IS DOCTOR ROSS TYPE TO REPRESENT CITY?

Look Within His Own Party. Dr. Ross' own personal organ The Kingston Standard has declared for a clean campaign and has itself set a most excellent example in that respect. But evidently what Dr. Ross is trying to incite is a campaign of slander and abuse. When Dr. Ross undertakes to vilify the Liberals and Progressives of this country he is treading on dangerous ground. Let him look within the ranks of his own party and do a little cleaning there.

What About Patenaude? When Dr. Ross undertakes to tell the people of Canada that "every group outside of the Conservative party was leaning to sever themselves from the Empire," he is stating something that is absolutely untrue. Neither the Liberals, the Progressives nor the Labor party have any desire to separate from the British Empire, and in his heart Dr. Ross must know this. But there are men in Dr. Ross' own party who, if they are not leaning towards severance from the British Empire, are certainly not very anxious to aid it. In 1917 Mr. Patenaude tried to prevent sending more troops to the front. Mr. Patenaude during the 1925 election campaign, said: "I am not ready to admit that when Britain goes to war Canada should necessarily go to war. Canada remains and should remain, mistress of her own participation."

Speaking recently at St. Laurent, Que., as reported by the Montreal Gazette, Mr. Patenaude boasted that he had won Mr. Meighen over to his Nationalist way of thinking, and that the policy laid down in his Hamilton and Bagot speeches was now part of the charter of the Conservative party. Is Mr. Mackenzie, the new Minister of Railways helping the Empire very much when (as he admitted in the House of Commons) he sails ships chartered by his company under the Swedish flag. Were Mr. DeWitt Foster and Mr. W. F. Garland doing things to help the British Empire, when they were so conducting themselves during the war that they had to be read out of the Conservative party by Sir Robert Borden.

What About Annexation? Or if it is annexation Dr. Ross is afraid of, he should read the history of that movement, at the only time that it seriously menaced Canada in 1849, and he will find that one of the leading spirits in the movement was Hon. J. C. Abbott, a prominent Conservative, and afterwards Conservative Premier of Canada.

The Governor-General. Or possibly it is the status of the Governor-General that Dr. Ross is worrying about. Possibly he thinks that the throne is tottering because Mr. Mackenzie King objects to Mr. Meighen wrongly advising the Governor-General. When Tory politicians are working themselves up into a fury of indignation and talking about endangering our British connection, because some criticism has been offered of the Governor-General's action, let them also tell their audiences of the disgraceful happenings in Montreal when because Lord Elgin, the Governor-General signed a bill to redeem the losses suffered by certain parties during the rebellion, the Tories pelled him with stones and rotten eggs and burned down the Parliament buildings. Was the British connection in danger then? If so who endangered it?

Looks Like a Dirty Campaign. It begins to look as though, lacking a policy, the Conservative candidates were going to resort to a campaign of vilification and abuse. We have heard the Doucet outburst about the Margaret, and the Nicholson outburst about the Ottawa civil service. Both men made their slanderous statements in the presence of the Prime Minister, yet not a word of reprimand did he utter. And now we find that the Margaret was used for political cruises by Mr. Meighen in 1921. What might Dr. Ross think of that? Both Mr. Doucet and Mr. Nicholson claim to have been misquoted. Dr. Ross' fellow-citizens, who do not see eye to eye with him politically, will be interested in hearing whether or not he will claim the same thing in regard to his Belleville speech, in which he classes all who do not follow Mr. Meighen, with Communists and bootleggers, and brands them as a destructive, degrading, un-Canadian, crowd, who are trying to sever themselves from the British Empire.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE NAPANEE FAIR. St. Pats Defeats Kingston Supremes at Softball—Country Club Dance. Napanee, Aug. 21.—Extensive repairs have been made at the Palace in preparation for the Napanee Fair next week. Some fifty feet has been added to the grandstand, and the poultry house enlarged, and other needed repairs completed, which will add very materially to the already well equipped building. On Wednesday afternoon the orchestra of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church held a picnic to Cedar Nook, near Bath. In the afternoon ball games and races were enjoyed, and a dainty lunch was served, after which the orchestra left for Sandhurst, where a lawn social was held on Thomas Mennon's lawn at Sandhurst. An interesting game of softball was played on the Collegiate grounds on Friday evening between the Supremes, of Kingston, and St. Pats, of Napanee. The game resulted in a score of 16 to 10 in favor of St. Pats. On Friday evening a number of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Smith and Miss Westcott, of South Napanee, met at their home to bid them farewell before their departure for Toronto, where Mr. and Mrs. Smith are removing shortly. Mr. and Mrs. Smith was presented with a purse of gold. Miss Westcott was also kindly remembered. On Thursday evening the Napanee Golf and Country Club held an informal dance in the new club house. A large number of members and Walter's seven-piece orchestra provided a splendid programme of dance music. Word was received on Monday that Capt. Douglas Ham, son of J. S. Ham, Napanee, was seriously ill of steric fever at Dera Ismail Khan, India. John Wilber Jenkins, of New York City, arrived in Napanee on Tuesday, and is the guest of Mrs. F. E. VanLaven, John street. Miss M. L. Allingham, who has been spending the past ten days in Watertown, N.Y., with her sister, Mrs. W. Hyland, returned on Wednesday. The excursion on Thursday to Glenora, Glen Island and Picton by the steamer Brockville, was well attended by the residents of Napanee. Ralph Black, of the Dominion Bank staff, is spending his holidays at Oak Lake, Strirling. Miss Helen Marsh and Miss Irene Embury spent last week in New
