Are you among the many experienced vacationists who are hunting for a place to have a "back to nature" holiday—where you can loaf around in your old clothes and "once white" running shoes—where you have to do nothing but rest and "soak up" the sunshine. For that kind of a vacation there's no finer place than the Muskoka Lakes. Bring along your bathing suit, your tennis racket, your golf clubs and your dancing foot. You'll want to use them all. Comfortable accommodation may be arranged at over seventy hotels, large and small to suit your pocket book. There are three routes to Muskoka Lakes—Canadian National to Muskoka Wharf, Bala Park or Lake Joseph Wharf. Write J. P. Hanley, agent of the Canadian National Railways, Kingston, Ont., for illustrated literature and full information—rates, hotels, etc. Fell Into Hold. St. Catharines, Aug. 23.—Joseph Cushman, an employee of the Ontario Paper Mill, Thorold, died shortly after admission to the General Hospital Friday last from injuries received when he fell into the hold of a scow from which he was helping to unload a cargo of sulphur for the mill.

Picton, Aug. 23.—The Prince Edward Country Plowmen will hold their annual match on Oct. 18th, but the farm has not as yet been decided upon. However, it was decided to have it somewhere in the vicinity of Boomfield. There will be twenty-three classes with generous prizes for each class. A plowmen's banquet will be held in the evening, at which the distribution of prizes will take place and addresses will be delivered. Hon. Vincent Massey and W. G. W. and Mrs. Weese on Aug. 14th, when their daughter, Grace, became the bride of Albert L. Kuehner, M.A., science lecturer, Bishop's University, Lennoxville, Que. The ceremony was performed by the bride's brother, assisted by Rev. R. W. Street, a brother-in-law, in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the family. W. A. Her cousin, Mrs. Tireman, accompanied her and spent a few days the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Moxon. Frederick Phillips, of Buffalo, N.Y., who, with his family, is holidaying in the county, was the soloist at Picton United Church on Sunday evening last.
