AUNT HET

"I hated to kill that old rooster, he was so purty; but Cousin Henry an' his crowd was here Sunday an' it looked like a good time to get rid of him."

WEDDINGS.

Lawrence-Blackburn.

On Wednesday last "The Maples," Vernonville, was the scene of a quiet wedding when Mary Eleanor Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Blackburn, was united in marriage to Wilfrid Nelson Lawrence, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence, Guelph. The ceremony was performed by the groom's father in the presence of the immediate friends only. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a gown of corn color georgette crepe over satin, with lace insertion to match, and carried a corsage bouquet of ophelia roses and lily-of-the-valley. After the ceremony a dainty buffet luncheon was served in the dining-room, which was tastefully decorated in red and white. Later Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence left by motor for a trip down the Rideau, the bride travelling in bordeau red crepe de chene dress with hat to match and navy twill cord coat. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence will reside in Fenelon Falls.

Son of Charles Dickens Is Married Fifty Years

London, Sept. 24.—Sir Henry Dickens, son of Charles Dickens, will celebrate his golden wedding here Saturday. The famous novelist's son has six children and sixteen grandchildren living. His youngest son was killed in the war. Sir Henry, who resembles the portraits of his father, is a Criminal Court Judge. He possesses many valuable mementos of the novelist.

According to the Bank of Montreal crop report issued to-day, the crops of the Dominion as a whole are well up to the average, but in the determination of their ultimate value the weather is now a vital factor.

Notwithstanding the fact that all poultry experts say the domestic hen "is too old at three," a twenty-year-old hen has just hatched a brood of fourteen chicks at Hoppershall, Bedfordshire. Mother and family are all doing well.

DEATHS.

NORRIS—On Sept. 23rd, 1926, at his late residence, 46 Clergy Street, James Norris, Sr.
Funeral will leave above address on Monday morning at 8.30 to St. Mary's Cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass will be sung at 9 o'clock for the repose of his soul. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. Keech and family wish to thank their many friends in Kingston, also in Tamworth for their extreme kindness during their trouble.

CHECKING UP DAMAGE BY STORM IN OHIO

Loss Under $250,000—Some People Injured and Some Fatally.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 24.—Ohio to-day began checking up the damage done yesterday by the tornado in Sandusky and Erie counties, by a storm of cyclonic proportions in Columbian county, by water spouts in Lake Erie off Lorrain and Huron, and by the steady downpour of rain which inundated fields throughout the state. The total damage was estimated to-day at between $100,000 and $250,000. No lives were lost in any of the storms, according to an early check. Some were injured, probably fatally. The tornado at Sandusky swept over 25-mile path, at no place more than 100-yards wide, beginning south of Clide in Southeastern Sandusky county to Huron in North Central Erie county.

Vernon Knowles Injured.

Toronto, Sept. 24.—The Toronto Star reports the receipt in Toronto of a telegram from Florida to the effect that Vernon Knowles, formerly of the Winnipeg Tribune and later in newspaper and publicity work in Miami, is now in hospital in Coral Gables, having sustained injuries to his foot by the piercing of a six-inch pipe. It is presumed that Mr. Knowles sustained the injury in the recent hurricane catastrophe.

BRINGING UP FATHER BY GEORGE McMANUS

Use Ancient Plows.

Niagara Falls, Sept. 24.—A feature of the international ploughing match to be held here on October 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th will be ploughing with a yoke of oxen and an ancient plough. C. F. Monroe, of Stratford, has brought a span of oxen weighing a ton each from Manitoba, and will enter in the matches. A plough at least 125 years old will be used.
