WEDDINGS.

Third-Macphail.

Chalmers Church, Kingston, was the scene of a charming wedding when, on Saturday, October the ninth, at high noon. Katharine Louise, younger daughter of Mrs. MacPhail and the late Reverend Donald MacPhail, became the bride of Dr. James Reginald Third. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend George A. Brown, and The church was beautifully decorated with autumn foliage and flowers.

The bride, who was exquisitely gowned in ivory satin veiled in chiforange blossoms, entered the church on the arm of her uncle. Dr. Alexander Primrose to the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin play-That the leaves are turning at |ed by Dr. Frost, organist of the church. Her lovely train of chantilly lace, which belonged to her great-grandmother, was lined with chiffon and was covered by her bridal vell of tulle, caught to her head by a bandeau of real lace. She carried a shower bouquet of ophelia roses and lily of the valley, and was preceded by her only attendant, Miss Helen Richardson, who wore a chic French frock of primrose georgette trimmed with velvet and rhinestones with hat and shoes en suite. She carried a sheaf of bronze chrysanthemums. The best man was Mr. Whytock, and the ushers Dr. Howard Folger, Mr. John Hyde, Montreal and Mr. Charles Mundell.

During the signing of the regis ter, Miss Harriette Gardiner sang reception was held at the home of Harold S. Packer the bride's mother, where Mrs. Mac-Phail and Mrs. James Third received with the bride and groom. Later Dr. and Mrs. Third left by motor for New York State, the bride wearing a crepe dress trimmed with French blue, a French blue suede coat with gray fur collar, grey shoes and a smart blue felt hat.

Upon their return they will reside at 12 Wellington street. The out-of-town guests included, Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Primrose, Toronto, Mrs. Louis May, New York, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brittan, Mr. and Mrs. Humphey Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Collamer Calvin, Miss Hilda Calvin, Mr. Gus Calvin, Toronto, Miss Elizabeth Smith, Ottawa, Miss Mollie Pickard, Montreal, Mrs. David Waters, Belleville, Miss Lillian Handford, Ren-
