HUGO TO ATTEND.

The Big Republican Convention New York. A despatch from Albany, N.Y.,

"In days gone by, Francis Hugo, now a resident of New York city, and formerly secretary of state, could be counted on as best handshaker around the state capitol. At any rate, Mr. was tremendously popular with the great rank and file of the Republican party when he was serving as secretary of state over a period of six years. Mr. Hugo will be found right on hand at the coming Republican State convention Madison Square Garden in York city on Sept. 27th and 28th. and there will be plenty of opportunity presented Mr. Hugo to do a bit of handshaking as he friendships. Mr . Hugo has been nam- Connor, Jennie Glasgow, Mrs. Mened as a delegate to the convention from the ninth assembly district of New York county, the leader which is Samuel S. OBITUARY

Mrs. Margery McFarland Nash. There entered into rest on Saturday night, the 11th of September, Margery McFarland Nash, widow of the late George Richard Nash, C.E. Mrs. Nash was up and around the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur S. Evans, Gore street, on Saturday morning, but was later stricken. Her illness was of brief duration and she passed peacefully away. The late Mrs. Nash was born in Niagara, Ont., on May 20th, 1843, the youngest daughter of the late John McFarland. Her mother was Amelia Keefer and her grandfather was the late George Keefer, the first president of the Welland Canai Company, which originally constructed that famous waterway which links the Great Lakes. She spent some time in Quebec with her uncle, Samuel Keefer, a well-known engineer, who built the first suspension bridge over the Niagara river. this being the largest tunnel in the world. Her husband was later a railway manager both in the United States and Canada. On his retirement in 1894, the family came Kingston and resided first at the corner of Barrie and King streets. where Mr. Cornelius Bermingham now lives, and later on Stuart street. Since the death of her husband she resided with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur S. Evans, 103 Gore street. Mrs. Nash was a woman greatly beloved by her many friends. While resident of Kingston years ago she was a prominent worker in St James' church, and later in St George's cathedral. Surviving are her two sons, Frank and George of Montreal, and one daughter, Mrs. Evans, widow of the late Lieut.-Col

Arthur S. Evans, Royal Engineers. The funeral took place last Monday afternoon to St. George's cathedral, where service was held by the Dean of Ontario, assisted by Rev. J. C. Dixon. Interment was made in Cataraqui cemetery.
