AUNT NET

"A tom-boy kind of girl may shock some folks, but you don't never hear of one being fooled by one of these sick-headed drug store loafers."

A MYSTERY WOMAN MAKES AN ATTEMPT

To Swim English Channel, But Was Forced to Quit Off Dover.

Folkestone, Sept. 4.—The Channel swim of "Mona MacLaren" and Horace Cary was abandoned last night, owing to a rough sea, when they were seven miles off South Foreland, on the English coast, near Dover.

Mrs. MacLaren appeared here suddenly during the early hours of yesterday morning and, after a few preliminaries, plunged into the water at 5.10 o'clock with the avowed intention of establishing a new time record for the swim to England. Photographers tried to take pictures of the woman, but she successfully hid her face and only her well-greased back could be got on the plates.

A few hundred yards off shore was a small motor boat. In it among others was an Englishman who gave the name of Horace Cary, who joined the girl in the water. He said the motorboat would be the only craft to accompany them.

New York, Sept. 4.—Among the hats which will be prominent this fall are wide-brimmed models of black velvet, simply trimmed. While small hats with highly draped crowns are among the new imports from Paris, American women, especially those in the misses class will undoubtedly cling to large hats for dress wear for early fall. Boyish felt shapes continue to rule for sports wear.

Blouse and bolero treatments are found on most of the early fall dresses designed for day and formal wear. Where the blouse adds width to the upper portion of the dress the skirt is almost invariably blunder. Full flaring skirts on the contrary often accompany the bolero. The sleeveless bolero designed for formal occasions is posed over a form-fitting bodice. The bolero extends above the normal waist line. A sash is worn about the normal waist tying at one side and the full skirt flares at the hem line.

Beaded taffeta evening gowns are among the unusual fall models which follow the bouffant lines of period frocks. One particularly beautiful model is fashioned of gold and bronze changeable taffeta beaded in gold and bronze beads. The bodice is slender, following the lines of the bust and narrowing at the waist line with horizontal rows of beadwork forming a girde effect just below the normal waist line. The skirt which gathers in at the waist is widened at the hem where horizontal and alternate rows of gold and bronze beadwork extend to the knees. Black taffeta frocks beaded in white crystals are also shown for dinner occasions.

Finger Bowls. For the formal dinner, finger bowls should hold slightly heated, delicately scented water. They should be one-third full.

Red Pepper. Always examine cayenne pepper closely, for it is very likely to contain tiny red bugs, unless it is perfectly fresh.

Butter Balls. Balls of butter made with a French vegetable cutter add daintiness to the luncheon table.

Bolled Coffee. Bolled coffee may be cleared by the addition of a little cold water, just before serving.

Cream Containers. Cream or milk left in uncovered containers in the icebox develops an undesirable top crust.

Sink Strainer. A sink strainer conscientiously used will save many plumber's bills.

The average size of women's shoes has increased from 4 1/2 to 6 1/2 in the last six years, according to a recent report to the National Shoe Retailers' Association. Changes in style and the participation of women in athletics is held partly responsible.

"Fresh Marshmallows" Gibsons. It is computed that in 12 marriages out of every 100 either bride or groom has been married before.

The Editor Hears

That the taggers who collected for the Humane Society to-day were met with a ready response and smiling faces. The Humane Society appeals for help for those who cannot help themselves and when one reads the long list of the dumb animals who have been protected against the carelessness or cruelty of their owners by the officers of that society one realizes that it is with God's help doing His work on earth.

That Monday evening is the time you put your clock back an hour. Don't forget it or you may find yourself down town an hour too soon on Tuesday morning. Just think how you would regret that hour of slumber.

That many people are going off for the last summer holiday and many more are using Monday to move in from their camps and cottages. Labor Day ends the summer; on Tuesday we take up the winter work and play.

That the Princeps street merchants have had a splendid season owing to the number of men in work and the number of tourists that have passed through Kingston. Early in the summer there was a feeling that the cold spring and late summer would hold back the sale of light frocks, but the heat came with July and continued through August so that the sales, they tell us, were much above the average.

That the post office garden shows the citizens who pass it daily some very fine cosmos and asters. Flowers of all kind are wonderfully fine this year, sunshine and rain have been so happily divided that the best results have been given to us by the "Head Gardener."

That the Liberal women have a fine organization and are working together in a notable way.

THIS MOTHER GLAD DAUGHTER IS WELL

Mrs. Parks Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health.

Toronto, Ontario.—"My daughter is 15 now and has been an invalid ever since she was six months old and has been compelled to remain out of school the greater part of the time. We have tried different kinds of medicine, but none helped her much. I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when I was run-down, and it had helped me so much that I thought it might help her at this time. She has gained ever since she began taking it. She attends school every day now and goes skating, and does other out-of-door sports. I recommend this medicine to any one who is run-down and nervous and weak."—Mrs. PARKS, 105 Bond Street, Toronto, Ontario.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for young women's troubles. For sale by druggists everywhere. c
