WEDDINGS.

Donohue-O'Hearn. The marriage was solemnized at St. Barnabas Church, Brewer's Mills, on Tuesday morning at 8.30 o'clock. Greta, eldest daughter of the late Mr. William O'Hearn and Mrs. O'Hearn to John Vincent Donohue of Buffalo, N.Y., son of Mr. M. D. Donohue, Gananoque. The bride, who was given away by her brother Dennis, entered the church to the strains of wedding march played by Miss Deane. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Crowley. The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of autumn flowers. During the ceremony, a solo was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Scott. The bride was charmingly dressed in sandalwood crepe with shoes to match. She wore a large picture hat and the groom's gift, a stonemason fur neck piece and a carriage bouquet of sweetheart roses arranged with maiden hair fern. The bride was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Carmel Donohue, attired in a dress of oak brown satin faced crepe with hat and shoes to match and who carried a bouquet of yellow tea roses arranged with maiden hair fern. The groom was assisted by Patrick O'Hearn, brother of the bride. The groom's gift to bridesmaid was a lovely pearl necklace and best man a pair of gold cuff links. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home, the immediate families being present. Following the breakfast the happy couple left on the train for Buffalo, N.Y., where the groom resides. The bride traveling in a navy blue ponet will suit with shoes to match. The happy couple received many beautiful presents and substantial cheques and carried the best wishes of a host of friends.

Emm-Mosler. Tuesday morning at Church of the Most Holy Rosary, Syracuse, N.Y., Miss Irene Mosler and Frederic A. Emm were married. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Nicholas Mosler, formerly of Wolfe Island, and the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Emm. The bride was gowned in peach georgette and wore a black velvet picture hat, peach colored hose and black satin slippers. She carried an arm bouquet of Columbia roses. Her sister, Miss Freda Mosler, as bridesmaid, wore pink georgette, with matching hose, black hat and slippers. Her bouquet was also of roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Lewis J. Emm. Rev. James Meighan performed the ceremony. Following the bridal ceremony a reception was given to more than thirty guests and the bridal party at the home of the bride's mother, 114 Malcolm street, after which the young couple left on an extended motor trip to New York, Atlantic City and Philadelphia. They will make their home in Clearfield, Pa.
