EDWARDS WELL SUPPORTED.
 By the People of Tichborne in Tuesday's Election.
 Tichborne, Sept. 15.—The election on Tuesday passed off quietly. Dr. Edwards was strongly supported by the people of this place. A number from here intend taking in Kingston fair, on Thursday and Friday.

The Ladies' Aid met at Mrs. Joseph Harris' on Wednesday, with a good attendance. The next meeting is to be held at Mrs. Thomas McEwen's on Oct. 6th. The bus of the threshing machine is once more heard in this vicinity. A new cement bridge is being erected on Scott's creek, near Alfred Steele's.

Visitors: Mrs. J. Steele at M. Cronk's, Parham; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allison and family at Mrs. Annie Kennedy's; Mrs. M. Storms at Fred Sullivan's; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Steele and family, Webster, N.Y., at James Hannah's; Arthur Harris, Crow Lake, visiting his father, Joseph Harris. A number from here attended Mrs. Gardner's funeral at Verona, on Sunday afternoon. She was formerly Miss Bella Genge.

Taking in the Fair.
 Concession, Sept. 15.—Mr. Deas, Point Anne, spent the week-end at home. Mr. and Mrs. George Wannamaker, who have been visiting Mrs. Delhant, left for home in their car. Rev. Mr. Woltratin preached his second sermon in his series "Abominations of Modern Society" on Sunday evening and gave an impressive sermon on "Lying." Mrs. Lont has been visiting Mrs. T. Spencer. Some Prince Edwarders are taking in the Kingston exhibition this week.

While attending the Exhibition, visit our store. You will find the finest assortment of all Suits and Overcoats at lowest prices—Tweedell's Reliable Clothiers.

The death took place on Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. V. Chase, of Martha Davis, widow of the late W. O. Sweeney, Smith's Falls, in her seventy-ninth year.
