The ladies who were entertained by the Kiwanians at Collin's Bay on Monday evening will not forget the delightful evening they spent in the pavilion, where shaded lights hung from ceiling and others were half hidden by the flowers banked on the mantel piece. That George Lawes can do more with a hundred old postage stamps than any man in Kingston. His latest achievement is the picture of a Canadian steamship passing the Isle of Wight to be seen in a Wellington street window. The hull of the steamship is of stamps, the funnels have bars of stamps and the rock and lighthouse are most effectively decorated with stamps. A charming touch is the red sails of a dinghy done in three cent stamps. The whole effect is most artistic. In another window is a motor car done in stamps by the same clever hands.

That the shop windows are showing the first of the autumn styles, and on the bargain counter are the pretty frocks that are left over from the summer stock. Some of these frocks are real bargains for they can be used in the afternoon at teas and bridges. It is a delight to have a new frock at the end of the summer when one is tired of wearing the same things. There are still the gay knitted garments that are so well-worth buying and can be worn all winter under a coat. The careful shopper can be well dressed for a small cost. The thing is to have the right kind of thing to wear on all occasions and a color scheme that will not require too many changes in gloves, shoes and stockings and hats.

That the Toronto "Ex" is bigger and better than ever, and many Kingstonians are going westward by water, by rail and by motor.

CARRIED WIFE TO BED

Suffered So She Could Not Walk. Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Minesing, Ontario. "I am a practical nurse and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to suffering women. For three months I was almost helpless and could not sit at the table long enough to drink a cup of tea. Many a time my husband carried me to bed. I would be so weak. Then he read in the paper of a woman suffering as I did who got better after taking the Vegetable Compound, so he went and got it for me. When I had taken three bottles I was just like a new woman and I had had splendid health ever since. When I feel any bearing-down pains I always take it; sometimes a half bottle or whatever I need. It is my only medicine and I have told many a one about it. Any one wanting to know more about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I will gladly write to her. I do all I can to recommend it for I feel I owe my life and strength to it." - Mrs. NEAL BOWMAN, R. R. 1, Minesing, Ontario. Do you feel broken-down, nervous, and weak sometimes? Do you have this horrid feeling of fear which sometimes comes to women when they are not well? Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent to take at such a time. It always helps, and if taken regularly and persistently will relieve this condition.
