SPORTING NOTES AND COMMENT

Bruce Cairns did masterful work in yesterday's game against Goodyear of Toronto. The visitors did not get anything near a hit until the R. H. E. eighth inning. They got two then and that formed their total for the lay. The local hurler was going strong all the time and it looked for a Pittsburgh ...100 011 03x-6 15 0 time as though he would pitch a no-hit, no-run game.

Terry, third-baseman for the Goodyear team, wore glasses. Kingson fans are not used to seeing ball players in action who wear glasses, out Terry's performance yesterday created a great impression on them. He was the likeliest looking man of the visiting squad and though he failed to hit, as most of his team-mates. he contributed good work in

Herb Kelly, catcher for the Goodyear team; is a former Kingston boy and was a star player not so long ago in Kingston. Kelly was short-stop and third-baseman when he played here and he was then dangerous hitter. He was warmly greeted by his many friends here yes-

The opposing catchers in yesterday's game started out as thirdbasemen or short-stops. Jimmy Arniel took up catching work long after he had starred as a third-sacker, and he was regarded as a very capable man for the danger corner. Kelly, too, has turned in many good games in Kingston at third and short. It was strange that these two players should oppose each other as catchers.

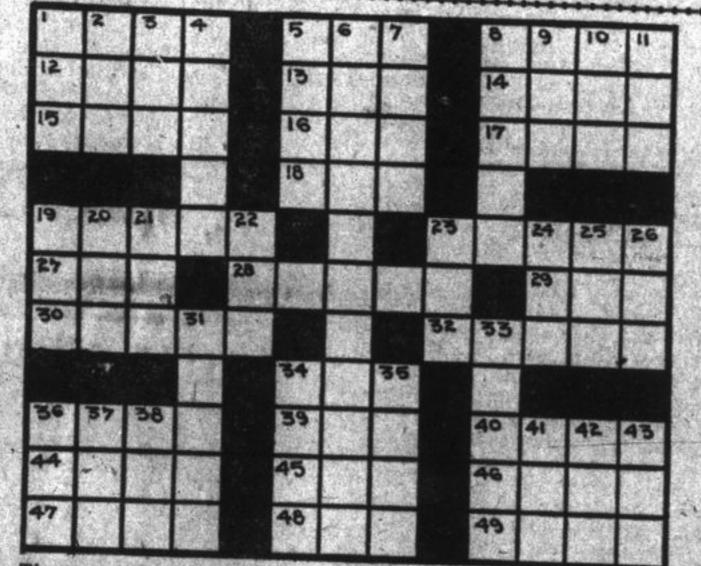

It took Kingston until the fourth inning to get a hit off Plummer yesterday, but when once they landed on him, it was for the finish.

Plummer intentionally passed Cherry in the fourth inning, and though he was cried down at that time, he was later justified for his action in some degree when Cherry cracked out a long home run.

The feams meet in Toronto next Saturday in the second game of the present series to decide which team shall go on and meet the Toronto winner in the next round of the senior O.B.A.A. series. It doesn't look 2 as though a third game should be necessary.

Mr. William Wylie, president of the Eastern O.B.A.A., was at the game yesterday to see things through.
