ber of combustion fires that have been investigated during the past couple of weeks.

Good Record to July. Up to the end of July Ontario had made an unusually creditable record as far as barn fires are concerned. There were for that period this year only 260 barn fires, entailing a loss of $425,137, as compared with 458 barns burned during the same period of 1925, with a loss of $847,684.

In July there were 113 barn fires this year, costing the Province $145,333, against 134 fires in July, 1925, costing $199,275. According to Mr. Heaton, at least 75 per cent. of this year's July fires took place after the 17th of the month. The hay harvest was very late, and as a result no combustion fires were reported before July 12th, whereas in other years this type of fire often occurs in June.

Time To Be Careful. "From past experience," said Mr. Heaton, "I feel justified in drawing the conclusion that September and October are the months that will pay the penalty for the delayed harvest and the bad harvest weather. We are already getting evidence of it in the number of combustion fires that are now coming in for investigation."

Stacked grain is just as liable to heat as grain in the mow, although there is less danger of its breaking into flames, and if the stacks are built at a safe distance from the buildings there is, of course, less danger of property loss.

During 1925 Ontario farmers suffered a loss of $1,844,998 from barn fires. Of these fires 617 were total losses, making up $1,782,102. The other fires were in the main lesser damage caused by lightning.

FRONTENAC SCHOOL PUPILS' EXHIBITION

Of Flowers and Vegetables—Display Showed Very Keen Interest.

On Tuesday afternoon an exhibit of flowers and vegetables, grown by the children from seeds donated by the Horticultural Society, was held in Frontenac school. The large display showed the keen interest of the children in this work.

The different grades made "Health Posters" which were greatly admired by the parents and visitors. Prizes were given for these too.

Cake and candy were sold from two prettily decorated tables. The cake table was in charge of Mrs. Marsh and Mrs. Bauder while Mrs. Duncombe and Mrs. Ellerton had charge of the candy table.

The regular meeting of the Home and School Club was held in the evening. This took the form of a business meeting at which the following officers were chosen: Hon. president, Mrs. Parton; Mr. Baldwin; president, Mrs. Marsh; 1st vice-president, Mrs. Wilkinson; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Steacy; secretary, the principal; treasurer, Mr. Steacy; convener of social committee, Mrs. Phillips; convener of mother's committee, Mrs. Parton; convener of father's committee, Mr. Clow.

At the close the flowers were sent to the Kingston General Hospital and Hotel Dieu.

E. G. Bailey, garage proprietor of Stirling, was badly beaten up by an unknown man near the new exhibition grounds in West Belleville, Tuesday night. Bailey received severe scalp wounds which were inflicted by a heavy iron instrument, the assailant having struck the victim three times over the head.

Word has been received by friends in Belleville of the death in Denver, Colo., of Frank Reynolds, a former resident of Belleville.

Pembroke estimates that over $10,000 was spent in that town by the passengers in the 169 cars which registered at the tourist camp during the summer.

Y.M.C.A. CAMPAIGN.

For $3,000 to Start on Saturday With Tag Effort.

In the city of Kingston there are many religious and social works carried on for the benefit of its younger citizens, and at this present moment attention is drawn to the coming "campaign" for $3,000 to be inaugurated on Saturday, Sept. 25th, by a tag day, followed by an organized appeal lasting a whole week on behalf of the Kingston Y.W.C.A. by the members of its devoted board of management.

This money is required to meet the deficit and to enable the Y.W.C.A. to carry on its club work successfully during the coming winter, for in this fine building, in addition to its self-supporting boarding accommodation for some twenty-two ladies, is carrying on work among girls in various walks of life. This work is of a four-fold character, religious, educational, social and physical, and some 150 girls attend the different clubs held week by week in the spacious club rooms of the Y.W.C.A. These various clubs are served by a devoted band of helpers, aided by Miss Ettinger, the able secretary of the Y.W.C.A., to whom also is entrusted the visiting of girls settling in Kingston.

U-Auto Camp on the hillside of Fort Henry is enjoyed by all the clubs and the summer work of these organizations is carried on there.

WITH THE PITTSFERRY FOLKS.

Young Ladies Who Won Prizes at Joyceville School Fair.

Pittserry, Sept. 21—Threshing is the order of the day and the wet weather has delayed the threshers very much in the past week.

A large number from here attended the Kingston exhibition and reported it extra good. The exhibits were good and the midway added much to the enjoyment of young and old.
