Fine Crop of Grain. Storm's Corners, Aug. 21.—Rain is very much needed in this section. Farmers are harvesting their grain, and report fine crops. Mr. Grover Cleveland, Albany, New York, is at Mrs. J. E. Storm's. L. B. Bateman, Parkham, spent a few days visiting friends at Kingston, Seely's Bay, Athens, Lake Okeida, Portland and Westport. Mr. Smeathers, Odessa baker, passes through here three times a week. B. Asselstine and family, British Columbia, are spending a couple of weeks with his mother, Mrs. Bell Asselstine and other relatives. Mr. Asselstine and family, St. Catharines, are at R. Asselstine's. The many friends of Mrs. Harriet are pleased to know she is gaining nicely after her illness. Roy Gallagher and family, after spending two months here, visiting old friends, have returned to their home at Saskatoon, Sask.

FIGHTS CALLES

This is the Most Rev. Mora Y Del Rio, Archbishop of the Roman Catholic Church in Mexico, who has ordered all church services suspended because of the dispute with the Calles Government.

The Constitutional Crisis

The constitutional issue is pure political buncombe, designed to divert attention from the King Government's administration of the Customs Department, upon which issue it was ignominiously defeated in the House of Commons.

Here are the vital stubborn facts:

- 1 In September, 1925, Mr. King was granted dissolution by His Excellency Lord Byng, on the representation that he must be given a chance to secure a clear working majority. He stated at Richmond Hill that if such a majority was not forthcoming, he would not attempt to carry on.
- 2 In the old Parliament thus dissolved there had been 234 members, of whom 117 were Liberals, 66 were Progressives or Independents and 51 were Conservatives.
- 3 In the new Parliament, elected in October, 1925, Mr. Meighen had by far the largest group—almost half the total membership of the House. Out of 245 seats the Conservatives had 116, the Liberals 101, the Progressives 24, Labour 2, and Independents 2.
- 4 Instead of immediately resigning, as he should have done in view of the ground upon which he had been granted dissolution, Mr. King asked for and was granted leave to carry on, on the assurance that he would leave the fate of his administration to Parliament itself.
- 5 On Friday, June 25th, three separate motions by so-called independents, in support of which Mr. King's Government marshalled its last ounce of strength, were decisively defeated and the original motion of censure, to which the foregoing had been moved in amendment, was still awaiting decision in Parliament when Mr. King asked His Excellency for dissolution on Monday, June 28th.
- 6 To have granted Mr. King a dissolution under such circumstances would have been a direct denial of the right of Parliament to pass upon the vote of censure then pending.
- 7 Following Mr. King's resignation, Parliament by a majority of 10 did actually adopt a direct vote of censure on the King Government, and declared it unworthy of confidence or office.
- 8 It was Mr. King's refusal to follow British precedent in co-operating with the incoming administration to pass supplies and complete the sessional programme that left Mr. Meighen no alternative but to ask for dissolution.
- 9 Mr. Meighen followed the same course as that adopted by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1911, when he saw that it was impossible to carry on and abruptly dissolved Parliament.
- 10 If His Excellency had recalled Mr. King to office, he would have done so in the very face of Parliament's vote of censure.
- 11 Under Mr. King's interpretation of the constitution a Premier need never resign, but could demand dissolution after dissolution, despite the verdict of Parliament or the electorate, and the Governor General must perforce accept his advice.

This is the story. It calls for no comment—it speaks for itself!

The Conservative Party stands solid as a rock for sound British constitutional practice, the maintenance of the British connection, and the right of Canada to enjoy the blessings of stable Government.

FULL GRANARIES.

Is the News From the Kepler Section. Kepler, August 21.—Harvesting grain is the chief occupation of the farmer. There is every prospect of full granaries this year. E. Donnell and wife, and R. D. Wortman and family attended the picnic at Bedford Mills on Aug. 12th. The Girls' Club of Kepler, which includes the softball team, went on the excursion down the river last Saturday. Among those camping on the lake here are Dr. H. Hunter and family. Dr. Hunter was a former Kepler boy, and is now a prominent New York physician. Victor Coglen, Regina, Sask., another former Kepler boy, is visiting at his uncle's, Newton Orser's. W. Orser and family visited Perth Road friends recently. Misses Marjorie and Geraldine Johnston are visiting their aunt, Mrs. John Wartman, Newburg. Miss Jean Ardukes, Elginburg, is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. H. M. Johnston. Stephen Knight received the unpleasant news that his sister, Mrs. (Rev.) Parsons, Colorado, is seriously ill.

The Alga Mission Band met today at the home of Mrs. T. Garret. Reginald Garret left for the West this week on the harvest excursion. Kansas City robbers pulled a man's gold tooth. Moral: Shit up.
