SPORTING NOTES AND COMMENT

In the seventh inning of yesterday's game at Belleville, Herbie Teepell was sent into right field in place of Bert Daley. No sooner had the kid member of the Kingston squad taken his place than he pulled off a sensational catch by grabbing off a hot one from Weir's bat by backhand effort. It was a neat stunt and was one of the thrills of the

The umpiring was good at Belleville yesterday with the exception of one bad decision in the third inning. Harry Mills lifted a liner over third and the ball went foul by at least two feet. The umpires failed to call it a foul. The Kingston players did not hustle the play, believing that the umpires would call it as it was. Much to their surprise, however, the ball was allowed to go fair. It turned out that it did not matter rally but the most they could get so very much, but it would have been just the same had the result of

> The Belleville fans take the cake for a winning team crowd. In Belleville on Friday they cheered their favorites, patted them on the back and all the rest, when they showed the Kingston team up. Yesterday it was the reverse. They apparently forgot they ever had a ball team after the game was over. We read somewhere about the fans being strong on winners but short on losers, but the demonstration given by the Belleville fans was the most bare-faced ever seen around this section of the country. They are great winners up that way.

The iron man Ouellet cracked under the strain at last and he was 1 forced to shed his armor and hie himself to the dugout in the seventh inning of yesterday's game. It was a hard blow for the Trunk twirler and it was indeed a pity that he could not have finished the final game. Quellet, besides being a great pitcher, is a real fellow and many Kingston fans expressed regret that Ouellet suffered such a fate at the close of the season, after having come through such a hard campaign in the x-Replaced Daley in right field in league schedule. Such is the life of the diamond, however.

> The dope passed out that Cherry could not hit when he was pitching, as well as when he was playing the field, was well borne out in yesterday's game at Belleville. The Bambino of the Kingston Club "socked" the ball for four clean hits in five times at bat yesterday, no mean feat

> The drive made by "Lonny" Purvis in the seventh inning to clean the bases and put himself on third just about finished Ouellet. He stood up to one more batter, but he landed a hit also, and then "Jawn" took to the showers. Incidentally Purvis' hit was a dandy and started the tide in favor of Kingston for sure.
