"Y" Gym. Classes.
The gymnasium classes at the Y.M.C.A. are expected to start about Oct. 4th. The swimming tank and the showers, which have been undergoing slight changes are again open, and will likely be kept quite busy from now on, as the outside swimming is over.

Returns to Queen's.
John A. Saunders, of Cataract, has returned from a successful season on the American iron-ore freighter Harvey H. Brown, of the Brown line. He has been sailing on the upper lakes for the greater part of the season. He has resumed his studies at Queen's University.

Still Going Strong.
Although eighty-one years of age, Mr. Jacob Loucks, of Enterprise, is enjoying the best of health and is busily engaged at his work every day. Mr. Loucks painted the inside of the new community hall. He has been a reader of The Whig for many years and takes a keen interest in the events of the day.

Science of Healing.
Our Master, Christ Jesus, proved through his life and works that he understood this science and he taught it to the twelve and the seventy. That this activity of healing belongs to the present age will be clearly shown in the Christian Science lecture at the Capitol Theatre, Sunday afternoon, at four o'clock.

A Motorboat Burned.
A motorboat was practically ruined by fire Wednesday at Gananoque. While near the foot of Oranston's Island the launch owned and driven by Mr. Joseph Pullaw, son of Councillor Pullaw, caught fire when the engine backfired. The decks were burned and the engine seriously damaged. The boat sank in shallow water, but was later in the day raised and brought to town. The boat was about 30 feet in length, and had been used for charter purposes during the summer. No insurance was carried.

Had Fine Dogs.
Some of the finest dogs in the dog show at the Kingston Fair were those shown by H. E. Thompson, Napanee, and which were successful in winning several prizes. His German police dog won the special in that class. The police dog, "Pet of Wallon," was imported from England by Mr. Thompson in April, and three of its generation have been champion dogs. This wonderful bred female is being bred to the International Champion of Toronto, Mr. Thompson also showed a small Boston terrier, which won the cup in the toy class and also took several other prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Gates Wedded 60 Years

Mr. Gates is 82 and His Wife 80—Seven Children Are Living.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gates, 214 Alfred street, will celebrate the diamond jubilee of their wedding, Saturday. Mrs. Gates is 80 years of age, but is still in very good health, and very cheerful, with a clear memory. Mr. Gates is 82 years old and is in fine health, being able to get around anywhere. It was just sixty years ago, September 25th 1866, that at St. Mark's church, Barrie, Rev. Edward Bowers, then the rector of St. Mark's performed the ceremony. Both the bride and the groom were of Pittsburgh township and they lived there for eighteen years, moving to Kingston in 1884 where they have lived ever since.

Mr. Gates was a very well known business man of the city being a wharf builder and contractor. He built and re-built practically all of the wharves in the Kingston harbour and at Wolfe and Howe Islands.

There were seven children, all are living at present, and all with one exception will be at the family reunion and wedding supper to be held at the home Saturday evening. The family are: William H., Albertville, Wisconsin; Joseph W., and Mrs. Gates, of Los Angeles; George A., of Los Angeles; Charles A., Kingston; Mrs. John J. Burton, Toronto; Mrs. Nell McCaig, Kingston; Mrs. W. G. Gates, Oswego, N.Y.; William of Albertville, is the only one who will not be present at the re-union. He is a ranch owner and conditions prevailing there prevent him from coming at this time. There are also 16 grand children and 6 great grand children. Mrs. (Dr.) Orval Foster, of Montreal, daughter of Mrs. J. J. Burton, will also be present. Miss Hazel M. Gates, R.N., Rochester, N.Y., another grand child, daughter of Mrs. W. G. Gates, will be present.

Punch Bars Liquor Advertising.
London, Sept. 24.—Punch has decided hereafter to refuse to print advertisements of liquor. After the existing contracts expire no new ones will be entered into for such advertisements. No explanation for this revolutionary move has been vouchsafed.

"I have no statement to make about the matter at all," said P. L. Agnew, Chairman and Managing Director of the company owning Punch. "With all courtesy, I must refuse to discuss the matter."

A team of horses, owned by Fred Peck, whose farm is on the provincial highway near Cobourg, were struck by lightning and killed. They were valued at $250. Mr. Peck was standing in a lane near by when the bolt struck the horses. William Swaine, piano tuner. Orders received at 109 Clergy street west, phone 564v.

PROF. KENT ACCEPTS THE PRINCIPALSHIP

Of Queen's Theology College—Will Arrive in Kingston in October.

Rev. George A. Brown, chairman of the board of Queen's Theological College, this morning received a letter from Prof. H. A. Kent of Pine Hill College, Halifax, N.S., announcing his acceptance of the position of principal which was offered him a week ago. Prof. Kent expects to take over his new duties here about the end of October. The theological board will make arrangements for the installation of the new principal during the big re-union week early in November.

Professor Kent is in middle life, being under forty-five. He will be accompanied here by his wife and six children. His eldest son will enter the arts faculty of Queen's.

Reaches Century Mark

Mr. John W. Martin, to-day is celebrating his one hundredth birthday at the home of his daughter, Miss H. Martin, 349 Brock street. He is receiving congratulations from his many friends, and is spending the day very quietly. There is no large function for the day, but a family party to which a few friends have been invited has been arranged. Mr. Martin is one of the oldest residents of this district.
