlina Green, who recently returned from Africa, gave another of her interesting addresses, speaking upon that occasion, of the progress of the gospel in the Orient. To make her remarks more realistic, she donned the costume adopted by the people of Egypt, where she has been engaged in teaching in a mission school, and explained many usages and customs of this interesting race. She brought many specimens of their handwork, many beautiful embroideries and lace being exhibited.

So much did those in attendance enjoy the "barn dance" sponsored by Percy Whitmore, Sheldon's Corners, on the evening of the 30th ult., that they requested him to repeat the affair. He acquiesced, and opened his new barn for a similar event last Friday evening, which proved very successful. Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Middleton, Hamilton, for many years residents of this place, are renewing acquaintances here, guests of the latter's brothers and sister, Messrs. Ephraim and Philip Robeson, and Mrs. Herbert Stephenson, and other friends. The older citizens recall Mr. Middleton, as a former partner of James Gordon, in the Athens Woollen Mill, and as a genial friend and neighbor. To-day (Monday) Mr. and Mrs. Philip Robeson are entertaining in their honor, when there is to be a large family gathering, friends coming from various outside points, as well as those residing here, and in this vicinity.

Following the death of his mother, the late Mrs. Sterns Knowlton, Omer Knowlton has been disposing of part of the household effects by private sale, the remainder of the effects to be sold as being disposed of to-morrow by auction. Miss Caroline La Rose, for many years matron of the Galt Hospital, is enjoying a well-earned rest, a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Parish.

Mrs. Mansell Weatherhead, Toledo, who has been remaining for a time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Seymour, following an operation for mastoid, has not been as well as her friends could wish, and returned to-day to the hospital at Kingston. Word has been received of the funeral at Kingston, of Miss Mabel Stewart, for many years an Athenian during her childhood, when living here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stewart, now of Brockville. Miss Stewart was a most successful nurse, being connected for some years with the Bellevue Hospital, New York. But her strenuous work undermined her constitution, and for several years she has been obliged to take her work less seriously, and get from the activities which she loved so well. But even a rest did not restore her accustomed health, and she gradually declined, until the end came last week. The remains were conveyed to Kingston, to the home of her sister, Mrs. Harold Anseley, where the obsequies were held on Thursday the 5th inst. Many here will regret her early passing, as being a bright, lovable girl, she made many friends during her residence in our midst.

While cranking a car, one evening last week, Gerald Vandenburg, who has been assisting Gordon Mitchell, Frankville, during a hay-cut, severely injured his arm. Mrs. G. E. Judson entertained on Saturday evening at Camp Lookout, Charleston Lake, in honor of the twenty-first birthday of her son, Lyman, undertaker and furniture dealer of this place.

Holidaying in a Land of Lakes.

Few spots on the globe can boast the diversity of appeal to the vacationist, of Ontario's great green playground. Here, in places you can catch hazy, highly-coloured trout, gamey bass, savage, deep-fighting muskies, and eight-end-ten pound pike; you indulge in your favorite sport, live in fannels or overalls, do the things you like to do—snooze around through a network of lake, land and wilderness, sleep under canvas, in secluded cottages, or luxurious summer hotels with tennis courts, golf courses with velvet fairways hewn through virgin forest, bathing beaches and open air dance pavilions at the lake's edge. Paddle, swim, ride horseback—or just loaf and get a tan. You can choose Georgian Bay, Lake Huron's far-flung sandy shores, balsam-edged Kewartha Lakes, virgin lake-dotted Timagami, or the slightly more settled shores of the inimitable lake of Bays and Muskoka Lake district. Wherever you go in this vast expanse of alluring summerland you enjoy sunny days that sing with joy and freedom—cool nights that rest you for the morrow's fun.

Additional dredging is to be done in the Ottawa river at Pembroke about the new dock and some 18,000 cubic yards of material removed. Silt from the Muskara river deposited in the vicinity of the ferry slip have resulted in landing operations being made very difficult. W. Birmingham & Son, will commence the additional dredging almost immediately.

Bass Fishing at Its Best.

At Cape Vincent, N.Y., bass fishing is now at its best, and anglers are finding but little trouble in catching the limit. About thirty parties are leaving the Hotel Carlton dock each day. Eight disciples of Isaak Walton found that they had caught the limit of bass last Sunday, one of them reaching the limit in one hour's fishing.

Lanark County Tax Arrears.

Tax arrears in the county of Lanark are apparently causing concern to the authorities. Almost one hundred properties are being advertised for sale the greatest amount of taxes due on any one property is $158.39, but on the majority of properties the arrears are small and a great deal of it is quite unnecessary.
