"I think you are both to blame and my advice to you is that in the future you keep away from each other because it appears that every time you get together both lose their temper."

This was the advice Acting Magistrate Ald. R. E. Kent gave to a man and a woman in the Police Court on Thursday morning.

Back of it all the court could see an old family feud and he stated that the parties involved must keep the peace or they would be summoned to the court again.

The cash value of the western grain crop is set at $400,000,000.
