QUEEN'S ARE READY TO MEET AIRMEN

The Queen's University senior team finished up their heavy work in preparation for the Camp Borden game tomorrow, by going through signals, followed by a stiff workout with the intermediate team at the Stadium yesterday afternoon. Charlie "Chicks" Mundell appeared in the role of an assistant coach and gave W. P. Hughes some help for a while.

The regulars were all on hand at yesterday's workout and the senior team went through their work very smoothly. They should be able to come through tomorrow without any harder battle than they had against the Ottawa Senators last Saturday.

A big crowd is expected for tomorrow's game as Dave Harding, Carr-Harris, McCaul, Brown and several others with the Camp Borden team are well known to Kingston rugby fans. The teams will likely start off tomorrow as follows:

Canada Not to Go Into Schooner Race

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 7.—All hopes that Canada would have a representative in the open schooner races off Gloucester next Monday were definitely dissipated when it was stated by Capt. Crouse, master of the Haligonian, that it would be impossible to have his ship ready in time, even if Gloucester's offer to have the required coating of copper paint applied there was accepted.

The new main sail, he said, could not be finished before Friday morning. The voyage from Lunenburg to Gloucester would take until late Saturday night or early Sunday morning. Then add to that the time to allow the paint to dry—24 hours would be necessary—making it out of the question to have the proposed Canadian competitor ready to cross the starting line by Monday morning.

Montreal Maroons to Practice in Stratford

Montreal, Oct. 7.—Billy O'Brien, who trained the players of the champion Montreal professional hockey team last season, has received orders to report for duty on Monday to get things in shape for the arrival of the players on Monday, Oct. 25th. Billy Phillips, who was the sensation of the team last season, by his work in the play-off fixtures, will report with the others on Oct. 25th.

That was a severe blow the Argos got when Harry Batstone came down here to go to Queen's this week but one cannot let pass the wonderful sporting spirit that Mike Rodden, coach of the Argos and other officials showed in their hour of great reverse. They did not turn out of Batstone and call him this, that and the other thing for leaving them but they wished him the best of luck in his medical course at Queen's University and among the first to offer that wish was M. J. Rodden, the Argo coach. Such a spirit is characteristic of Michael J. and the Toronto Argonauts are also to be commended for the splendid spirit in which they received the setback, which is, as everyone knows, a severe one to them. To see such a spirit in face of such disappointment as the splendid sample of real sportsmanship.

Rugby Gossip

Ottawa seems to be worrying a great deal over its middle wing positions, left vacant by the departure of Timmis and Monohan, who played there last year. No doubt the task is a difficult one for the Ottawa mentor but those who know Dave McCann know that a mere question of a couple of middles will not hinder him from turning out a team for the Big Four race that should make its mark again this season. It takes more than that to make him throw up his hands.

The decision of Carl Voss to remain out of football this season should show the outside world that he is not at College merely to play football. Voss is a clever backfield player and was away to a wonderful season when he made his decision to hang up for this season. It is the earnest wish of everyone who knows Voss that he will make a high standing this term and there is none who would not like to see him sail through with all the honors that he can lay hold of.

A Great Northern locomotive, built in 1893 at a cost of $10,728, is well on its way to a million and a quarter miles of service. Its most striking achievement was 293,329 miles without an overhauling. In Northern Russia, natives are reported to have learned to hibernate, stretching sleep over many days of the dark, long winter. There are approximately 152,000 refrigerator cars in service of the railroads of the United States.

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

THE ?—WHO, ME? I NEVER TOLD ONE IN MY LIFE

GET OUT! YOU'RE MADE LOVE TO EVERY GIRL YOU DANCED WITH TONIGHT—THEY TOLD ME SO. WHY WOULD YOU EVER BE SERIOUS?

SAY, I WAS SERIOUS—THEY WERE THE ONES WHO WOULDN'T TALK SENSE.

AND YET, YOU EXPECT ME TO BELIEVE THAT YOU LOVE ME! OOH, MUSSY—DON'T MAKE ME LAUGH

I SAID I LOVED YOU, AND I STICK TO IT—YOU SEE I DIDN'T LEAVE YOU OUT

BUT HOW COULD YOU LOVE US ALL AT THE SAME TIME?

I COULDN'T, MY GOSH—AIN'T ONE AT A TIME ENOUGH?

And the intermediates, with Tremaine, Molson and several others going like a million dollars, look mighty good. Twice already they have played Queen's in practice games and they were so thousand miles behind the parade either. The cadets showed in their second practice game against Queen's that they have something good in their make-up and they are to be feared in the intermediate intercollegiate race.

It would be nice to know just what "Bud" Thomas is going to do about his football. He has started and quit two or three times already this season and at the present time the question of whether he will play any more or not is a doubtful one. "Bud" is keeping not only the Montreal team on pins and needles but he has the rest of the football circuit wondering just what he will finally do. First thing we know, "Bud" will be claiming that woman's privilege, so well known.

That's Saving.
Mae: There's an economical couple. They sloped to save themselves the cost of a wedding.
Sue: Are they happy?
Mae: No, but they are living together to save the cost of a divorce.
—Judge.

Proceed.
"My wife weighs in the neighborhood of 300 pounds."
"If she'd walk about 10 miles a day she'd soon get out of that neighborhood."

It Was Familiar.
Composer (to singer): Have you ever heard my new piece?
Singer: Oh, yes, years ago, but it wasn't yours then. — Dorfbarber, Berlin.

Was Mutual.
Uncle: You boys of today want too much. Do you know what I was getting when I married your aunt?
They: No, and I bet she didn't, either. —Ulk, Berlin.

Writing That Pays.
"So you're going to be an author. What do you expect to write for a living?"
"Home." —Pete Melo, Paris.

Coach Henry Emond of the R.M.C. juniors has been doing wonders with the squad that he has out to practice during the season. Much of the material that he had to start on was quite raw but right now the boys are showing very good work. R.M.C. juniors look fairly good right now and when the time comes for their first game with Queen's Juniors, they should be all set. R.M.C. may have plenty to say about where the opening intercollegiate game at Montreal tomorrow when Shaq's Red and White crew meet Varsity will be the first test of the senior intercollegiate series in the 1926 campaign. Reports from Toronto indicate that Varsity are travelling at a fast pace and with Warren Snyder and Trimble setting a terrific pace it will be hard for McGill to win. On the other hand we are told that McGill, with many of last year's regulars on hand again, are fit and ready for action and may spring a big surprise. McGill followers seem to think that this is McGill's year. The result tomorrow will tell the difference between Varsity and McGill at this stage of the season at any rate.
