AGED 70; FIGHTS FOR HIS LIQUOR

Provincial Officers Had to Face Rifle Before Arresting Suspect.

The Belleville Intelligencer says: Acting under instructions from Inspector Gurnett and on information obtained as a result of investigations of Provincial Officer D. B. Wagar of Enterprise, on August 19th Inspector Naphan of this city arrested Frank Blakely of Dunbigh, Ont., on a charge of keeping liquor for sale.

It was discovered that he had been bringing liquor from Renfrew and disposing of it to the boys and young men of the village.

After being arrested Blakely was quite docile and caused no further trouble. He was in possession of a loaded rifle at the time, which Inspector Naphan fortunately gained possession and handed it to a neighbor.
