ROTARY CLUB'S BAZAAR IS FOR WELFARE WORK

To Be Held on Thursday Evening on the Market Square Citizens Contribute Liberality of Merchandise.

Public interest in the Rotary bazaar which is to be held on Thursday evening on the Market Square has been growing to such an extent during the past week that the club has decided to place all the particulars before the people and for this reason has inserted full page advertisements in the local newspapers. On another page of this issue will be found the advertisement.

The reason the Rotary Club is holding a bazaar is to raise money for its Welfare Work among the under-privileged boys and girls of the city. The idea for a bazaar started in a small way but since the committees have begun to work on the proposition it has grown to such proportions that it will no doubt rank as one of the biggest events of the year.

The very hearty response met with by the donations committee from the Kingston merchants and citizens generally has placed at the disposal of the club a great quantity of very excellent merchandise such as groceries, sweaters, blankets, jewellery, etc., which will be offered for sale and as prizes at the Big Bazaar. Rotarians have made most extensive plans which ensure a good time for everybody. There will be dancing in the open air to a full band for those who like dancing, as well as a free band concert earlier in the evening. All kinds of refreshments such as hot dogs, soft drinks, coffee, cake, etc., will be on sale and at positively no increase in price.

The wives of Rotarians will have a booth from which they will dispense the most delicious home-made cooking, and doubtless housewives all over the city will take advantage of the sale to provide themselves with enough cooking to last over the week-end. Games of skill such as the Dart Game and Knocking the Hat Off will play an important part in the night's sport. There will be a special booth for the children, where each child that spends five cents will get a five-cent prize whether he wins or loses.

A big parade starting at 6.30 and including bands, clowns and mischief-makers will travel round the principal streets of the city and finally end up at the Market Square where the bazaar will be in full swing. Given the weather, the Rotary Club is assured of a good representation from both Napanee and Gananoque, and the country immediately surrounding Kingston, as well as the hundreds from the city who will bring the Bazaar. The club is anxious to have every city merchant represented in the parade.

Spoke on the Work of Christian Endeavor H. Carson Mateer Paid a Visit to Kingston on Monday. H. Carson Mateer, Toronto, general secretary for Christian Endeavor in Ontario, paid a visit to Kingston on Monday, and spoke to a gathering of young people in Bethel church, Monday evening. He took as his subject, "Christian Endeavor's New Programme." The slogan of which is "Personal Acceptance of and Allegiance to Jesus Christ."

Mr. Mateer is an able speaker, and his audience was given an outline of the work programme for 1927. During the evening, James Lomox favored with a solo. Mr. Mateer also spoke of the fall convention, which is to be held in St. Catharines this year, and before he left, had registered fifteen members from Bethel Society to attend that convention. Principal Charles W. Bishop of Almont College was introduced to Belleville on Sunday night when he was welcomed to Bridge Street United Church pulpit by the Rev. Dr. Malott. This was rather unique as the new canon is a son of a former minister of Bridge Street, the late Rev. Dr. George Bishop. Anyway, the telephone book is clean literature, fit for any home.

WEDDINGS.

Dewar-Bertrand. On Wednesday afternoon, September 22nd, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse G. Brewster, Lake Placid, New York, Lyda Theodora Bertrand, formerly of Kingston, Ont., and Donald Fraser Dewar, of Toronto, were united in marriage. Sidney T. Buck of St. Eustace Episcopal church officiating. The bridesmaid was Miss Gertrude Bertrand, sister of the bride, best man, Dr. James J. Perkins of Lake Placid; Jesse G. Brewster, of Lake Placid, gave the bride away.

The bride's gown was a French model of satin crepe trimmed with pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. Her veil was of duchesse lace. The bridesmaid wore pale green taffeta and a picture hat of horsehair braid of the same color. She carried pink roses.

The living room was prettily decorated with nasturtiums, lilies and autumn leaves. An archway of autumn leaves was formed in the bay window, under which the bride and groom stood. Ten candles illuminated the arch. From this an aisle formed by two white ribbons led to the staircase. The bridal couple passed through this aisle on their way to the arch. Mrs. O. L. Colburn rendered the wedding march.

After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served, the wedding party in the dining room, beautifully decorated in a general color scheme of pink and green. Pink and white sweet peas were profusely used. Pink roses formed the table centre. Pink and green dinner candles were effectively used as table decoration. The luncheon consisted of punch and waters, coffee, sandwiches, bride's and wedding cake. Following the ceremony the happy couple left by automobile for Plattsburg where they entrained for Montreal. From there their itinerary will include Quebec and other points of interest. They will be at home after October 1st, at their new home, 109 Milverton Boulevard, Toronto, Canada.

Mr. Dewar is a well and favorably known resident of Toronto in the employment of the Bank of Nova Scotia of that city. Miss Bertrand has been a resident of Lake Placid for the past few months, practicing her profession of trained nurse. She has a host of friends who unite in wishing her happiness. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sawyer, Virginia Beach, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. O. Byron Brewster, Elizabethtown; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Eastman, Westport.

Frederick-Sanger. A smart wedding was celebrated at St. Mary's Cathedral, Tuesday morning, when Ethel Winifred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sanger of Kingston, was united in marriage to Mr. Bertram Frederick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frederick, also of this city. Rev. Father Coyle officiated.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of the Lohengrin Wedding March, played by Prof. L. Nourry. The bride was beautifully gowned in ivory georgette, with tulle stockings. Her train of ivory satin flowed gracefully from her shoulders. The charming veil of chantilly lace, worn coronet fashion, was draped to the hem of her train, caught with tiny pink rosebuds. Her shoes of white kid completed the charming picture. She wore a string of pearls the gift of the groom and carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses, lily-of-the-valley, and baby's breath.

The bridesmaids were, Miss Vera Sanger, cousin of the bride, and Miss Jean Troacy, both of Toronto. Both were gowned in charming frocks of taffeta, in blush rose and colonial blue tone, wearing large black satin picture hats with rose petals trimmings. Their carried bouquets of variegated carnations tied with pale pink tulle. They wore hair pins, the gifts from the bride. The little flower girl, Ethelma Sullivan, looked very sweet in a frock of shadow lace with rosette trimmings and she carried a basket of rose petals.

The groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. Leonard Frederick. His gift to the best man was studied cuff links. The ushers were Mr. Ernest Sanger, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Ralph Roberts, both of Toronto. The wedding breakfast was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, 85 Wellington street, where forty guests were received. The matron of honor, Mrs. Ross Anderson, sister of the groom, was attired in a French gown of peach georgette with fringe, black picture hat and gold brocade shoes. The bride's mother was attired in navy and white georgette with cameo trimmings, black velvet hat and orange bouquet of spinnia roses and lily-of-the-valley.

The groom's mother wore a French gown of black charmeuse with fringe, rosewood hat and corsage of American beauty roses. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick left on the noon train for their home in Buffalo, N.Y., amid a shower of confetti and good wishes from their many friends. The bride looked very chic in knitted costume, natural camel hair coat with beaver collar and smart Gainsborough felt hat. The gifts to the bride and groom were numerous and beautiful, among them being a cheque and a purse of gold from the members of the Frontenac Club.

AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL BAND. On Wonderful Tour—in Kingston on Friday.

In a chat with Lieut. Gladstone Hill, director of publicity for the world-tour of the famous Australian National Band, and manager of the Canadian-American tour, much interesting information was gleaned. Mr. Hill stated that the band, by the time they arrive in Canada, will have covered about forty thousand miles, through New Zealand, Australia, South Africa and England. In the latter country they have been playing for the past three months. Never before has a similar organization from the Antipodes undertaken such a stupendous task, for the expenses to date run into approximately 150,000 dollars! The largest crowds to hear the band were in England, when over 50,000 assembled and gave the band a most wonderful reception. In South Africa and South Australia crowds of 15,000 and 20,000 met the band on many occasions. The Adelaide 'News' referring to one of these concerts had this to say: "The Jubilee Oval was like a sea of humanity last evening when the Australian National Band gave an open-air concert. Although the band has only been in Adelaide a week, the huge crowd of 20,000 was a wonderful tribute to its popularity, which has been gained by the excellence of its work. On all hands it is recognized as the finest band ever heard in Australia." This famous organization will play in the Arena, Kingston, on Friday, October 1st at 3 in the afternoon and 8.15 at night. Such an opportunity of hearing such a combination from our Sister-Dominion across the seas does not present itself every day and we trust the Arena will be crowded. Kingston will give them a right royal welcome.

SUPPER AND LECTURE AT CALVARY CHURCH To Mark the Forty-fifth Anniversary of This Church.

The forty-fifth anniversary of Calvary United Church was further celebrated on Monday evening, by an anniversary supper and a lecture delivered by Rev. Dr. J. W. Pedley, of Toronto. The supper, which was held in the Sunday School hall, was served to 150 people. It is needless to say that it was enjoyed by all. The lecture in the church afterwards by Dr. Pedley, on the subject, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," was very interesting. The lecturer was a master of the art, for he could move the audience at will from laughter to tears.
