PREMIER DEFAMES NAME OF THE DEAD

Liberal Leader Attacks Him for References to Late Mr. Boivin.

Stratford, Sept. 10.—"I cannot treat myself to say what I think," said Mr. Hon. Mackenzie King last night, referring to Mr. Meighen's reported reference to the late Hon. George Boivin. "It is but charity to say that Mr. Meighen is so over-driven and so over-wrought and his present condition is such that he has lost control of his better judgment."

"Are people of Canada going to stand for that? Are there to be no standards in public life, no sense of decency, or is a man, because he calls himself Premier of Canada, to condemn a man who lies in his grave?"

Meighen's Reflections. Woodstock, Sept. 10.—Speaking here yesterday Premier Meighen stated that he refused to allow Mr. King "to capitalize the death of a comrade." This was in reference to the death of the late Hon. George Boivin. Referring to the Montreal liquor sale discussed before the customs committee at Ottawa, Mr. Meighen said: "Mr. Boivin sold that liquor himself to Mr. Hushion, who bought the liquor for a company of bootleggers, of which he was the largest shareholder. The liquor was sold for thirty-six cents a gallon. When the charge was made by Mr. Stevens the answer of the minister was: 'That is true, but I won't let a gallon out until the excise provided by law—$9.03 a gallon—is paid.' That was a good defense, if it was true. But the evidence showed that at the time he spoke every gallon was out of bond. Indeed, it never was in bond."

MEIGHEN ADVOCATES PROTECTION POLICY

The Premier Has a Busy Thursday in Western Ontario.

Ingersoll, Sept. 10.—Premier Meighen closed a crowded day with meetings at Ingersoll and Woodstock last night. He had spent a long day of constant travel and meetings, with scarcely an interval. There were daytime speeches at Kincardine, at Blyth, at Mitchell, at Stratford. At all he pressed his policy of protection, declaring that in every province the Conservatives stood for a protective tariff. He urged that only by a return of a Conservative government could stable government be hoped for.

"This time," he claimed at Blyth, "we shall have the biggest representation from the prairie provinces we have ever had in the history of Canada." He asserted that Mr. Mackenzie King could not command more than a third of the members of the next House. If, by any miracle Mr. Mackenzie King were returned to power, he would be dependent on men whose aim was a downward revision of the tariff until the goal of free trade was reached. "They will exact their price," Mr. Meighen exclaimed, "at the cost of the fundamental interest of this country."

AN ADDRESS ON "PRINTING"

Delivered Before the Rotary Club by Arthur Davies. "Printing" was the subject of a short address delivered before the Rotary Club on Thursday by Arthur Davies. The speaker referred to the invention of printing from movable type by Gutenberg about the year 1450, and said that the art of printing he believed had been one of the foremost factors in advancing civilization. It had made knowledge universal and banished superstition. Printing in Canada, dated from 1773 when the press to print the Halifax Gazette was established, he said. Benjamin Franklin, one of those who signed the declaration of independence, had founded the Montreal Gazette in the year 1778 while living in Montreal as a commissioner of the revolutionary army. The speaker described the actual operations in printing in its simplest form, and in concluding spoke of some of the intricate and amazing machines which are today used in printing a newspaper.

An Aged Man Killed. Pembroke, Sept. 10.—Frederick Switzer, aged seventy-two, of Pembroke, was instantly killed here Wednesday night when he was struck by a passenger train at a level crossing. The body was badly mangled and thrown about 100 feet. The aged man, who was of poor hearing, apparently did not realize the close proximity of the train when he began to walk across the tracks.

Mount Tokachi, northern Japan, is a mountain and villagers are panic-stricken.

P. Henderson and D. Conway.

Jewists New Year. Yesterday was the first day in the year 5687 of the Jewish calendar. The first and second day of the New Year are recognized as high holy days by the Jews who refrain from all work on those days. The celebration continues for ten days and the final day, or Day of Atonement, is kept almost as sacred as are the first two days. Special services are being held in the local synagogue. In the Jewish language the New Year's celebration is known as Rosh Hashonah and is universally known to them as a holiday of great religious importance.
