MISS TAYLOR WON IN SPECTACULAR MATCH

Defeated Miss Macphail for Singles Championship Kingston Tennis Club.

The long-awaited match between Miss K. Macphail and Miss Taylor of the Kingston Tennis Club, for the ladies' singles championship was played on Monday afternoon and was won by Miss Taylor by the score of 6-2, 6-1. Had it been known that these players were to play off the final Monday afternoon, there would have been a larger gallery, for great interest was centred in this section of the Kingston Tennis Club tournament.

Although defeated, Miss Macphail made many brilliant shots and deserved a better fate than the scores she got. She retrieved the ball many times at the back line when it seemed impossible for her to come near it and her returns after tricky shots had been sent over by Miss Taylor were at times very spectacular.

Of the two, Miss Taylor was much the cooler player and to this fact can be accounted much for the success of her victory. In the first set Miss Taylor took the first game but the next three were taken by Miss Macphail but then she faltered and Miss Taylor swept into the lead.

In the second set Miss Macphail was over anxious in her service and several times she committed double faults which, of course, gave her opponent big leeway. Miss Taylor showed better control in the second set and her shots were more deadly and more difficult for Miss Macphail to handle.

With the score 5-1 for Miss Taylor in the second set, Miss Macphail made a better stand and threatened to make a comeback. The sixth game of the set that made the score 5-1 was a particularly exciting finish and in the last game, which gave Miss Taylor the set, 6-1, Miss Macphail made a stand but Miss Taylor came through again and gathered in the necessary points to give her the game and set.

It was an exciting contest although the first set was much more interesting than the second. Miss Taylor, by her victory, won the ladies' singles championship of the Kingston Tennis Club.

WHY NOT LIGHT UP LAWN TENNIS COURTS?

In This Way Local Players Could Enjoy More of This Sport.

It would seem that the question might very properly be asked, why not light up tennis courts at night in the same way that bowling greens are lighted up? In this way it would be possible to play for two or three more hours or for that matter during the whole twenty-four hours of the day, if anyone wished.

Hockey, bowling and curling are nearly always played under artificial light, and there seems to be no logical reason in the world why tennis should not enjoy equal advantages. It is possible that the day will come when rugby football games are played under the glare of powerful light, but the handling of high flies will make any such innovation impossible in the case of baseball. At any rate, tennis players who have only a comparatively small space to light up, should begin wondering why they should finish a game in gloom so dense that it is practically impossible to see the ball, while perhaps only a few hundred feet from them, bowlers really don't get into the game until after the sun has gone down.

SPORTING NOTES AND COMMENT

The fans who witnessed the game Monday evening, are of the opinion that the City Midgets will give the Ottawa team a good run in the play-offs. They put up a husky defence against the stronger, Victorias, and were on the go all the time.

The Dark Horses are making fine progress, under the careful coaching of Howard Reid, who took over the team recently. Howard is strong on team play and the effect of his work is very noticeable in the playing of the young champions. It was the combination working of the team as a whole, that nearly won the game for them.

The financial report of the game last night shows that the response was not up to expectations. The crowd was a large one, and if all had helped, the results would have been satisfactory.

Frontenac Regiment received a rude awakening, when they were badly beaten by the Tile-workers last night. They have been loafing on the job, and now they will have to "pep it up" in order to be in condition for the game with Peterboro this Saturday.

The golfers are having a big season. The competition for the beautiful British Consols Trophy will be played Wednesday, at the Cataract Golf and Country Club. Numerous Eastern Ontario Clubs will be represented at the event, which promises to be very interesting. The battle will start at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, playing 18 holes before noon, and 18 holes after noon. The golfers also like the social side of life, and a dance will be held in the evening, for visiting clubs and local members.

George Burns, of Cleveland, has an excellent chance to hang up a new major league record for two-baggers in a single season. In the first 100 games Burns pushed out 44. He needs but 26 more to beat Speaker's high mark established in 1923.

Losing more games than you win, but still leading your league in effectiveness is something a bit out of the ordinary in the major leagues. Yet that's just the experience that came Stanley Coveleskie's way in 1923. That season Covey while hurling for Cleveland won 13 tilts, losing 14 for a percentage of .481. Obviously, in the won and lost column he ranked far down the list. In effectiveness, however, the former Speakerite topped the field. He worked 33 games allowing but 2.76 earned runs per fracas.

It looks like Hazen Cuyler, Pirate star, may this season realize his ambition to lead the National League in base stealing. Cuyler during the past few weeks has been piling up his count. In 1924 and 1925 he finished second to Carey, his teammate.

Fleiding H. "Hurry Up" Yost, veteran football coach at the University of Michigan, has entered the movie field. Yost is directing the gridiron scenes in Richard Dix's new picture, "The Quarterback." His duties will cover a period of three weeks, with scenes being shot on Long Island.

VICTORIAS WON GAME WITH DARK HORSES

Defeated Midget League Team By a Score of 5 to 4.

In the exhibition game between the Dark Horses, of the Midget League, and the Victorias, of the Junior League, at the Cricket Field, Monday evening, the Juniors had a stiff game to win by the score of 5-4, the Midget champions "showing them up" in many parts of the game.

The playing of both teams was commendable, but the Midgets being the younger and less experienced players, drew the attention of the fans more than did the playing of the other boys. The Vics, however, can play far better than they did last night, and if they expect to go far in the play-offs they will need to improve considerably.

The younger team started the game going, getting their first run in the second inning, and holding the Vics down until the third, when they let them up for three runs. They immediately came back with two more runs, however, to tie the game. With Quigley on third, Elliott knocked a three-bagger, scoring Quigley and later coming in himself.

A mistake occurred in the fourth, on the part of the Dark Horses, when with two out, they walked in, thinking the inning was over, and Gray trotted in for a run. The Vics got another run in the sixth inning, putting them two ahead of the Midgets. In the sixth, Elliott on second, put across a nice double play, unaided. The Midgets finally managed to drag in another run in the eighth, bringing the score up a little closer, but the game was called as it was getting too dark to play.

SOFTBALL!

Brockville "Nomads" vs. Frontenac Reg't.

Wednesday, 6.45 p.m. Cricket Field

The work of Steve Amey, behind the plate for the Dark Horses, was very good. He had a nice throw to second base, which helped a great deal. He injured his finger in the seventh, and was replaced by Gratton, who also showed some good playing. Young Matheson, pitching for the Midgets, had the older players guessing for quite a while. He slackened in the fourth inning, but immediately caught up again, and held them down till the end of the game. The team work to back the pitcher was especially noted, and this will go far to win the games for them in the play-offs. If they can show the class at Ottawa that they had last night, they are sure of getting somewhere. They need financial support to play at these outside places, and it is up to the fans, who enjoy seeing them play, to help. The teams: Dark Horses—Robinson, 1b; Bews, lf; Quigley, cf; Elliott, 2b; McKee, ss; Quinn, 3b; Gratton, c; Edgar, rf; Boyd, 2b; Pennock, c; Gray, rf; Stone, 1b; M. Gibson, ss; Donnelly, p (replaced by Albertson in sixth).

The score by innings: Dark Horses01020001—4
Victorias00310100—5
The umpires were, Twigg at the plate; Smith on the bases.
