Who Will Compete at Household Science Event at Ottawa. Miss Rose Hopkins of the Department of Agriculture is spending a few days in town and on Monday and again today gave the girls of the Junior Institutes of Frontenac a short course that will enable them to, it is hoped, successfully compete in the girls household science judging competition at Ottawa, where some of them went today, and at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto where a team of girls from eighteen to twenty-six years of age will go from Frontenac to compete with many other teams of the same age from all over the dominion. Miss Hopkins shows them the qualities to be considered in home made bread, in school lunches, in family menus, in house dresses and so on. The girls who went to Ottawa today are under sixteen; two of them only thirteen, will each judge separately but the Toronto team will work together. The girls who went to Ottawa with Mrs. A. W. Sirett and Mrs. J. D. Shibley, Harrowsmith are: Miss Flora Sproule, Westbrooke; Miss Helen Shibley, Harrowsmith and Miss Gwenneth Sleeth, Inverary. The Toronto team will be composed of Miss Helen Wilnot Pittsburgh, Miss Flora Sproule, Westbrooke; Miss Gladys Robb, Battersea; Miss Dorothy Dixon and Miss Beatrice Hanley, Sunbury; Miss Nettie Hanley, Battersea and Miss Helen Kerr, Harrowsmith, Miss Keith Kemp, Glenburnie, and possibly some others.

That a good turnout of the Liberal women of Kingston is expected at the meeting in the committee rooms this evening. The women voters of Kingston outnumber the men, and every woman should consider it her duty to cast a ballot.

That the rubric in the Book of Common prayer governing the day on which a bishop shall be consecrated says the consecration shall take place on a Sunday or a holy day, Sunday is not a convenient time for a service which all the clergy of the diocese and many others wish to attend so a consecration usually takes place on a saints day. Today is St. Bartholomew's Day. Archbishop Lewis, the first bishop of the diocese of Ontario, was consecrated on the Feast of the Annunciation which falls on March 25th. Bishop Mills on All Saints Day, on November 1st and Bishop Bidwell on St. John the Baptist's Day, which is kept on June 24th.

That the arrangement of flowers will be one of the points on which the competitors of the horticultural exhibition the Women's Institutes are putting on at the Kingston Exhibition will be judged. The combination of colors is an important point to consider and women with an artistic eye will notice that some flowers look better alone and others will go together in what is known as an old fashioned nosegay. RESTORED TO GOOD HEALTH

Mother of Eleven Children Praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Her Interesting Experience

Buckingham, Quebec. "I am the mother of eleven living children, and my baby is five months old. I am only 35 years old and I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and my nerves. I know of it from my sister, Dame Edmond Bellefeuille of Ramsayville. For five years I was in misery and was always ready to cry. Now I am so happy to have good health. My daughter, who is 15 years old, has also taken it and will be happy to recommend it to all young girls." - Dame WILLIAM PARENT, Box 414, Buckingham, Quebec.

Why suffer for years with backache, nervousness and other ailments common to women from early life to middle age, when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will give you relief?

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, over 250,000 replies were received, and 96 out of every 100 reported they were benefited by its use.

WEDDINGS

Sheffield-McAvoy Wedding. A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Methodist church parsonage, Athens, on August 18th, when Rev. H. E. Warren united in marriage, Anna Mary, second eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McAvoy, Athens, and David Richard Sheffield, of the late Mr. Albert, and Mrs. Laura Sheffield, of Athens.

The bride looked charming in a gown of sand fiat crepe with navy trimmings, and hat to match. They were attended by Miss Margaret McAvoy, sister of the bride, who wore a gown of golden flat crepe, and Mr. William Miller, of Chantry. The happy couple left for Brockville, from where they left by boat on Thursday for Toronto, Niagara Falls, and other points. On their return they will reside east of Athens, where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

The Editor Hears

That the young girls from Frontenac who are going to Ottawa and Toronto to enter the judging competition at the exhibitions are all bright, pretty and well-dressed. They have endeavored to make a success of their work as house keepers and whether they win a prize or not they have learned many valuable lessons and have gone far in the highest profession for women, that of keeping house and making that house a comfortable and happy place.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

GLENBURNIE. The regular meeting of the Glenburnie Women's Institute was held at the home of Miss Alice Draper on Aug. 18th with a large attendance of members and visitors. A short sketch of a recently enjoyed book was given by each member in answer to the roll call. Mrs. W. J. Blacklock, the president, was appointed to represent this branch in the Kingston Local Council of Women. Miss Keith Kemp is to be sent to take part in the Girls' Judging Contest at the Ottawa Exhibition on August 24th.

The programme consisted of a splendid paper, "Women in the Home" given by Mrs. M. Shurteff,
